

RICHESON IN COURT

ACCUSED PASTOR

In Linnell Case Arraigned Today and Hearing Continued

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Appearing worn and wan after his eleven days in jail, so much so that he could scarcely be distinguished from any of the score of drunks who were crowded into the pen with him, Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson appeared in the municipal court before Judge Michael J. Murray today for a continued hearing on the charge of poisoning his former sweetheart, Avis Linnell. Almost before observers realized the identity of the prisoner who stood in the dock, Clerk Linnell in a subdued voice went through the formality of pronouncing the hearing further continued until next week Tuesday, Nov. 7. The prisoner then stepped down from the dock, was escorted through the door and thence was taken to the Tombs to await his return to the Charles street jail.

The formal continuance of the hearing was made necessary by the fact that the Suffolk county grand jury, which has considered for three days evidence presented by District Attorney Joseph F. Belcher against Mr. Richeson, had not yet made a report on the case. The grand jury was scheduled to resume its sitting at 2 o'clock this afternoon. It had been expected that the request of the government for a continuance would be objected to by the defense, but Assistant District Attorney Lavelle and Attorney Dunbar, attorneys for the defense, held a short conference in the courtroom this morning and when the case came up there was not a hitch in the machinery of court formalities.

Newspapers in the courtroom had scanned closely the dock and were the scene of prisoners, most of them arrested for intoxication. In the hope of picking out the clergyman, it had been supposed that the minister's usually immaculate clothing would easily distinguish him. When he rose and faced the court he was not at first recognized. His face was haggard and aged; his clothes hung from his shoulders so loosely as to appear very ill fitting and his general attitude was that of a man who had slept out all night, except for the neatly combed hair.

The court did not linger long with his case nor did it allow the proceedings to be known to those in the same room. The words by which Clerk Linnell pronounced the hearing continued until Nov. 7 were barely mumbled and it required a wave of his hand to indicate to the attendant that the prisoner was to be escorted from the stand. The fact that the case was to be continued was not certainly known until Mr. Dunbar said that this was the agreement reached.

About the time the grand jury was scheduled to resume its sitting this afternoon the accused clergyman was expected to make his second trip in the prison van which carries the prisoners between the Tombs and the Charles street jail. As on his first trip, following his appearance in court after his arrest on Friday, Oct. 20, at the home of his fiancée, Miss Violet Edmonds, his companions on this ride were to be his ill-kempt brethren of the detention pen.

In contrast to this ride today was that which the accused clergyman had originally planned for this day. This was to have been the day of his marriage to Miss Violet Edmonds but his arrest resulted in the postponement of the wedding.

It was reported at the court house during the late forenoon that when the grand jury resumed its sitting at two o'clock it would be ready to declare whether or not the government has been successful in the attempt to indict Mr. Richeson. It was known that Judge Sanderson had arranged to be in the courthouse at two o'clock although his desks are clear of all business except the grand jury's report. It was said that the grand jury had reached a decision yesterday afternoon between the time when the last two witnesses concluded their testimony at 2:30 and the adjournment at 2:50.

They were under no guard and went to their homes. It is known that the government finished with all the witnesses at hand yesterday and it was reported that the district attorney had no intention of presenting before the grand jury any transcript of the evidence collected at Hyannis last night by Assistant Attorney Lavelle.

SLICE HARRIS BLOCK

Hearing on Proposition to Widen Aiken Street

The street committee tomorrow evening will hold a hearing of more than usual importance on the petition for the widening of Aiken street at its junction with Hall street, which is being actively promoted by Alderman Toppin.

At the present time Aiken street runs from Merrimack street to Hall in a straight line, while opposite its junction with Hall street on the south side is the big brick wall of the Lawrence Manufacturing company. Diagonally across Hall street about 20 feet above its junction, Aiken street starts again and runs to the bridge, making practically two separate and distinct streets under one name. On the left side of Aiken street at Hall is an immense tenement block owned by the heirs of George W. Harris, which shuts off the view of the continuation of the street from the original street at the junction, while coming from Centralville, the company's wall shuts off the view across Hall street. Thus the junction of the streets is one of the danger spots of Lowell, particularly at night, for teams and automobiles, and there have been many narrow escapes and some accidents there. Chief Hosmer of the fire department has at different times called attention to the dangerous layout of the streets at this point. The petitioners propose to have the city take a triangular strip off the corner on which the Harris block is now located, the cut-off starting in Aiken street about 50 feet from the corner and extending to a point directly opposite the Herbert property on the upper side of Aiken street across Hall street, thus connecting the streets as nearly straight as is possible. The improvement will mean taking 2175 feet of land and a part of the building that will include about two tenements. It is understood that the owners of the property will make no objection if they receive sufficient remuneration to pay for the land and the remodeling of the short portion of the building.

Fire Department Committee
The fire department committee of the city council will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. As this is the fifth Tuesday of the month there will be no meeting of either branch of the city council this evening.

Canal crossing Thorndike street in the rear of Livingston's coal yard. Jackson street canal opposite storage warehouse.

Concord river, rear of Electric Light Co.'s hot water house and another 200 feet south.

Concord river, in rear of Stirling mills.

Concord river, two on either side of river near Bay State mills.

In the canal in the rear of the police station will be installed a steel row boat, 16 feet long and four feet wide, equipped with grappling irons.

SUITS FOR $50,000

Two Attachments Against Albert F. Hayes

Two attachments were recorded at the registry of deeds office this morning against Albert F. Hayes of Hopkinton in the sum of $25,000 and $15,000, by the receiver of the Continental Telephone and Telegraph Co.

THE SUPERIOR COURT

Case of Byrne vs. Jackson on Trial

The case of Mary F. Deery vs. the Eastern Concrete Construction company, in an action of tort for the recovery for injuries alleged to have been received while crossing a temporary bridge in the town of Concord, built by the defendant company while it was constructing a new bridge to replace the old one, which was started in the superior court several days ago, came to a close late yesterday afternoon, when the jury reported in favor of the defendant company.

The case now on trial is that of Patrick Byrne, Jr., p. p. a. vs. Lawrence M. Jackson. In this case the plaintiff, a boy eight years of age, brings suit through his father, Patrick Byrne, to recover damages for injuries sustained through being run over by a bicycle on which the defendant, a son of Dr. William B. Jackson, was riding. The plaintiff claims that he was sitting on the curb stone in front of his home in Hudson street, with his back toward the defendant, who crossed a vacant lot on his bicycle and ran so close to the sidewalk that he ran over the boy's legs. One leg was broken and the boy was in the hospital about two months. The accident happened on June 9, 1910. John W. McEvoy for the plaintiff and John C. Leggat for the defendant.

The case went to the jury this morning and at the opening of court this afternoon a verdict of $290 for the plaintiff was reported.

Money Deposited

On or before the SECOND SATURDAY in November, will draw three months' interest, if not withdrawn before the second Saturday of February, 1912.

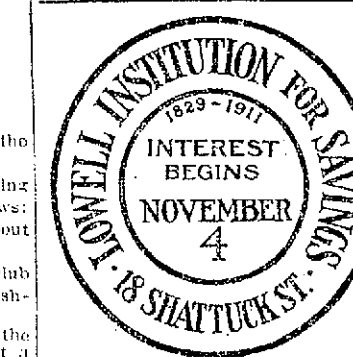

WASHINGTON SAVINGS INSTITUTION
267 CENTRAL STREET

INTEREST

BEGINS
Friday, Nov. 3

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT
Traders National Bank

Hours: 8:30 to 3
Saturday 8:30 to 12:30, 7 to 9

BRIGHT, SEARS & CO.
WYMAN'S EXCHANGE

Bankers and Brokers
SECOND FLOOR

If you are not happy at home, in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

ROUSING MEETING

Boomed Commission Government at Associate Hall Last Night

At Associate hall last night Roy F. Bergengren of Lynn told of the success of the charter in that city. Ex-Mayor Head of Nashville, Tenn., pointed out its advantages for all cities. William N. Osgood answered Mayor Meehan, and Dr. McAviney showed that the present government is not representative.

The Meeting

The charter campaign committee opened its week of rallies in support of the new charter under most auspicious circumstances last evening with a rally in Associate hall, attended by an interested audience of about 500, comprising men of both parties, professional and business men and mill operatives and mechanics. There was a conspicuous absence of politicians. The audience listened with close attention to the words of the speakers and applauded enthusiastically each point made by the speakers.

What little in the nature of argument that has been advanced by the speakers against the charter was answered by William N. Osgood in a spirited reply to some of the published statements of Mayor Meehan, while the committee to forward the claim of some of the charter opponents to the effect that the new form of government had not been successful in Lynn went to that city and secured as a speaker Mr. Roy F. Bergengren of that city whose remarks left no doubt as to the success of the Lynn charter. The speakers emphasized the importance of the recall and the referendum in the new charter and pointed out in brief manner how under the new charter the official can be called to time even before he has gone too far after mature deliberation. In unsparing the speakers showed that it will not be necessary to bring an official before the grand jury to show that he is unfit to hold office longer, through the medium of the recall and through the medium of the referendum.

The principal speaker was Hon. John M. Head, ex-mayor of Nashville, Tenn., who has worked under the so-called commission form of government and knows whereof he speaks in advocating this form of government.

The presiding officer was Dr. J. E. Launon, a member of the committee of sixty, and in calling the meeting to order he impressed upon the audience the fact that in drafting the charter, the committee in charge had not jumped to conclusions and given the city a hastily prepared document but had made a deep study of the conditions in other cities in which the new idea had been tried and found successful. The committee had not attempted to force any individual ideas on the public but framed its draft only after mature deliberation. Suggestions had been invited, received and discussed at the different meetings.

Roy F. Bergengren
Mr. Bergengren got a warm reception and from the start he held the close attention of his audience. He spoke in part as follows: "It would give me much pleasure did time permit to relate the stock arguments of the opposition to the new charter. Without asking you what the arguments are against the charter in this city, I know what they are. They are the same old arguments used against the Des Moines and Galveston charters."

Continued to page four

A BIG MASSACRE

Is Now Threatened in China by the Manchus

PEKING, Oct. 31.—The state of terror which has taken possession of the entire imperial court was further evidenced today by a long list of edicts supplementing yesterday's remarkable proclamation and offering further concessions of the most radical character. Today's edicts indicate that even though the dynasty survives Manchukuo rule is at an end. The transfer even of the cabinet officers to native Chinese is ordered and the throne swears that "hereafter Manchus and Chinese shall be regarded equally," meaning that the elaborate system of Manchukuo pensions which are now paid to practically every member of the race will be discontinued and the Manchus left to earn a living by their own enterprise. All today's edicts, like that of yesterday, are written in the first person as coming from the infant emperor himself. This is unusual and is apparently a device adopted by the throne's advisers in a pathetic attempt to create among the people a feeling of personal loyalty for their sovereign.

The edicts make a complete capitulation to the demands of the national assembly and even go so far as to offer extravagant praise to the representatives for bringing about the great reforms which are promised. The throne abjectly acknowledges its incapacity, pleads ignorance of affairs, asks that its lapses be pardoned and requests the assistance and advice of all citizens. Finally it makes a hysterical effort to rally Chinese and Manchus alike to the royal standard by hinting at grave foreign dangers which it thinks should be met by a united China.

In its struggle for existence, the infant emperor even condemns many of his closest relatives. The present officialdom, he declares, has not sought the interests of the people but only its own pockets. The revolutionists are unimpressed by the flood of edicts from the emperor. They declare that the dynasty's partial surrender has come too late.

Moreover, they do not trust the throne, regarding their present position as too strong for yielding to promises which they feel are insincere.

Continued to page nine

Ani-sen

THE BABY'S MEDICINE

Does not contain alcohol, paregoric, opium, morphine nor any dangerous drug. Cures all ordinary troubles of baby's stomach, liver and bowels.

Prepared by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all druggists at 25c a bottle.

ANY DAY is a good day to start a checking account.

OLD LOWELL NATIONAL BANK

INTEREST BEGINS SATURDAY, NOV. 4

—AT—
THE CENTRAL SAVINGS BANK
55 CENTRAL STREET

Interest Paid on Deposits

—AT—
Middlesex Trust Co.
MERRIMACK,
Corner of Palmer Street

LIFE SAVING DEVICES

Being Placed Along River and Canal Banks

Councilman John J. Coughlin's proposition to provide life-saving devices at the several danger spots on the banks of the rivers and canals of Lowell has borne good fruit for today the employees of the buildings department started to install these devices at 20 particularly dangerous places and expect to have them all installed by tomorrow evening if the weather is fair.

The life-saving devices being installed consist of a 15 foot ash ladder, a 15 foot grappling pole and a ring life-saving buoy, 20 inches in diameter and attached to 50 feet of rope. At each place where these are to be placed two ash posts will be sunk into the ground and the life buoy attached to one and the pole and ladder to the other. All have been painted a drab color and Building Inspector Dew wants it understood that they have been placed there to be used only when needed and he requests the public to refrain from removing them for the purpose of examining them.

The places at which the life-saving devices will be placed are as follows: Black Brook, Middlesex street, about 10 feet from the bridge.

Public landing at Vesper boat club and at Vermont avenue, near the fish-way.

Waverley canal, in the rear of the Bartlett school on one side and at a point directly across the canal.

Cheever street canal, on either side of the canal, opposite Tucker street. Merrimack river, Lakeview ave., at old baseball grounds and at Front street, opposite the three tenement block, at a point near the Central bridge.

Dutton street canal, opposite entrance to High school and near Merrimack street, opposite the fountain in Lucy Laron park.

Suffolk canal on either side of the canal near the Jefferson street bridge.

10c Elcho Cigars

Will satisfy you or your money refunded.

Driscoll & Fitzgerald
ELCHO CIGARS FOR SALE IN LOWELL BY
J. J. Gallagher, Merrimack St.
F. J. N. Luchessa, 408 Middlesex St.
Samuel Scott, 208 Middlesex St.

WHO WRINGS?

After washing and rinsing the clothes, who turns the wringer?

Probably no person in your home cares for the task.

But the electric washer is equipped with a wringer. It is driven by a little motor. Let us show you.

LOWELL ELECTRIC LIGHT CORP.

50 Central Street

business, try The Sun "Want" column.

ARCHBISHOP O'CONNELL

Remarkable Statement

MADE BY W. ROMILLARD ABOUT NEW TONIC

"Yes, I'm the man that new tonic helped so much," said W. D. Romillard, No. 93 Worthen street, city, recently. "I have not been feeling like I've gotten the right kind of rest. I have gained rapidly in weight and feel strong and vigorous again. I can truthfully say 'Tona Vita' is the best medicine I have ever taken and I recommend it to those who need such a remedy."

"One bottle of the tonic, 'Tona Vita' has made a big change in me. I now eat almost anything—sleep soundly, and I get up mornings feeling like I've gotten the right kind of rest. I have gained rapidly in weight and feel strong and vigorous again. I can truthfully say 'Tona Vita' is the best medicine I have ever taken and I recommend it to those who need such a remedy."

Hundreds of Lowell people are now taking 'Tona Vita' and scores of testimonials of the same kind are being received by the specialists who are here explaining the nature of the preparation and demonstrating its remarkable value as a vegetable tonic.

"Any man or woman in Lowell who is a victim of nervous debility is making a grave mistake if they do not try this medicine," said one of these specialists Saturday afternoon. "In the first place it does not restore them to health," continued this specialist, "it is certainly worth the trouble to come and get the tonic when it means constant poor health if they don't. The symptoms of nervous debility are often mistaken for something else by those who do not know the nature of this deadly prevalent condition, but there is no mistake in debility for anything else by those who understand it. The following symptoms are characteristic of this trouble: Lassitude, nervousness, timidity, depression of spirits, little vitality, poor circulation, cold feet, headaches, weak back, poor digestion and bowel trouble. These are unmistakable symptoms of nervous debility and there are thousands of people, especially in the larger cities, who are afflicted. 'Tona Vita' acts like a true specific and from the very first moment the medicine is taken, improvement is rapid."

The specialists may be found each day between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. at the Hall & Lyon drug store, where they will meet all callers and explain the nature of the new preparation.

most profoundly.

"If I have done aught by word and work in the past to merit even a touch of such touching devotion and affection, I am heartily grateful to God."

"With this greater honor comes greater responsibilities and larger duties to the church, to the Holy See, and to all America. With a heart overflowing with devotion and friendship of which I am truly proud, I shall, with God's grace, endeavor in my own poor measure to rise to the new duties which confront me."

"In this moment of joy for the whole diocese and New England and for every Catholic, I am proud that in my humble person the Holy Father has honored every single one of them, and that they in turn are correspondingly grateful to His Holiness."

"I wish here to express my deep gratitude to the press for the dignified and delicate manner in which this matter has been conducted, and to all I return my most fervent and sincere thanks and a hearty benediction."

Spent a Quiet Day

Despite the great honor bestowed upon Archbishop O'Connell yesterday in the official announcement of his elevation, the usual daily routine of the archbishop's residence to be carried out, his grace attending to his usual duties, at the same time finding time to receive many who called to extend their congratulations. Late in the day, however, owing to the stress of work and his preparations for his departure for Rome, the cardinal-designate was forced to deny himself to practically all who called at his residence.

His grace was the same courteous, gracious, and kind, he has always been, but outside the official statement, Archbishop O'Connell would not publicly discuss his notification. To a strong personal friend, who called at the archbishop's residence to congratulate him, Archbishop O'Connell said:

"The signal honor was wholly, wholly unexpected. That it is extremely gratifying must be evident. I did not care to discuss the matter until it was officially confirmed. I am indeed pleased."

As the representative of his grace, Fr. James P. E. O'Connell, the archbishop's secretary, said:

"Archbishop O'Connell has received congratulatory messages from all over the world, including one from his eminence, Cardinal Logue of Ireland, Bishop Kennedy, rector of the American college at Rome, prominent ecclesiastical and laymen of the United States and from other countries will assist in making the affair one of splendor and grandeur. All the pomp and ceremony of the Roman Catholic church will be brought forth to make the presentation the most historic event in the church in New England."

Will Live in Boston

What makes Archbishop O'Connell's elevation doubly pleasing not only to his own people but the general public is the fact Boston will be his residence after he has been invested.

According to advices from Rome, Archbishop O'Connell will continue as spiritual head of the archdiocese of Boston and direct the church's affairs as he has in the past.

On Nov. 27 Archbishop O'Connell will be elevated. The ceremony will take place in the Hall of Consistory, near the eternally famed Sistine Chapel.

The ceremony is described as one of the most solemn and gorgeous in the church. After the cardinal-designate has been invested, the pope and a host of prelates arrive. The proclamation announcing the elevation of the designated will be made by the pope. Thereafter the elevated prelates will rank as princes of the church.

A brilliant ceremony will take place in the Boston cathedral when Cardinal O'Connell returns after the investiture for it is then that the cardinal's biretta will be bestowed on him. He will return to Boston with the papal legate and one of the Noble Guard of the Vatican, in whose care the biretta will be entrusted.

The ceremonial of guarding the cardinal's biretta will most likely be entrusted to Mrs. Santa Tamponi. Mrs. Tamponi accompanied Cardinal Vanutelli to America, to the Eucharistic congress at Montreal. He is private chamberlain to the pope. He is also an intimate friend of Archbishop O'Connell.

The red hat conferred is seldom worn. It is of wide dimensions as to the rim, and in the center the crown is slightly raised. A series of tassels, increasing in number as they ascend, falls from the ends.

The cord on which the tassels hang is made of the finest gold and is adorned with precious stones.

The cardinal's hat is of wide dimensions as to the rim, and in the center the crown is slightly raised. A series of tassels, increasing in number as they ascend, falls from the ends.

The cord on which the tassels hang is made of the finest gold and is adorned with precious stones.

The cardinal's hat is of wide dimensions as to the rim, and in the center the crown is slightly raised. A series of tassels, increasing in number as they ascend, falls from the ends.

The cord on which the tassels hang

CAPTAINS OF THE MINNESOTA AND THE CHICAGO ELEVENS

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Nothing but a victory over Minnesota will satisfy Chicago football players and rooters this year, for they feel they have one of the strongest elevens in years. The two teams are to clash in Minneapolis Nov. 4. The surprising reversal of form shown by the Maroons against the Illinois recently gave Chicago men hopes for a victory over Minnesota. From a team that on Sept. 20 looked

THE TURKISH TROOPS

Have Retaken Two Forts at Tripoli After Hard Battle

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 31.—The Turkish troops with their Arab allies have retaken two forts at Tripoli and forced the Italians to entrench themselves within the city after abandoning large quantities of guns, rifles, ammunition and provisions, according to a telegram from Rahim Bey, the deputy for Saloniki, who is now at Tripoli. The message, which was received by the Tani at last night, adds: "The Italians were unable to resist the fierce assaults of the Arabs and were compelled to retreat."

The Italians still hold three forts. The Arabs are displaying remarkable heroism and hope in recapture the city."

The message is undated.

has first and nearest the brain a single tassel. Below this in series are two, three, four, and finally five tassels. These, respectively, designate a priest, monsignor, bishop, archbishop and finally a cardinal.

In St. Patrick's cathedral, New York city, suspended from the ceiling in the vast auditorium, hangs the red hat conferred on Cardinal Macloskey when he was made a prince of the church.

At present there are but two cardinals of the English speaking race, Cardinal Gibbons and Cardinal Logue. Hence the elevation of Archbishop O'Connell and of Archbishop Farley adds to a distinguished line.

The ceremony of conferring the biretta on Cardinal O'Connell at the Boston Cathedral will be one of the most celebrated events in the history of Massachusetts. Archbishops, bishops, monsignors and distinguished members of the clergy will assist in the exercises. Distinguished members of the hierarchy from all parts of the United States and from other countries will assist in making the affair one of splendor and grandeur. All the pomp and ceremony of the Roman Catholic church will be brought forth to make the presentation the most historic event in the church in New England.

The exact date of the ceremony will not be known definitely for some time. Cardinal O'Connell will return from the consistory the latter part of December. It is then the biretta will be conferred in the Holy Cross Cathedral, most likely by His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons.

is made of the finest gold and is adorned with precious stones.

The cardinal's hat is of wide dimensions as to the rim, and in the center the crown is slightly raised. A series of tassels, increasing in number as they ascend, falls from the ends.

The cord on which the tassels hang

Wednesday, Nov. 1, 1911

Double ~~2x~~ Stamps
All Day
Special Cut Prices For the Occasion

BEST FANCY SUGAR-CURED SMOKED SHOUL- 93/4c
DERS, Lb.

These are as fancy a lot as you could desire.

BEST FANCY SALT SPARE RIBS, Lb. 7 1/2c
These are single sheets and are the best cured.

CALNAN & GUTHRIE Cut-Price Grocers

113-115 Gorham St., Cor. Winter St. Tel. 2936
513 Merrimack St., Near Tremont St. Tel. 2170

200 "S. & H." Stamps FREE with every Barrel of Flour, any brand.
25 "S. & H." Stamps FREE with every Bag of Flour, any brand.
100 "S. & H." Stamps FREE with 1 lb. Best Tea or 1 lb. Best Baking Powder.

60 "S. & H." STAMPS WITH THE FOLLOWING ORDER FOR 35c—

Can Pure Potash or Lye.....	10c
Bottle Best Bluing.....	10c
Can Big "10" Cleaner.....	5c
15c Bot. Best Worcestershire Sauce	10c
Total	35c

60 "S. & H." Stamps FREE With the Above Useful Order.

BEST NATIVE (HARD-SHELL) SQUASH, Lb. 1c
BEST NATIVE CABBAGE (solid heads), Lb. 1c
3 LBS. BEST "SUNSHINE" BISCUITS..... 25c

ALL GOODS GUARANTEED. PROMPT DELIVERY

Fireman O'Armour, Trying to avoid striking D'Armour, Bernier threw out his leg and the latter was caught on the floor, with the whole weight of Bernier's body on the pole. He managed to get out of this perilous position, however, but not before he had badly strained his leg.

The injured man was removed to his home, 75 Beaulieu street, and Dr. Jackson was called. He is now doing very well and will probably be about again in a few days.

GOOD JUDGMENT SUGGESTS—

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

Lowell, Tuesday, Oct. 31, 1911

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

LAST OF OCTOBER BARGAINS

FINE QUALITY MANNISH SUITINGS—

$1.50 and $1.75 grades. Only, a yard..... $1.25

BLACK SERGES, CHEVIOTS, WORSTEDS, SUITINGS AND PANAMAS—

Leggings, 2 to 6 yards. Regular prices $1.25 and $2.00. Only, a yard 79c

PALMER STREET RIGHT AISLE

In Cotton Flannel

DOMET FLANNEL REMNANTS AT LOW PRICES—

Unbleached Domet Flannel, nice soft fleeced, only, yard... 4c

BLEACHED DOMETS—

Bleached Domet Flannel, nice soft fleeced, good quality, 8c value, at, yard 6 1/2c

BLEACHED DOMET—

Two cases of good Domet Flannel in long remnants, nice and warm quality for under-garments, 10c value, at, yard.... 8c

TWILL DOMET—

Remnants of heavy twill domet, thickly fleeced and warm, 12 1-2c value, at, yard..... 10c

YARD WIDE DOMET—

Full yard wide domet flannel, bleached, good fine quality and nice woolly fleec, 12 1-2c value, at, yard..... 10c

TWILL OUTING FLANNEL—

Heavy twill outing flannel in large remnants of 10 to 20 yards, light and dark, in stripes and checks, 12 1-2c value, at yard 8c

FULL LINE OF WOOL FLANNEL—

Our stock of wool flannel is complete, white, gray and red, in all widths, prices from, yard..... 20c to 50c

PALMER STREET BASEMENT

At the first stroke of the bell, the firemen were upstairs and they made a rush for the pole to reach the wagon in the quickest time possible. Bernier happened to be the second man in line and he made a swing for the pole, reaching it about the same time as

At the first stroke of the bell, the firemen were upstairs and they made a rush for the pole to reach the wagon in the quickest time possible. Bernier happened to be the second man in line and he made a swing for the pole, reaching it about the same time as

At the first stroke of the bell, the firemen were upstairs and they made a rush for the pole to reach the wagon in the quickest time possible. Bernier happened to be the second man in line and he made a swing for the pole, reaching it about the same time as

At the first stroke of the bell, the firemen were upstairs and they made a rush for the pole to reach the wagon in the quickest time possible. Bernier happened to be the second man in line and he made a swing for the pole, reaching it about the same time as

At the first stroke of the bell, the firemen were upstairs and they made a rush for the pole to reach the wagon in the quickest time possible. Bernier happened to be the second man in line and he made a swing for the pole, reaching it about the same time as

Says His Elevation Honors Every New England Catholic

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Archbishop O'Connell last evening issued the following statement:

"Today I have received official communication from the cardinal secretary of state, stating that our Holy Father, Pius X, will raise me to the dignity of the cardinalate, at the coming consistory, Nov. 27."

"Profoundly sensible of this great testimonial of paternal affection on the part of His Holiness towards me, my first thought is one of immeasurable gratitude toward the Vicar of Christ, who from the very beginning of his pontificate has, notwithstanding my own unworthiness, given me renewed and constant tokens of his esteem and affection."

"Until now I have been forced on account of the delicacy of the situation to keep silence. But while my lips were sealed my ears and eyes were wide open and the beautiful and touching words that have been written and said of me and my poor efforts to do something for God and my own dear country and city, have touched me

Anty Drudge Advises the Fireman.

Fireman—"Morning, Anty Drudge! You had better go over to Mrs. Slims; she's terribly burned."

Anty Drudge—"How did it happen?"

Fireman—"Over-heated stove. Trying to get the fire hot enough to boil her clothes. My wife was badly burned last week doing the same thing."

Anty Drudge—"Yes, I'll go right over. But look here, young man! Get your wife Fels-Naptha. Then she won't have to boil the clothes. Just use lukewarm or cool water; let the clothes soak for half an hour; that's all there is to it."

Friendship begins with acquaintance.

All Fels-Naptha wants is an introduction and it will become your boon companion in laundry and kitchen.

We are advertising to get Fels-Naptha that introduction into new homes.

Then we depend on the soap itself to keep it there.

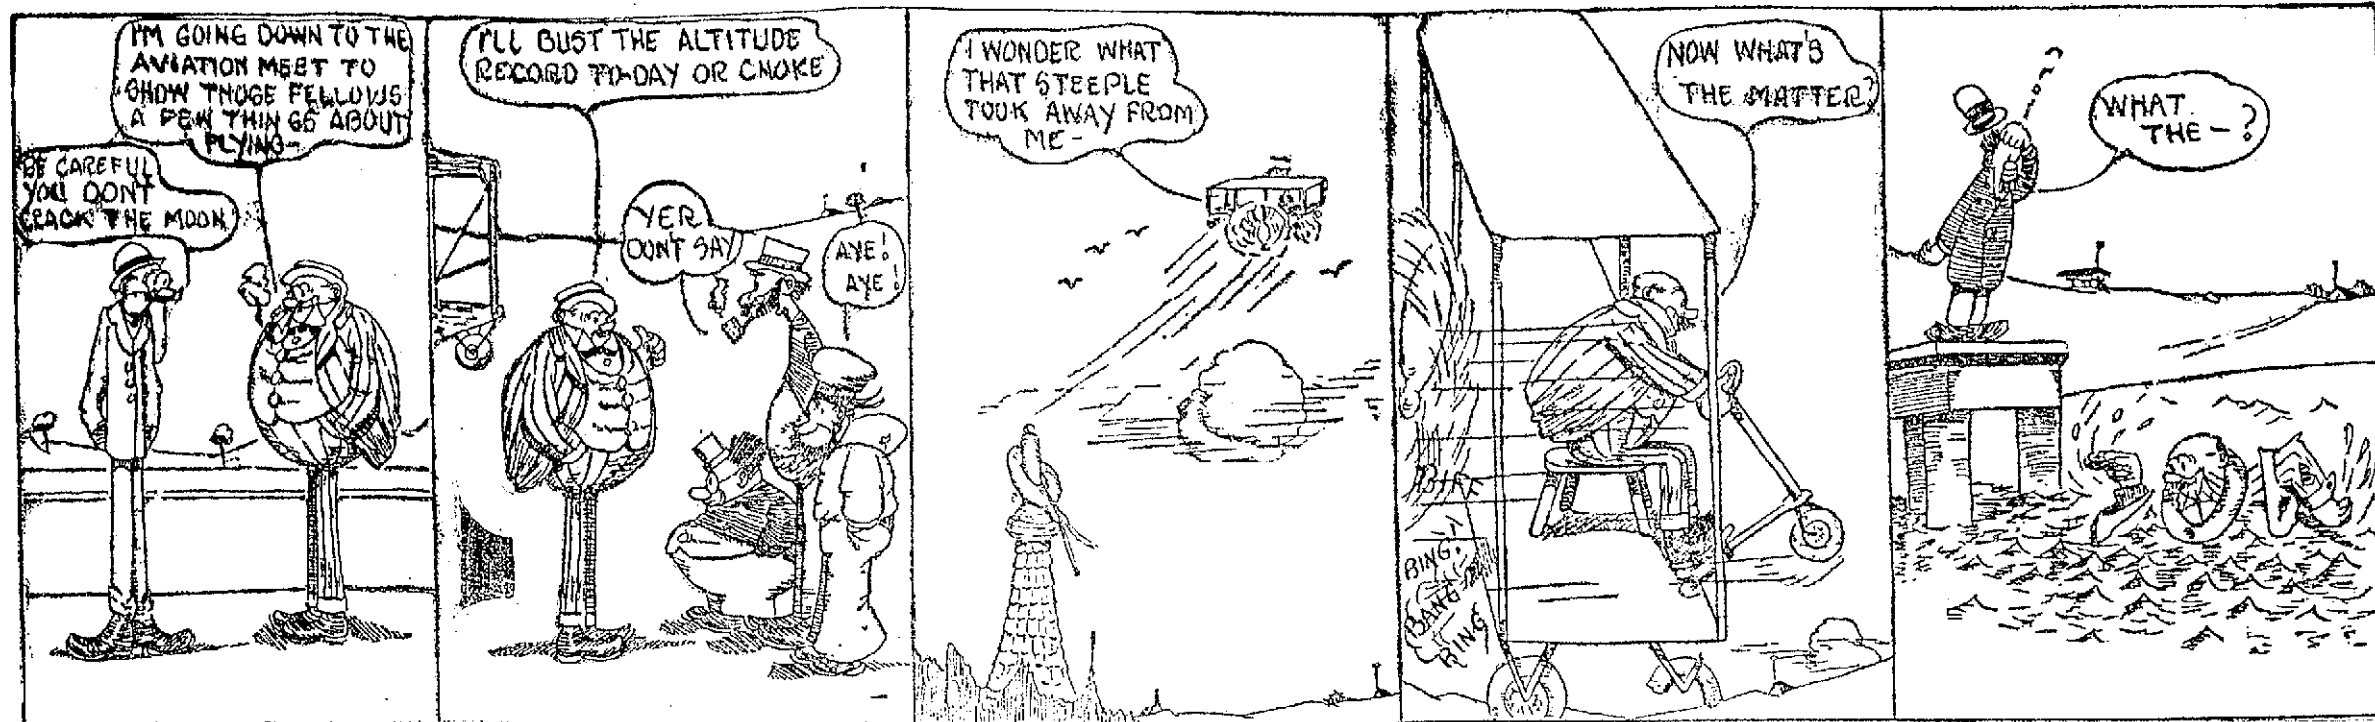

If Fels-Naptha wouldn't do what we claim; if it wouldn't wash clothes quicker and better in cool or lukewarm water without hard labor or boiling; if it wouldn't save time, work, fuel and health—would over a million women use it every washday?

Not much.

But Fels-Naptha will do these things and more; has done them and is doing them for more and more progressive women every year.

Follow the easy directions on the back of the red and green wrapper.

YEP, BO, BEN'S UP IN THE AIR ABOUT SOMETHING!

INVINCIBLES LOST

Cubs Took Two Points From Champions

The bowling season is now in full swing and nightly the various bowling alleys throughout the city are well patronized. The Concord league and the Minor league made their debut of the season last night.

The Invincibles and Cubs of the Concord league met on the Y. M. C. I. alleys and although the Cubs were defeated in the total pinfall by a margin of 11 pins the team managed to win the first two strings and therefore captured two of the points. The bowling of Rogers of the Invincibles was the feature of the game.

There were two games played in the Minor league series. The Giants found the Washingtons to be an easy proposition and won all four points with comparative ease. The game between the Arrows and Oregons of the same league resulted in a victory for the former team which won three of the four points. The scores:

CONCORD LEAGUE
Invincibles
	1	2	3	Totals
Cooney	54	72	69	195
Cogan	81	85	101	267
Leonard	81	81	84	246
Hammerley	57	70	49	176
Rogers	93	86	103	282
Totals	371	394	426	1191

Cubs
	1	2	3	Totals
King	53	77	71	201
Shea	82	86	89	257
Kelly	72	78	87	237
Hayes	85	78	69	232
Eastham	84	83	85	252
Totals	377	402	431	1180

MINOR LEAGUE
Giants
	1	2	3	Totals
Armistead	101	81	102	284
Gendron	94	100	91	285
Herron	90	96	95	281
Panton	100	92	90	282
Sweeney	83	87	92	262
Totals	468	466	470	1394

Washingtons
	1	2	3	Totals
Warren	86	93	92	271
Rourke	76	78	83	237
Whitlock	72	87	83	242
Tully	83	86	87	256
Chapman	78	93	87	258
Totals	395	435	447	1277

Arrows
	1	2	3	Totals
Duchene	84	82	83	250
Blanchard	86	105	79	270
Cunliffe	73	87	95	255
Hosmer	89	79	83	251
Whipple	87	94	84	265
Totals	429	447	425	1281

Oregons
	1	2	3	Totals
Fahey	83	94	76	253
Shattuck	80	81	84	245
Standers	85	87	88	260
Lane	85	78	73	236
Dow	77	92	108	277
Totals	420	432	428	1280

TEAM STANDING
	Won	Lost	P.C.
L. M. S.	7	0	100.0
Bigelow	7	1	87.5
Hamilton	7	1	87.5
Mass.	3	3	50.0
T. & S.	3	3	50.0
Lawrence	1	7	12.5
Bleachery	0	8	0.0

INDIVIDUAL AVERAGES
	Bowler and Team	Strings	Ave.
Clark, L. M. S.	100	100	100.0
Grant, L. M. S.	100	100	100.0
C. Farrell, T. & S.	98	98	98.0
Green, Lawrence	98	98	98.0
McJermott, Bigelow	97	97	97.0
Haikenny, T. & S.	96	96	96.0
Thurston, Bigelow	95	95	95.0
Sharpe, L. M. S.	94	94	94.0
Sargent, Bigelow	93	93	93.0
Podger, Hamilton	92	92	92.0
Pilkington, L. M. S.	91	91	91.0
McKinley, Bigelow	90	90	90.0
Hudson, Hamilton	89	89	89.0
Lang, Hamilton	88	88	88.0
Williams, L. M. S.	87	87	87.0
J. Proulx, L. M. S.	86	86	86.0
Webb, Bigelow	85	85	85.0
Best, Hamilton	84	84	84.0

BRUNSWICK ALLEYS

The weekly roll-off on the Brunswick alleys was won by E. McCormick with a total of 367. Martin was a close second with 361 and Smith third with 295.

BRIDGE STREET ALLEYS

Earl Locke and George Lees won the two-men team prize on the Bridge street alleys with a total of 585. The scores:

	1	2	3	Totals
Earl Locke	101	99	101	301
George Lees	99	97	99	295
Totals	200	196	190	586

CHARTER RALLIES

Places and Speakers for Remainder of Week

Below appear the dates, meeting places and speakers at the charter rallies for the remainder of the week:

Tuesday, October 31st
South Lowell—Speakers, Joseph Plante, Thomas J. Goyette.

Wednesday, November 1st
Odd Fellows Hall, Centralville—Speakers, Henry H. Harris, president, P. W. Qua, Esq., Wm. N. Osgood, Esq., Wm. H. Wilson, Esq., Club Socialists De Centralville—Speakers: John H. Beaulieu, president, Thomas J. Goyette, Dr. Joseph Lamoureux, John H. Murphy.

Thursday, November 2nd
Chelmsford Street Church—Speakers, Harvey B. Greene, Capt. William P. White.
High Street Engine House—Speakers, Fred C. Weld, president, Daniel Donohue, Michael A. Lee, Frederic A. Fisher, Esq.

Friday, November 3rd
Mathew Hall—Speakers, Michael A. Lee, Dr. Frank McAvinue, Harvey B. Greene, John H. Murphy.
Lyon Street School—Speakers: Daniel Donohue, Major Charles S. Proctor, John E. Drury, Capt. William P. White, John Donnelly.
C. M. A. C.—Speakers, Dr. Joseph Lamoureux, Thomas J. Goyette, John H. Murphy.
Middlesex Tavern—Speakers, Jos. McDonald, Esq., president, Irving D. Kinball.
Highland Hall—Speakers, Royal Dexter, president, Wm. N. Osgood, Esq., Henry H. Harris, George E. Marchand.

Literature consisting of a charter catechism and a leaflet showing a comparison of the old plan and the new plan may be obtained at the following drug stores:
A. W. Dows, Merrimack & Central streets.
Carter & Sherburne's, Merrimack Square.
F. E. Bailey & Co., John and Merrimack streets.
Hovey's, Merrimack & Shattuck streets.
Scharf's Ice Cream Emporium, corner School & Pawtucket streets.
John T. Sparks, corner Lakeview avenue and Aiken street.
Noonan's drug store, corner Bridge and First streets.
Bruders drug store, corner Fayette & Esq. Merrimack streets.
Howard's drug store, Central St.
Tower's cor. drug store, Tower's corner.
Frank P. Moody, corner Central and Appleton streets.
Carleton's drug store, Davis Square.
Board of Trade rooms, Central block.

"Just Say"
HORLICK'S
It Means
Original and Genuine
MALTED MILK
The Food-drink for All Ages.
More healthful than Tea or Coffee.
Agrees with the weakest digestion.
Delicious, invigorating and nutritious.
Rich milk, malted grain, powder form.

OPPOSED TO CHARTER

Meeting at Mathew Hall Addressed by Mayor Meehan and Others

A large attendance gathered at Mathew hall last night, the occasion being speeches in opposition to the proposed charter by Mayor John P. Meehan, Lawrence Cummings and Michael J. Dowd, who presided.

The meeting was opened at 8.15 o'clock by Mr. Dowd, who gave a brief address reviewing the figures recently published in the newspapers. He then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Well, we are borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities. Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt it anything we have been too parsimonious. Have our taxes been steadily increasing? Well the rate for this year is 70 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher.

Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to discover them, and we all know that actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Oh yes you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying, and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses. Yes Lowell has a temporary loan, has had it for a number of years and it is to be regretted. It began in 1892, 18 years ago, but even the Courier-Citizen in its tables though not in its text, admits that it has not been increased since 1894, and in fact has been reduced since that date. But the temporary loan problem does not call for consideration in our government for its solution, and if our newspaper friends had really any understanding of municipal finances they would appreciate there is just one solution, and only one, to ask permission of the legislature to bond it outside the debt limit, and pay it off on as easy terms as possible. The one hardship which has prevented me from taking that course during the past year has been that we have at hand certain pressing permanent improvements greatly needed and which would have been made next to impossible, if the first payment under this plan had been made this current year.

Now let us check back a little as to this charter demand. We have low taxes, low valuation, an exceedingly low net bonded debt and big borrowing capacity, no scandals or extravagances in our departments. The small cottage house owner has not been asking for a new charter and no public meetings of the small tax payer have been held demanding that a change be made.

Who is it then wants this change? Who is it that has taken upon himself or themselves to say that we are all wrong, and that nothing is right, and that allowing the various sections of the city to have equal representation in the city government is bad? Who is it says the further you take the government from the people the better off the general management will be?

Who is it that has worked into the city charter the quiet little joker in Section 23 that the mayor, the president of the city council or two members may at any time call a special meeting for the transaction of business, with six hours' notice in writing to their fellow members? You will notice there is no provision for any notice to the public of these little special meetings, nor any limit as to the hour of the day or night when they may be held.

Now as to the Lowell charter question which is before you. Mr. Cummings has comments to make on it with which I agree heartily and I will for this evening because of his presence leave that for him to discuss. I want to talk for a while about the real conditions in Des Moines and Haverhill.

Haverhill, Mass., under the 1910 census has a population of 44,115. Lowell is this about 2 1/2 times as large. That is the first thought to be kept in mind. It is worth saying now that in this general dispute over commission government, there are many people who by believing in it hold that it is only suitable for communities under 10,000, and very unsuitable for cities in excess of that population. This should mean that the experiment was being played under the best possible advantage in Haverhill, because of its size.

How has it really worked? Well the tax for this year was $19.20 a thousand, the highest in 25 years. The net debt October 25th was $1,200,000, the highest for a similar period of time.

Education has been crowded to $2,326,000 and in the assessors office they say privately that because of the large personal property owners moving away they have been hard put.

Is that a prospect to cheer on the Lowell man anxious to do the right thing in this city? I think not. The city is now issuing bonds only for permanent improvements. How long since putting crushed stone in sidewalks is a permanent improvement, yet bonds have been issued in Haverhill for that purpose.

Street watering equipment has been purchased on borrowed money. Do you want some more specific cases. In 1910 they sold five thousand dollars of bonds for school construction in Haverhill, to go for the Currier school. They managed out of that to spend money for repairs of the school pool, which can hardly be called permanent improvement, indeed the money was used in the main for repair work. The Courier-Citizen says yes, the debt has gone up, but they have a new high school. They have and it is a new one. They sold in 1910, $127,000 worth of bonds for it. And they even bonded $115 which the public inspection of the school cost. I don't think that Lowell has yet got to the point where we issue bonds for the purchase of flowers and to hire flags for the typewriters which they use in the school and then they transfer the balance of the bond issue to the reserve fund where I presume it was used for other current expenses. There is a chance of ever to be had with the Haverhill situation.

Let us pass on to Des Moines. I won't attempt to talk debt or the financial situation, particularly to you, but in view of the promise held out as to the great advantage which the charter will give, the small home owner of Des Moines, I want to tell you how he is treated out in Des Moines.

Yes, commission government in Des Moines is ideal to Jones. I have here gentlemen, clippings from the Des Moines papers, setting forth these pretty little side lights on life in Des Moines, which I shall be glad to have you read.

Here is our problem. Does Jones of Lowell want to swap places with Jones of Des Moines, or Jones of Haverhill? I don't think so, and once again I protest against any scheme to railroad such a change. Money is being spent and spent freely. Gentlemen of the committee of sixty, I ask you why? That is a question, which must be answered before you expect us to endorse your charter. Where are you getting it? Why are they giving it?

The name of this particular plain citizen is Nixon P. Jones, and he wrote a letter, not to me, but to the Register and Leader, the principal paper of that city on October 16th of this current year. It was printed in the columns of that paper. They have a greater Des Moines club in the city, which is trying to attract people there, and Nixon Jones told them that until they get a sane and reasonable city government, and decent taxes, that it was money wasted to try and get new people in.

"I have a little seven room cottage," wrote Mr. Jones, "on which my taxes have run: $47 in 1908, $62 in 1909 and $72 in 1910.

"This is identically the same ground, and same house, in which I have lived all the time, and not a dollar has been added to it in the last three years. 'But I have had over a 50 per cent increase in my taxes; and now no booster can work against such conditions and it is only throwing good money away to advertise a city while such conditions exist.'

Then he signed Nixon P. Jones.

Mr. Cummings was next introduced and for over one hour he spoke on the initiative and referendum in our Haverhill government since the new charter is in force, and he pointed out a few loopholes, as he called them, stating that the commissioners would be able to sell to the city anything they wanted to, providing they did not vote on a measure. His speech was practically the same that he delivered at the Pawtucketville Social club last Wednesday.

He said in part: "To me it looks as if the commissioners of the future in commission government will have to play the game of politics every day of the week in order to hold their jobs."

Relative to Haverhill, he said that in the first election the great fight was to defeat Mayor Wood and his opponents did this. Edwin H. Merrill had 3675 votes for mayor, and Wood had 3589, with 235 blanks. But Wood didn't stay buried. He was elected a commissioner last fall and is now serving.

Mr. Cummings said he would like to see the voters of Haverhill accept the new charter, but he believed the evidence to be against such a thing.

Taking up Lynn, he said that the new commission had been obliged to go to the legislature and ask permission to increase its ordinary tax rate for street improvements. The assessed valuation of real estate and personal property in Lynn for 1911 showed an increased valuation of over five million dollars over the previous year. In announcing the tax rate of $19.10 it was admitted that the tax rate of $18 for $1000 in 1907, when the city council had charge of affairs, was an official record. The official record also shows that the appropriations of Lynn in 1910 were $1,465,445.07 under a city council.

"I have not had the time to give long study to the management of affairs in Lynn or Haverhill, but I know I gave the impression is given to the public more time to them than men who want that this is a board of trade charter, through the South and West in a running jump and then told how well the charter worked there," said the speaker, signed to the list of the committee of 60, who are not going to vote for the proposed city charter.

Continuing, he said: "I am opposed to allowing a majority of five men to place a heavy debt on the city. To the board of aldermen it requires today six votes on loan resolutions, and 18 in the common council. In addition, there is the vote vested in the mayor. I believe this proposed charter should have been submitted to the board of aldermen, for approval or disapproval, and then to the common council, for amendment. This was not done, but the impression is given to the public that this is a board of trade charter, through the South and West in a running jump and then told how well the charter worked there," said the speaker, signed to the list of the committee of 60, who are not going to vote for the proposed city charter.

Continuing, he said: "I am opposed to allowing a majority of five men to place a heavy debt on the city. To the board of aldermen it requires today six votes on loan resolutions, and 18 in the common council. In addition, there is the vote vested in the mayor. I believe this proposed charter should have been submitted to the board of aldermen, for approval or disapproval, and then to the common council, for amendment. This was not done, but the impression is given to the public that this is a board of trade charter, through the South and West in a running jump and then told how well the charter worked there," said the speaker, signed to the list of the committee of 60, who are not going to vote for the proposed city charter.

Continuing, he said: "I am opposed to allowing a majority of five men to place a heavy debt on the city. To the board of aldermen it requires today six votes on loan resolutions, and 18 in the common council. In addition, there is the vote vested in the mayor. I believe this proposed charter should have been submitted to the board of aldermen, for approval or disapproval, and then to the common council, for amendment. This was not done, but the impression is given to the public that this is a board of trade charter, through the South and West in a running jump and then told how well the charter worked there," said the speaker, signed to the list of the committee of 60, who are not going to vote for the proposed city charter.

NEARLY COLLIDED

Accident in Moody St. Narrowly Averted

A probably serious accident was avoided this morning, when two wagons came near crashing into each other at the corner of Moody and Aiken streets. The vehicles involved in the mixup were those of the Wilson Coal Co., and J. C. Morin, butter dealer.

Mr. Morin was driving along Moody street toward Pawtucket street in his democratic wagon and was dragging along a buggy. The Wilson Coal Co.'s team driven by a young man was coming up Aiken street at a fair rate of speed and when it reached the corner of Moody street, it nearly crashed into the other wagon, which it would undoubtedly have reduced to pieces.

The animal was brought to a sudden stop however before any damage was done, and the result was that a few hot words were exchanged between the coal man and the butter man, each driver blaming the other for the close call.

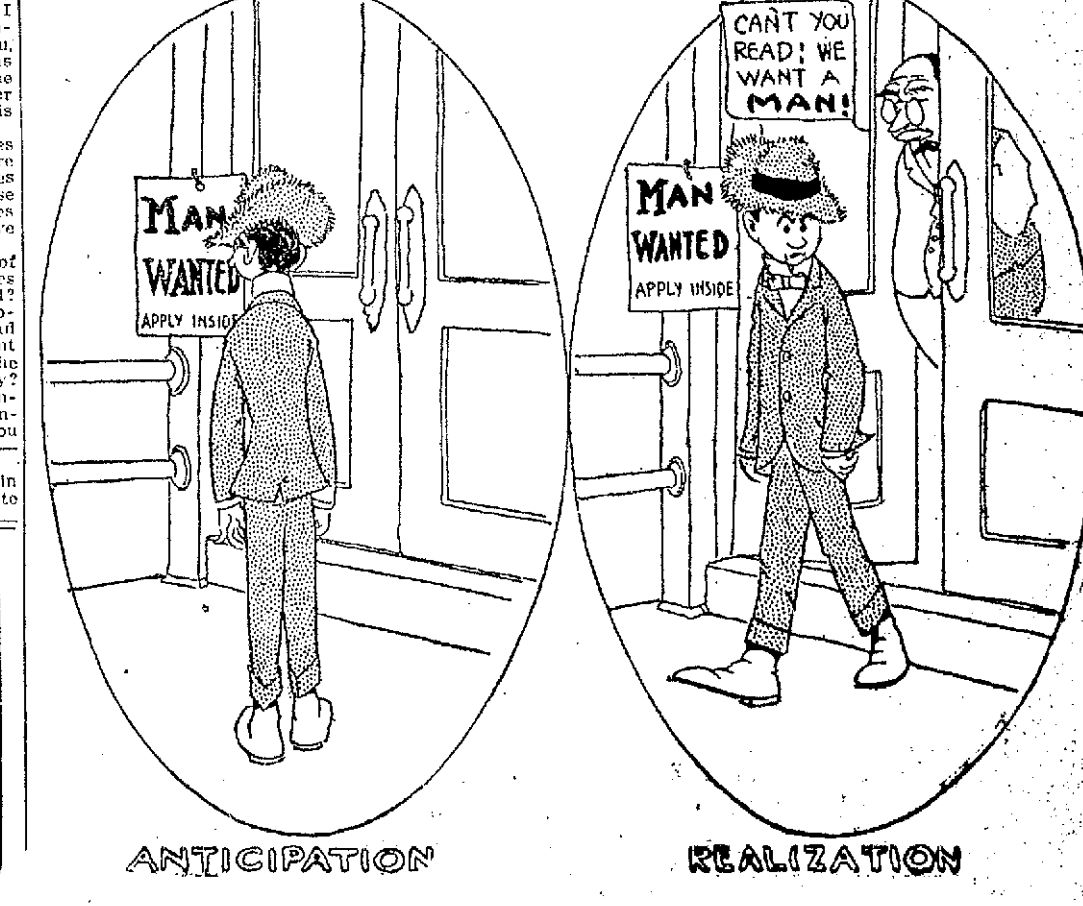

MATRIMONIAL
A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at St. Joseph's church, when Mr. William Desmarais, a foreman in a Haverhill shoe factory, and Miss Grace L'Hauroux were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 8 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Watelle, O. M. I., and it was largely attended by friends and relatives of the contracting couple. The young couple were attended by their respective fathers, Messrs. Octave Desmarais of Marlboro and Alfred L'Hauroux of this city. After the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L'Hauroux, 348 Merrimack street, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Desmarais left at noon for a short wedding tour including Boston, Marlboro and Berkshires. They will return in a week at which time a reception will be tendered them.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED TO BLAZE ON CLARK ROAD

A telephone alarm yesterday afternoon summoned a portion of the fire department to a slight blaze in the residence of John W. Robinson at 80 Clark road. The fire broke out in a waste basket which was under the sink in the kitchen and was caused by a three-year-old child playing with matches. The woodwork in the kitchen was scorched but the blaze was extinguished before much damage was done.

F. C. Church held the insurance on the building.

LIFE'S DISAPPOINTMENTS

The Experience of Nurses is

If their patients would take in time a reliable liver and stomach medicine like Schenck's Mandrake Pills there would be 50% less sickness. A box will prove their curative properties in stomach and liver diseases—indigestion, constipation, malaria, heartburn, jaundice, etc. Wholly vegetable—absolutely harmless, plain or sugar coated—50¢ a box. Sold everywhere. Send a postal for the free book, and diagnose your own trouble.

Dr. J. H. SCHENCK & SON, Phila., Pa.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1910 was

15,976

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 2, 1911. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

CHARTER ARGUMENTS

The citizens of Lowell can judge best of what the commission government means from what is accomplished in other cities where it is in force, and it seems that testimony of this kind from cities similarly situated to Lowell should be conclusive. We have abundant evidence of this kind to produce, but we cannot give it all in a single issue.

The opposition to the charter is unable to show a single argument worth considering to offset this evidence. The charge that there is danger in a commission so small would be true if the members went into office without any more restraint than the present members of the city council are under. It would be madness to commit our city affairs to such a commission unless we hold in our hands the power of direct legislation and the power of the recall.

These are the weapons by which we can maintain absolute control over the members of the municipal board at all times. That is why the commission is not too small. To get the best service, men must be paid for their work, and having to pay them we do not care to have more than we need.

If the small commission should sell out it could not deliver the goods, and therefore the insinuations that such a body could be controlled by public service corporations is unadulterated rot.

The assertion of one opponent of the charter that we have the initiative, the referendum and the recall in the sense or scope in which they are to be given under the new charter is sheer nonsense and nobody knows that any better than the man who made the statement.

Still another charge made against the new charter is that it deprives the people of ward representation. The democratic wards for many years past have had no representation beyond what the republican majority in the common council wished to give them. The new charter would overlook ward lines so far as city government is concerned and thus the democrats would be relieved of the subservience, but the office-holders and office-seekers are trying to delude them into the belief that in this change they are losing power. On the contrary they will be better provided for, and there will be more employment for the men who want work. The city will be started upon a new career of prosperity that will invite new industries and benefit every man, woman and child in the community. Too long have we been in a stationary condition. It is time to start a boom that will unloose the wheels of progress and bring our city up even to a higher rank among the textile cities of New England. We can never do anything of this kind under the old charter. We have had too many failures, and without a change in the charter we cannot accomplish the desired results.

The opponents of the charter try to persuade their hearers that this charter movement is a scramble for public office by the men who have led the agitation. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The movement is gradually spreading over the country, and the results are so gratifying that it is unwise to oppose it. It is the coming system of municipal government for large cities and small, and the time has come to adopt it in Lowell. No city that has chosen it has ever had to turn back or regret its course.

THE LIQUOR DEALERS AND THE CHARTER

Much is being said in regard to exempting the license commission from the general overturn that will remove most of the officials from office on January 1 if the new charter be adopted. After that the present commissioners will be allowed to serve out their respective terms of office as license commissioners only, unless removed for cause in the usual way. The police and licensing powers now vested in the board will be separated, and that is right and proper. The union of both functions in the same board is wrong and should be changed.

But why should the license board be retained in office while others go out?

The purpose of this exemption was to have the charter question decided upon its merits without being mixed up with the liquor question. The liquor dealers will have more security under the new charter than under the old provided they obey the law, for the license board will not dare play politics in the license grant as there will be a commissioner at city hall responsible for their conduct, a man who can be easily removed if he allows things to go wrong. But if in spite of this effort to keep the license question from being mixed up with the charter fight, any large number of the liquor dealers persist in going out to beat the charter by soliciting votes, by betting and in the other ways often tried in the past, they will make the biggest mistake of their lives for the defeat of the charter would in all probability be laid at their door and in the city election if the friends of license who wanted the charter would turn out in December and vote "no" on the license question the men in the liquor business would then have retained the old charter, but they would have parted with their business for a year at least.

The liquor dealers must remember that the city election will be but a few weeks after the state election, and if there is then reason to believe that they caused the defeat of the charter the people who wanted the charter adopted will scarcely have time to forget their disappointment and as a result they would wreak vengeance on the liquor dealers by voting no license. We cannot imagine how business men of this class who have had many ups and downs would adopt such a fatuous policy as opposition to the new charter, yet we are informed that many of them are quietly out against the charter movement just as if it were a menace to their business.

We do not see why they should not be heartily sick of the present order of things as are most other business men. They have nothing to fear and much to gain from the new order of life and progress that would be brought about in our city under the commission form of government.

We hope it is not too late to utter this word of warning so that men in the liquor business may know what they are to expect if they set out to block a movement for good government in our city. Are they not patriotic citizens, are they not interested in public improvements, in better streets, better water supply, better schools, better parks and playgrounds, better results in government everywhere and with a lower tax rate? Do they not know that repeated trials to improve conditions under the old system have failed utterly and will continue to fail until we get a new charter, a government responsible to the people alone and not subservient to politicians or the political machines? Can they afford to jeopardize their business for the sake of a few self-seeking politicians? As intelligent men they must know these things, and if they adopt a course opposed to public policy on this important issue they will be assuming a heavy responsibility that may be followed by swift retribution.

SEEN AND HEARD

Those who remember the famous caudville team of Conroy and Dempsey years ago will be pleased to learn that the son of the latter, a Lowell boy is scoring a great success as a writer of popular songs. Mr. Dempsey, who is only a young man left Lowell several years ago in order to enter the theatrical profession. Lately he has taken to writing songs and his latest production "The Hour That Gave Me You" is causing a great sensation in New York where Mr. Dempsey is now located. The music of the song was composed by E. Schmidt.

To make good a wager made on the recent baseball games, Thomas J. Gilbody of Gardner, Mass., rolled a peanut for 400 yards along the main street in that town Saturday with a 27-pound crowbar. The crowd of onlookers made the feat extra hard for Gilbody by throwing liberal quantities of peanuts in front of him, so that he had difficulty in keeping his eye on the one he started with.

The senior class of the Montclair, N. J., high school do not like red socks. So when a freshman appeared on the campus wearing hose of cardinal hue he was set upon and his stockings converted into banners. He was forced to walk into school barefooted, to the delight of hundreds of other pupils.

Charles A. Thompson of Woburn, who is 90 years old, is probably the oldest person to take out a hunter's license in Massachusetts this year. Mrs. Madeline Putz of Brooklyn had Samuel Rosen before the court in New York city Friday. She said that Rosen, who was driving a team, while passing her at Fulton street, called out: "Step lively there, old sweetheart." Rosen explained to the judge that his horses were named Darling and Sweetheart and he was simply encouraging Sweetheart to step a little faster and not addressing the woman at all. He was discharged.

THE KNIGHT'S TOAST
The feast is o'er! Now bringaming wine
In festive cups is seen to shine
Before each eager guest:
And silence fills the crowded hall,
As deep as when the herald's call
Thrills in the loyal breast.

Then up arose the noble host,
And smiling said: "I toast a toast!
To all our ladies fair!
Here, before all, I pledge the name
Of Stantley's proud and beautiful Daughter."

"The Lady Gaudinere!"
Then to his feet each gallant sprang,
And joyous gave the shout that rang.
As Stantley gave the word:
And every cup was raised on high,
Nor ceased the loud and glad cry:
"Till Stantley's voice was heard."

"Enough, enough," he smiling said,
And lowly bent his laughing head:
"That all may have their due,
Now each in turn, must play his part,
And pledge the lady of his heart,
Like gallant knight and true!"

Then, one by one, each guest sprang
up,
And drained in turn the brimming cup,
And named the loved one's name:
And each, as hand on high he raised,
His lady's grace or beauty praised,
Her constancy and fame.

"This now St. Leon's turn to rise;
On him are fixed those countless eyes:
A gallant knight is he:
Enviied by some, admired by all,
Far famed in lady's tower and hall,
The flower of chivalry."

St. Leon raised his kindling eye,
And lifts the sparkling cup on high:
"I drink to one," he said,
"Whom I never may depart,
Deep graven on this grateful heart,
Till memory be dead."

"To one whose love for me shall last,
Whom lighter passions long have cast,
So holy 'tis and true,
To one whose love hath longer dwelt,
More deeply felt, more keenly felt,
Than any pledged by you."

Each guest upstarted at the word,
And laid a hand upon his sword,
With fury-flashing eye:
And Stantley said: "We crave the name,
Proud knight, of this most peerless dame,
Whom love you count so high."

St. Leon paused, as if he would
Not breathe her name in careless mood.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The Olivia Josephine Hall, a gift of Mrs. Russell Fessenden, being erected by the north campus at Vassar college, it will house 100 students, completing the accommodations for 1000 students on the campus, the number to which the trustees have limited Vassar. Josephine Hall will be ready for occupancy in September, 1912.

Two new plays drawn from the novels of Thomas Hardy are to be staged next month in England, appropriately enough in Dorchester, which is in Hardy's country of Wessex. The novelist himself has written the music version of "The Three Wayfarers." The other play will be "The Distracted Preacher."

A corner in the quilt pen supply is said to exist in Washington owing to the use of that writing implement by the secretary of the navy, George von L. Meyer. The secretary is a busy man in Washington and uses the pen so much that he establishes quite a market for it in Washington and to the degree that he has exhausted his supply, but by a rare good fortune, Mr. Taylor, his secretary, was made aware that the supply in Washington was low and bought all to be bought, so that the secretary will be able, for some time, to work in comfort. While Mr. Meyer was postmaster general, he inked largely the fountain pen, but the ink in the navy department does not flow so freely, and so he took the quilt where it runs like water and, moreover, exerts such a light touch that neither his fingers nor his arm becomes cramped.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thayer Adams of Hopedale, Mass., who has just celebrated her one hundredth birthday, is said to have no sympathy with women who complain of family cares. Mrs. Adams reared eight children and yet found plenty of time to continue her social and educational life. Following the example of her own mother she gave each of her children certain household duties to perform regularly. Mrs. Adams believes that this division of household tasks is not only the salvation of the mother but of the children. She believes that the youngsters have just so much surplus energy to work out their system and if housework is presented to them in the spirit of play they can not only accomplish it successfully but gain useful experience.

Congressman Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts has accepted an invitation to deliver the chief address on Nov. 20, at the dedication of the New Hampshire Historical building, Edward Clark, the donor, and many people of national prominence are expected as guests, including, possibly, J. Pierpont Morgan of New York.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Held at the High Street Church

The Sunday school room at the High Street Congregational church was the scene of a pretty Halloween party last night. The children had the time of their lives. They bobbed for apples and played all kinds of tricks. They had a "sheet and pillow-case" party during which a sextet sang "The Ghost of a Danjo Coon." The children were treated to hot chocolate, cakes and other light refreshments.

First Universalist Church
At the First Universalist church last night the young women in Mrs. Tuttle's Sunday school class and the young men of the pastor's class held a Halloween party. The church was prettily decorated with Jack-o'-lanterns, constellations and other decorations appropriate to the time and the occasion. There was a short program consisting of readings for the children by Mrs.

Putnam & Son Co.

166 CENTRAL STREET

HERE, YOUNG MAN!

THAT ENGLISH MODEL IS IN OUR GUARANTEED LINE OF SUITS FOR $15.00

Just as smart cut as our higher cost suits—short sack, natural shoulders, with long roll; waistcoat high cut; trousers straight leg. Same guarantee that the suit will wear to your satisfaction or a

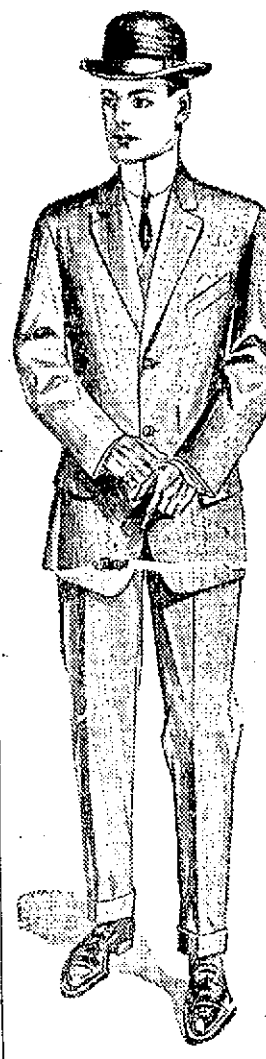

NEW SUIT FREE

NEW NUMBERS IN YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, to give a broader range of patterns, for $10 and $13.50

A LARGER VARIETY THAN EVER BEFORE in the finest suits, ROGERS-PEET'S young men's models up to $25

Genuine Cape Street Gloves $1.00

Greatest glove ever shown for the price. Imported leather, new tan shades, outseam clasp fastener, regular and short fingers. As good as any $1.50 glove elsewhere. A leader here for $1.00

THE POLICE COURT

Short Session Before Judge Hadley

This morning's session of the police court was one of the shortest that has been held for several weeks. Judge Hadley occupied the bench and the four cases on the docket were disposed of in seven minutes. Matthew J. Conley, who was arrested last week for the alleged larceny of nine pounds of copper from the Massachusetts cotton mills and entered a plea of not guilty, changed his plea to that of guilty this morning. Major E. J. Noyes, who appeared for the government, explained the manner in which Conley took the copper from one of the mill buildings. Lawyer Joseph E. Loughran, who appeared for the defendant, pleaded for clemency for his client. The court after considering the matter found Conley guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $20. The case of drunkenness against Conley was placed on file.

An inquest into the cause of the death of the infant child of Maria Lima was held in the court of second sessions this morning. Seven witnesses were called and examined. It is alleged that Miss Lima, who is now under $1000 bonds on complaints charging her with manslaughter and concealing the death of her child, was delivered of a child several weeks ago in a house in Elm street and that subsequently the dead body of the infant was found between two mattresses in the bed on which the woman was lying.

An autopsy on the body of the infant as performed by Assistant Medical Examiner Robert E. Bell, assisted by Drs. Murphy and Clark, and the report was to the effect that the child had breathed.

THE A. G. CADETS

ORGANIZED TEAMS FOR A BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Tonight and tomorrow night the members of the A. G. Cadets Athletic association will meet in a basketball tournament in their quarters in the basement of St. Joseph's college, and it is expected that a good game will be put on each night. For the competing teams are in trim and as the boys say, they will there with the goods. A basketball league was recently is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it arouses Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, N. H., for his four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks," he wrote "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble. So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, Hay Fever, La Grippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages by before it. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by A. W. Dows & Co.

A Fierce Night Alarm

AMOS P. BEST

Democratic Progressive Candidate

FOR SENATOR

Is a friend of the laboring class and has always been charitable to the poor, before he ever thought of politics. He will know you after election as he did before it elected. You can elect him if you wish. Your vote is what will do it.

EDWARD R. TRYON,
307 Mammouth Road.
Advertisement.

RARE FAILURE
The occasions when Howard's Pine-Balm fail are so very rare that we feel quite safe in guaranteeing this remedy to cure a cough or we will refund your money. Purely vegetable, pleasant to take and safe for all ages. Samples free to adults, large bottles 25c. Howard, the druggist, 197 Central street. (The Safety Razor Shop.)

organized among the members of the association and four teams were formed as follows:

Team A. H. Boukals, captain; A. Lamoureux, A. Groux, C. Couillard, J. Lavallee and A. Deschenaux.
Team B. D. Brunelle, captain; E. Morin, R. Richard, N. Vigeant and A. Richard.
Team C. F. Deschenaux, captain; J. Maillois, F. Larose, L. Vigeant and D. Lamoureux.
Team D. A. Desloges, captain; A. Bernier, B. Fontaine, R. Champagne, B. Pellerin and A. Archambault.
The officers of the league are Arthur Groux, president; D. Brunelle, vice-president; Arthur Desloges, secretary. The boys are being trained under the supervision of their spiritual director, Rev. Fr. Ouellette, O. M. I., who by the way is quite an athlete.

COMMITTEE OF SIXTY

MEETING OF PEOPLE INTERESTED IN NEW CHARTER TONIGHT

There will be a meeting of the Committee of Sixty, the ward workers and those interested in the proposed charter at the board of grade rooms tonight. Arrangements for election day and the consideration of the features of the campaign will be discussed.

DR. TRUE'S ELIXIR

The Family Laxative and Worm Medicine
Makes growing children healthy, hearty, and happy; it should have a permanent place in every home. Mothers, when little kids seem peevish and irritable, give them Dr. True's Elixir. It keeps worms, cures constiveness, indigestion, feverishness, biliousness; the little ills which, neglected, lead to serious sickness. Dr. True's Elixir cleans and in take and good for old and young. In use 60 years. All dealers. 35c, 50c, and $1.00 a bottle.
DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Maine

E. G. SOPHOS
IMPORTER AND WHOLESALE DEALER IN
Oriental, Greek and Italian Produce
Specialties in Oil, Olives and Cheese
TELEPHONE 1842
Cor. Adams & Salem Sts., Lowell, Mass.
We guarantee our Olive Oil strictly pure. Give us a call.

New and Exclusive Things FOR PARTICULAR MEN

OUR own importation of European Novelties in Furnishing Goods of the better sort will be interesting to men who would gladly send samples of materials and rules for measurement upon request.

English and Scotch Waistcoats
Shetland and Llama Wool
Jackets
Housereans and Smoking
Jackets
Crocheted Neckwear
Furlike Collars
Initial Handkerchiefs
Lisle and Silk Hosiery
Knitted Silk Suits
Protectors
Gloves and Auto Mittens

Send for our illustrated booklet. "Of Interest to Men." It tells all about the convenience of our perfect system of Shopping by Post.

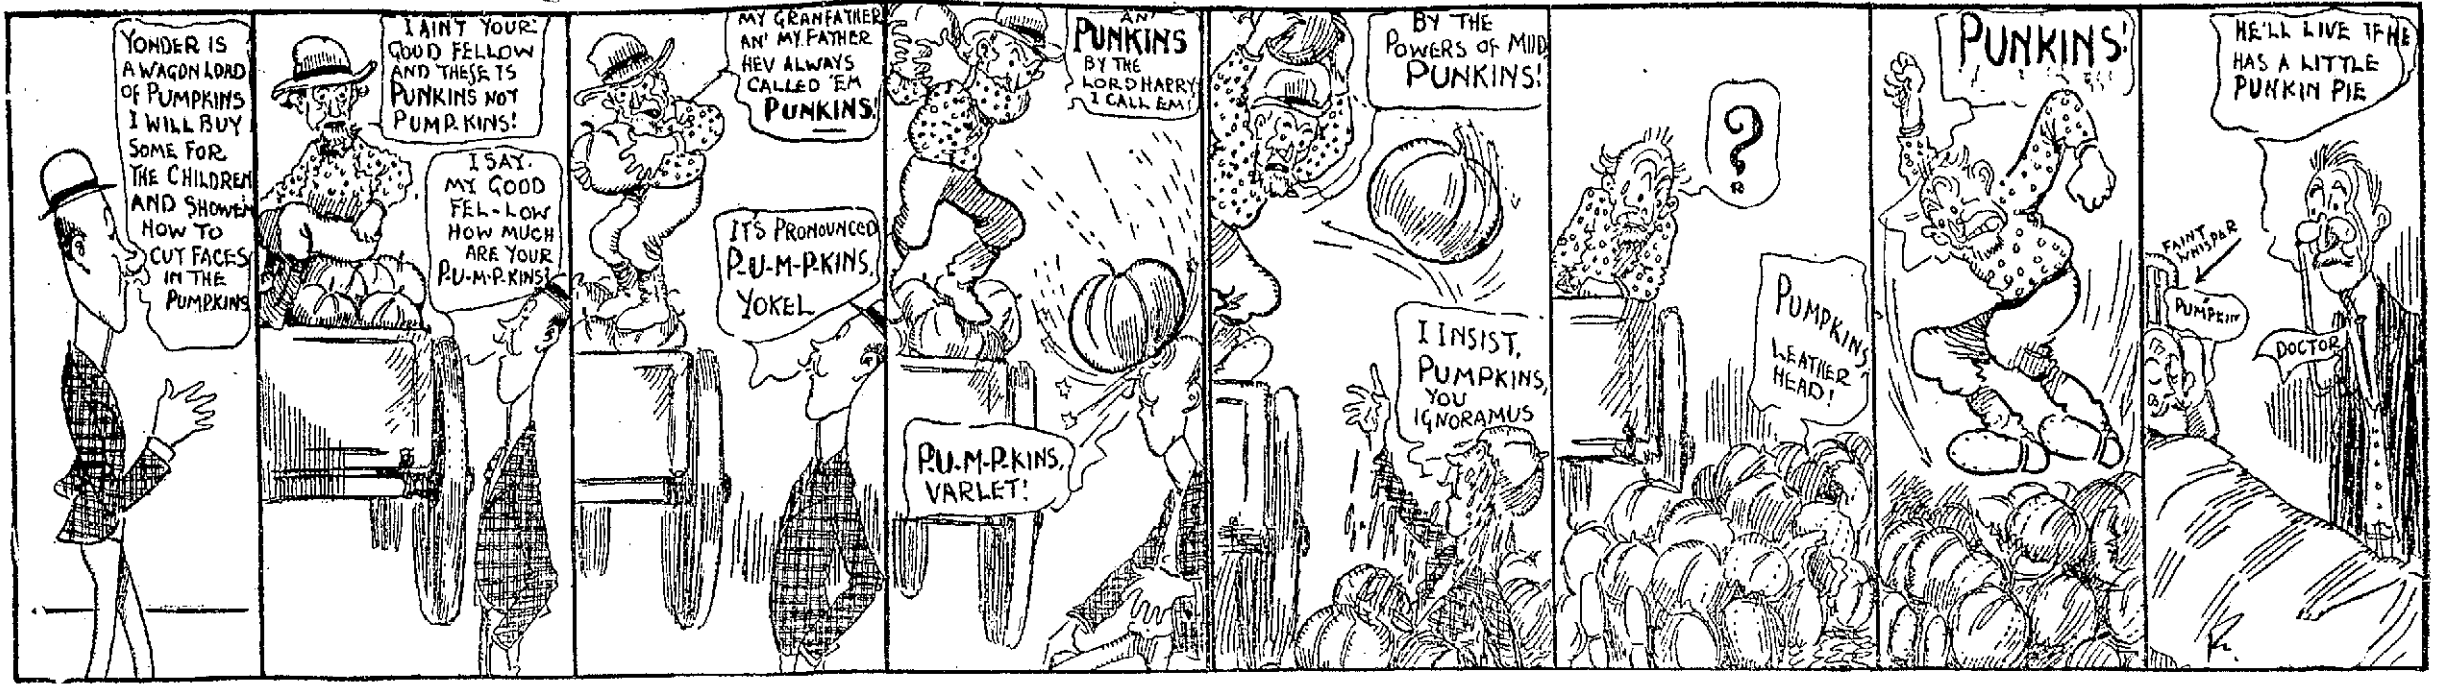

To those interested in our Clothing (made in our shops on the mainland) and who are unable to visit our store, we will gladly send samples of materials and rules for measurement upon request.

Macullar Parker Co.
400 Washington St. Boston, Mass.

POLITICAL HALLOWEEN

MR. I. L. SHOWEM GETS SOME PUMPKINS FOR HALLOWE'EN

TAFT FEARS DEFEAT

Says There is Possibility That Republicans May Lose

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—President Taft surprised a large audience at the dinner of the Hamilton club yesterday by what most of his hearers construed as an admission of the possibility of republican defeat in the next national election. He was speaking to what had promised to be an unusually enthusiastic audience of republicans. Many in the audience hastened to attribute his utterance to weariness after his long tour of speechmaking, especially after the three days' hard "campaign" in Chicago. It was his last public utterance in Chicago before he departed for Pittsburgh.

"Now we are at some people think—the crisis in the republican party with reference to its continuance in the guidance of the nation," the president said. "I am hopeful that the good people of the country, who know a good thing when they see it, have only chafed in an off year, in order that we may be better hereafter, but with no intention of shifting from shoulders that are fitted to bear the burdens of the present problems and carry them to a successful solution to those which are untried, and which have new theories of action that we do not believe in and that we don't believe the people believe in."

"However, if so be it that they desire to make a change, we shall loyally support the new government under any conditions, with the hope it will inure to the benefit of the country, but with the consolation that, if after one trial the people think they ought to go back to the old party that has served them so well in the progressive days of the nation, they will do so. We can bear that, my friends; that is all."

After his speech the president retired to his hotel for rest. Though he professed no weariness, the three days' steady strain had told on him, and he was a tired man who led the presidential party out of Chicago at 3:30 p. m. on the Pennsylvania railroad for Pittsburgh.

HE TRIED SUICIDE

Evicted Lawyer Cut His Throat

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Edwin S. Lewis, a lawyer, of 22 Waverley avenue, Newton, who was disbarred from practicing in the Massachusetts courts by Judge Richardson in April, 1909, for gross misconduct toward his clients, attempted suicide yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor yesterday, as a result of being evicted from his house for non-payment of rent. He is in the Newton hospital in a dangerous condition.

A mortgage on the house, which belonged to Lewis' wife, was foreclosed a year ago last August on account of his failure to pay interest. About two months ago a writ of eviction was issued by Judge Kennedy to the Newton police court, but the writ was not served at once on account of Lewis' promises to adjust the matter if he were given a little more time. The owner of the house became tired of waiting and ordered Deputy Sheriff Walker to serve the writ. Lewis is said to have threatened some time ago when the writ was first issued to take his life if it was served on him. Lewis was out yesterday when Sheriff Walker and his deputies arrived at the house. The sheriff did not wait for him to return, but started to work putting his household goods on the sidewalk. Lewis returning, seeing what was going on, picked up a razor and cut his throat. The sheriff and his men rushed in and hurried him to the hospital.

SUES FOR $10,000

ROXBURY WOMAN ALLEGES BREACH OF PROMISE
BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Harvey D. Hadlock, of 106 Winthrop street, Roxbury, who is about 60 years old, has filed, through her counsel, Daniel J. Gallagher, of 18 Tremont street, an attachment for $10,000 on the real estate of Charles J. Gorman, of 121 Westford street, Brighton, who is also a prominent manager, in an alleged breach of promise action.

The attachment was filed in the Middlesex probate court at East Cambridge yesterday afternoon. According to the allegations of the libellant, who is the widow of one of Boston's best known lawyers, the affection between Mrs. Hadlock and Mr. Gorman began about six years ago, when the defendant promised to marry Mrs. Hadlock's son for a stage career. Since that time, she alleges, scores of letters of a most loving character have passed between the two. She also claims to have advanced Mr. Gorman in the neighborhood of $40,000.

A pretty Roxbury telephone operator, to whom Mrs. Hadlock says, Mr. Gorman is attentive, is said to be the real cause of the filing of the suit. It is understood that Mr. Gorman will make a complete denial of all the allegations brought by Mrs. Hadlock.

THREE INJURED

IN A RUNAWAY ACCIDENT IN DORCHESTER

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Samuel Field, 55, of 575 Washington street, Dorchester; Ray Rice, 33, of 4 Beals street, Ashmont; and Peter Houghton, of 10 Stamford street, Brighton, were injured as the result of a runaway at Brighton yesterday. The horse, attached to a light express wagon owned by Field Bros., of 575 Washington street, became frightened when the reins got tangled up in his tail and ran away on Lake street, near St. John's seminary.

Field, who was driving, was thrown to the ground and probably received a concussion of the brain. Rice received a fracture of the right hip. Houghton, who tried to stop the horse, lost his hold and was knocked down and run over, receiving contusions of the right thigh.

STRUCK BY AN AUTO

Little Girl is Suffering From Shock

Mary Fifer, aged seven years and residing at 5 Spring street, was struck by an automobile in Middlesex street near the corner of Revere street, about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She was not badly hurt but was suffering from the shock. She was taken to St. John's hospital where she received treatment.

The little girl was crossing the street with her little brother and did not notice the approaching automobile. She was struck a glancing blow and knocked to the ground. The driver of the auto, although he knew that he had struck the child, did not stop. The car is described as a five passenger touring car with red body. None who witnessed the accident was able to learn the license number of the machine.

GETS A DIVORCE

MRS. ARNOLD GOT A DECREE FROM HER HUSBAND

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Alice M. Arnold has secured a divorce from her husband, a landscape artist of the Back Bay, a Sheffield A. Arnold, from Judge Hardy on a charge of infidelity. Though her husband took the trouble to go to Reno to get a divorce, Judge Hardy ignored the Reno decree as not good in this state and granted the wife a divorce and a substantial alimony.

The co-respondent, Miss Virginia Edwards, now known as Mrs. Virginia Arnold, was the girl who, Arnold's first wife claimed, sent her husband to Reno a year ago last summer, where he secured a divorce.

Judge Hardy ordered the artist husband to pay Mrs. Alice M. Arnold $15 a week and $500 additional in a lump sum by Nov. 1. The case was uncontested.

Miss Edwards is a Nevada girl. Arnold lives at 1355 Beacon street and was formerly a newspaper man in this city. He is 34 years old and has an office at 1 Beacon street.

Mrs. Arnold, the libellant, is 32 years old and lives at 50 King street, Dorchester. She was formerly Miss Alice A. Belker. When she married she was but 16 years old and her husband was but 18 years old.

HALLOWEEN PARTY
The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Farnbrook, 38 Cogroove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering, the occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the most and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful tea set of 56 pieces. A light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

WEEK OF OCT. 30
Charles Kellogg
The Nature Singer

The man who sings as birds sing. A gift of nature, not an accomplishment. Mr. Kellogg will introduce for the first time anywhere his "Dancing Flame," a blade of fire, a singing voice, which instantly responds to the reproductions of the sounds uttered by birds as made by Mr. Kellogg. He will also introduce the marvelous act, now almost obsolete, of the Indians in producing fire by rubbing sticks, and other charming features of life in the woods.

Harvey DeVora Trio
Leonard & Whitney
In "DUFFY'S RISE"

SAVOY TRIO
And Their
5 BULL TERRIERS

GREAT RICHARDS
THE ACT BEAUTIFUL

Kimberly & Hodgkin
Mintz and Palmer

NO CHANGE IN PRICE.
Big Sunday Concert

THREE EXPLOSIONS

Covers Were Blown Off Man-holes in Boston

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Pedestrians ran, women fainted and one man was burned severely after three explosions, which blew two manhole covers of the New England Telephone & Telegraph company more than 20 feet into the air in Seaport square shortly after 8:30 o'clock last night. Within a minute after the explosions the section between Cornhill and the head of Hanover street was cleared of pedestrians.

People in the Crawford house, in restaurants and in motion picture houses on Tremont street also were frightened and rushed to the street. That more people were not hurt seems remarkable, for the covers were at a point considerably travelled during the early evening. Several had narrow escapes. One was just unseated being struck by a cover as it was falling. A car had just rounded the corner of Court street into Hanover, missing the explosion of the cover there by a few seconds.

Edwin T. Curran, of 439 Quincy street, Dorchester, a cableman employed by the telephone company, suffered a severe shock. He was taken to the relief hospital. Several women, in haste to escape, fell down on Hanover street and had to receive assistance, while three others dashed up the hill at Pemberton square and fainted. They were revived by employees of the court house.

According to telephone employees, the explosion was due to gas in one of the company's conduits. When Mr. Curran lowered a lantern into one of the holes the first explosion occurred. There was a leaking gas main in the neighborhood, according to the telephone authorities.

Mr. Curran was working at the manhole opposite 41 Court street. The

SENT TO JAIL
YOUNG MAN TRIED TO PASS BAD CHECK

HAVERHILL, Oct. 31.—Cornelius Sederquist, 19 years ago, was sentenced to six months in the house of correction by Judge Ryan in the district court yesterday morning for attempting to cash a forged check for $45. Sederquist worked for William J. Frazier, at 25 Washington street and signed his employer's name to one of Frazier's blank checks, it was claimed. The bank officials held up payment on the check to Sederquist until they could determine whether Mr. Frazier had issued it or not. Sederquist became alarmed and ran out of the bank, leaving the check behind. Mr. Frazier gave notice that the check was a forged one.

Sunday afternoon Sederquist walked to police headquarters and Patrolman Blanchard went out to arrest him. There was a tussle, in which the fellow attempted to clear himself from his coat, but he was held. He made no denial of the charges against him, but claimed that he didn't sign Frazier's name to the check but said that a coal teamster did it.

Halloween Sweet Cider—Boyle Bros.

TEACHERS ARE CHOSEN

At a Meeting of the School Board Last Evening

At a meeting of the school committee held last night the following were elected teachers in the evening schools: Miss Josephine Doyle, Greek department of Green school; Miss Regina Vigeant, Cabot street school; C. P. Cardarelli, Ethel Truworth and Mildred Locke, Elson school; Alice T. Gagnon and Mary E. Walker, Howard street; Florence R. Jones, Mann school; Mary Fitzgerald and Mary M. Mohan, Worth Street school; Jeannette B. Savan, Old Moody school; Annie Girard, John Quinn and Miss Monzinski, Greenbush school; Anna R. Webster, Colburn school.

The committee on industrial school recommended the election of the following evening school teachers, and they were elected: Coolidge Bennett, steam engineering for engineers; Otto M. Dowd, steam engineering for firemen; Fred Churney, electricity; John McGinness, plumbing; the first three for two evenings a week, and Mr. McGinness for four evenings. Miss Nellie Rourke, dressmaking for girls between 14 and 17; Mrs. Grace E. Stevens, Mrs. Helen G. House, Miss Katherine Bushnell, Miss Agnes McAlone, Miss Margaret McGinn, Miss Mary A.

Carney, dressmaking five evenings a week; Mrs. Mary Nawn Devine, millinery five evenings; Miss Kathryn Scannell and Miss Daisy C. Abbott, housekeeping, four evenings a week. The men in the industrial evening school to be paid two dollars an evening, and the women $1.50. The salary of Walter F. Connolly, elected in September as instructor in mechanical drawing and assistant in shop work, was fixed at the rate of $750 a year.

Theodore Towner was elected janitor at the Morrill school for the evening work, and John Roarko at the Bartlett, at $150 per evening.

The resignation of Mrs. Shea, formerly Miss Maud Moody, of the Greenbush school, was accepted and a vote of thanks for faithful service was passed.

A petition from Thomas G. Nougas, for permission to establish a private evening school for Greeks, was referred to the supervisor of evening schools, with the request that he investigate and report back.

Practically all of the teachers elected to the evening industrial school work are Lowell people. Mr. Coolidge Bennett has a first class license as steam engineer, and has had several years' experience.

Otto M. Dowd is the chief engineer of the Lamson Consolidated Co., and has had years of experience. Fred Churney is a graduate of electrical engineering, and is employed by the Lowell Electric Light Co. John McGinness is a journeyman plumber of experience.

Coolidge Bennett has a first class license as steam engineer, and has had several years' experience. The instructor in dressmaking and millinery have all worked at their trades in Lowell, for well known milliners and dressmakers, or for department stores.

Miss Daisy Abbott and Miss Kathryn Scannell, elected teachers in the housekeeping department, are Lowell girls. Miss Abbott is a graduate of the Lowell schools, and attended a domestic science course at Simmons. Miss Scannell has been connected with the Boston cooking school. Miss Webster is demonstrator for the Lowell Gas Light Co.

ADVICE TO THOSE OF BAGGY CHEEK AND CHIN
(From Pilgrim Magazine)
Let the woman whose cheek muscles are beginning to sag and who by the same token is acquiring a double chin, remember to keep her head up, is the advice of a celebrated beauty expert. Let her bathe her face, neck and chin in a solution made by dissolving one ounce of salicylic acid in a half-pint of witch hazel. The result will surprise her, the lotion being so quickly effective. This treatment tightens and reduces skin and muscles, also strengthening and toning up the same.

Naturally the tightening effect disperses wrinkles and furrows. The lotion is very refreshing. Be sure to ask the druggist for the powdered salicylic acid.

Comfort in Shaving

No matter how tender your skin may be you can shave with perfect comfort if you put a few drops of Toiletine on the brush and rub it in with the soap. It softens the beard amazingly and gives a lather that cannot be surpassed.

TOILETINE
Soothes and Heals
Toiletine is a blessing to every man who shaves. Not only does it make the process of shaving easy, but it leaves the face smooth and comfortable without any of that scraped, sore feeling. It contains just the things a tender skin needs. You can easily prove our claims. Ask your druggist for a 25c bottle of Toiletine. Your money cheerfully refunded if Toiletine does not satisfy you. Sample for three 2-cent stamps.

The Toiletine Co.,
13 Hope St.,
Greenfield, Mass.

MERRIMACK
SO. THEATRE
ATHLETICS VS. GIANTS
Motion Pictures of the World's Series
"THE LAUGHING HORSE"
Other Good Acts
Friday Night—The Fortune Hunter

THEATRE VOYONS
LOST IN THE JUNGLE
ATHLETICS VS. GIANTS

Lowell Opera House
ONE NIGHT ONLY, Thursday, Nov. 2
ENGAGEMENT EXTRAORDINARY

THE IRISH PLAYERS
From the Abbey Theatre, Dublin, direct from their phenomenally successful engagement at the Plymouth Theatre, Boston, presenting the following program:

"KATHLEEN NI HOULIHAN"
In one act, by Wm. B. Yeats.

"THE BUILDING FUND"
A three-act comedy by Wm. Boyle,

and "THE WORK HOUSE"
A one-act comedy by Lady Gregory.

Prices—Orchestra, $2.00, $1.50, $1.00. Balcony, $1.00, 75c, 50c. Gallery, 25c. Seats on sale.

Lowell Opera House
JULIUS CAHN, Prop.-Mng.

SEATS ON SALE
For the Irish Players
Prices, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50, $2.00

HATHAWAY
THEATRE
Gartland & Shapira, Lessees

The Donald Meek Stock Co.
—Presents—
Lost—24 Hours
William Treymayne's Funny Society Play
First Appearance of
MISS LUCILLE SPINNEY
Matinee Daily TEL. 811
Popular Prices
SPECIAL—Each lady holding a paid reserved seat for MONDAY MATINEE will receive a box of chocolates.
NEXT WEEK—"THE FAMILY"

Women's Branch
People's Club
RANELS BLOCK
Open Every Evening, Beginning October 2
Nov. 1—Opening of Class Work
BRANCHES TAUGHT:
Dressmaking, Plain Sewing, Millinery, Cooking
Hours from 7 to 9.

Academy of Music
VAUDEVILLE
MOTION PICTURES
AMATEUR NIGHT WEDNESDAY

Sift and Save Coal
Common Wire and Wooden

ASH SIFTERS

With painted wooden or galvanized iron barrel covers
IDEAL AND PERFECTION
AUTOMATIC ASH SIFTERS
Strong, Simple, Satisfactory
Galvanized Iron Ash Cans
All Prices
ASH CAN TRUCKS

BARTLETT & DOW
216 Central Street.

ALLAN LINE
TO LIVERPOOL, CLARGOW, HAYRE
SHORTEST ATLANTIC PASSAGE
Four Days at Sea
Via picturesque St. Lawrence river. Irresistible accommodation. Large modern triple-crew steamers. Turbine engines, eliminating vibration, ventilating systems throughout, abolishing odors and continually renewing air. Wireless, submarine signals, every device for safety and comfort. Saloon $10.00, second cabin $5.00, third-class $3.25.
DENIS MURPHY, 18 Appleton St.
FREDERIC B. LEEDS, 5 Bridge St.
H. & A. ALLAN, 90 State St., Boston

A PAGE OF FUN

LOSERS.

Grace—Fred is a hero, all right!
Maude—In what way?
Grace—He lost a thumb and part of an ear at a game yesterday.
Maude—Well, Tom's a football hero, too. He lost his voice and four dollars.

They Don't Know It.

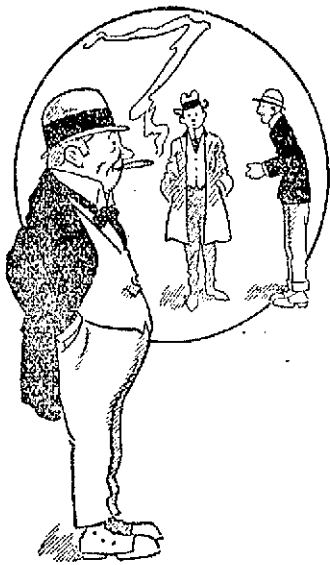

AROUND the yard the gobbler struts,
So proud and plump and fat;
And pausing now and then to ask:
"Oh, what d'ye think of that!"

The gander leads his flock about,
And walks with stately grace;
And queries of the chicks he meets:
"Say, how d'ye like my face?"

The rooster turns three times around,
That all may get a view;
And swells his chest as he exclaims:
"I'm the cock-a-doodle-do-o-o!"

The drake he wanders here and there,
And feels he's got the style;
And by his attitude he says:
"Just gaze on me awhile!"

Oh! gobbler—gander—cock-a-doo—
Oh drake from out thy coop;
Thanksgiving's only days away,
And you'll be in the soup!

SHOULD BE CONTENTED.
That man looks perfectly contented.
He ought to be. He has his winter flannels broken in and eight tons of coal in the cellar.

He Must Go.

SEE that Governor Dix, of New York State, is going to remove the mayor of one of the boroughs," remarked the man with the thoughtful chin.

"Is that so?" was the reply.

"Hard knocks, eh?"

"I should say. It will surely end his political career."

"It must. Yes, sir, he'll be a dead duck after this."

"There must have been grave charges?"

"Very grave."

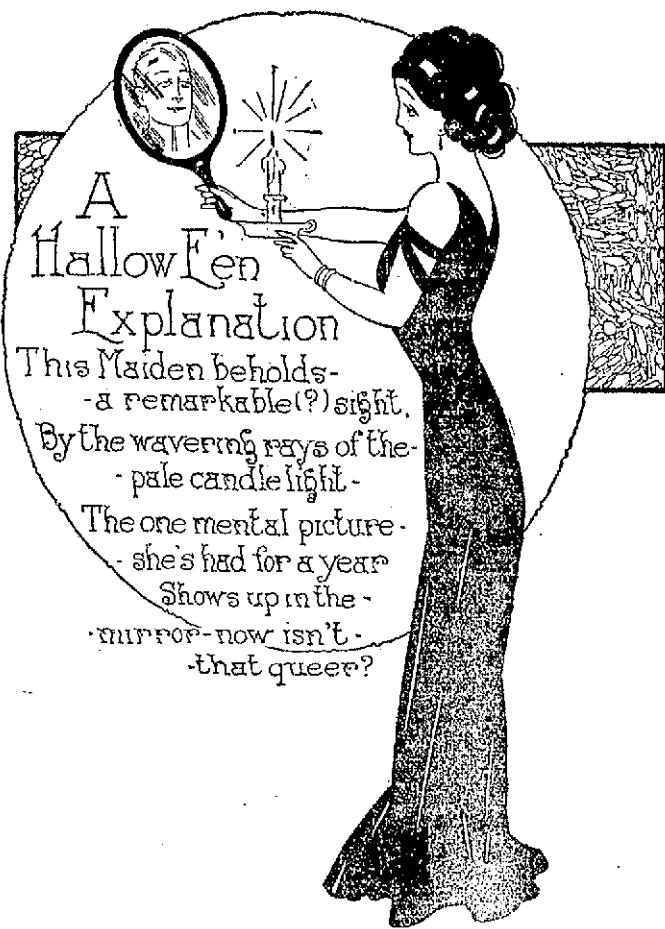

"Almost as bad as murder?"

"Well, the politicians seem to think so."

"Just what were they? I haven't seen a newspaper in several days."

"Why, he's held the place for two years and hasn't appointed a grafter to office nor stolen the borough itself!"

"Say, man, but he must go—of course he must! What on earth could he have been thinking of?"

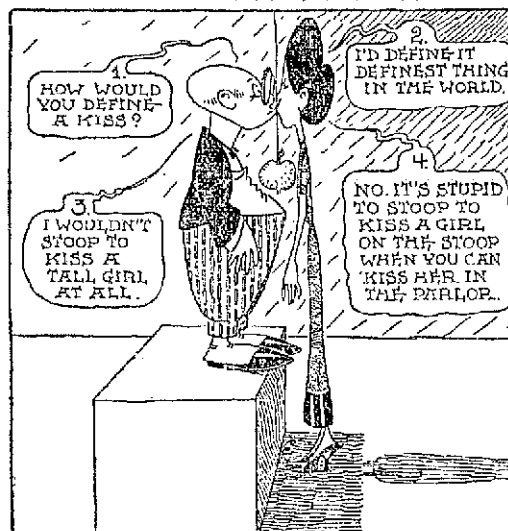

A Halloween Explanation
This Maiden beholds—a remarkable(?) sight.
By the wavering rays of the pale candle light—
The one mental picture—she's had for a year—
Shows up in the mirror—now isn't that queer?

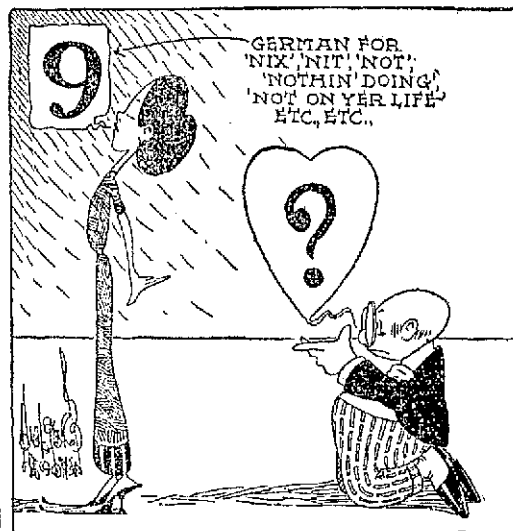

I WENT TO MAKE A LITTLE CALL
THE NIGHT OF HALLOWEEN.
THE LADY HAD A DAUGHTER WHO HAD JUST TURNED SEVENTEEN.

I FELL IN WITH THE DAUGHTER
AS YOU WILL SEE ABOVE.
ALTHOUGH I CANNOT PROVE IT,
I THINK I FELL IN LOVE.

LOOK UP ABOVE AND YOU WILL SEE—A NEW GAME THAT WE PLAYED
SHE'S NOT AFRAID OF MICROBES
AND OF GERMS IT'S NOT AFRAID

I POPPED THE QUESTION TO HER
NOT DREAMING SHE'D DECLINE—
AND ALL THE ANSWER THAT SHE MADE WAS JUST THE ONE WORD 'NEIN'.

OF ANOTHER KIND.
"How would you like to enter a relay race?"
"Fine, dad, I was a star at relay events in college."
"So I've heard you say. Well, your ma is about ready to relay the carpets."

ON HALLOWEEN.
The girls down in Pumpkin Dell
On Halloween crawl in a pumpkin shell.
If your future wife you'd like to see
Just lift off the cover and peep at me.

A Clear Explanation.

SIR," he began as he was admitted to the editorial rooms and found himself facing the editor, "I want to ask for an explanation."
"You shall have it," was the reply.
"I have read your paper for 25 years, and it has pained me to notice how you exaggerate things."
"For instance?"
"Well, the other day when that French warship blew up you had the loss of life at 480."
"Yes."
"And it turned out to be only 245."
"I see."
"But I don't. Why exaggerate? Why not say 245 at first?"
"My dear sir," said the editor, who had all the day on his hands to explain, "supposing that John Jones had a jackass?"

"Yes."
"And that jackass should fall off a bridge?"
"Yes."
"We have a report of it! Now, then, as a reader had you rather read that that jackass went off the bridge alone, or that he took harness, cart and John Jones with him, and that as they went the bridge blew up, a cyclone came along and half the nearest town was wiped out by a cloud-burst?"
"I guess I've no kick coming to me!" said the subscriber as he arose and walked out.

GOT BACK.

Passenger—"I tell you I'm a self-made man. I—"
Conductor—"Not so loud. Don't let everybody know your troubles."

JOHNNY ON ALL-HALLOWE'EN.

MY dear teacher has asked me to write a composition on Halloween, and so I must set about it and say that it isn't much to brag of. You make a bonfire in the street, and you go around ringing doorbells and tipping over ash-cans, but when you've got home and said your prayers and gone to bed you must say to yourself that there's nothing in it for you.

"When you know a boy who owns a goat, and another boy who owns a dog, and those boys invite you to see a fight between these animals, then you have fun.

"When Christmas comes, and you wake up in the morning and find a gun, a broncho and a lariat in your stocking, then you feel that you live, and you are glad that the whooping cough missed you when a baby.

"When it is Fourth of July, and you go out and lick the son of an Englishman to show him how we did it at Lexington, then you are covered with glory.

"When New Year's comes and the bells ring and the groceries raise the price of prunes, and there is a turkey for dinner, and dad comes in sober and ma is on her best behavior, and your plate is heaped twice, then you can proudly resolve to live a better life.

"But, when somebody says its Halloween, and you feel mushy, and haven't got a red in your pocket, and you know you are going to be licked next day—say, what is there in it for a red-headed boy who wants this old world to turn over four times a day?"

Nowhere to Go.

HAD been reading in his newspaper about the adulteration of almost every article of food-stuffs, when he came to a sudden resolve and said to his friend:

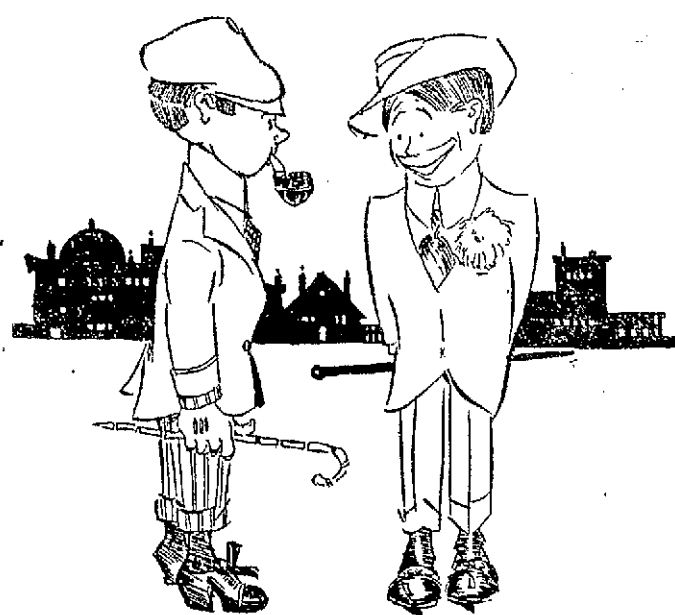

"By the jumping jingo, but those men ought to be sent to State Prison! Think of copper sulphates to make canned peas look green!"

"Well?" was asked.
"They don't get none of their poisons down me?"

"I'll go to the country and take board with a farmer and live on pumpkin pies."

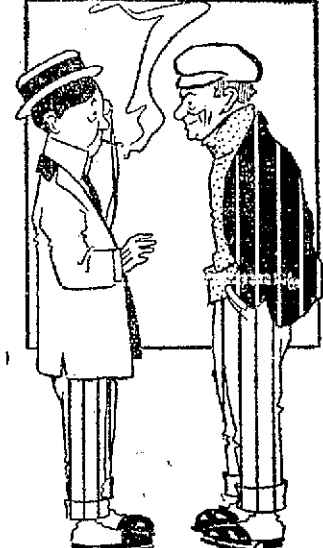

"It's to laugh," said the other with a grin.

"What about?"
"Why, the farmer rubs his pumpkins with crocote to preserve them, and crocote will kill a dog inside of two weeks! You are going to stay right here and eat and die with the rest of us!"

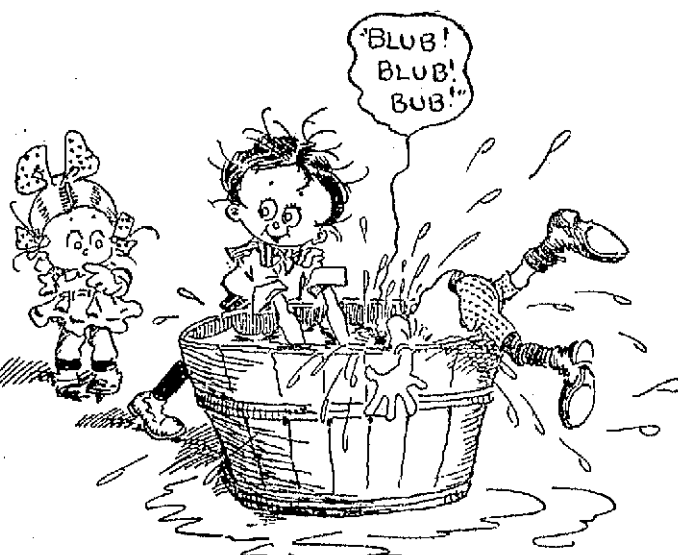

WHERE A COLLEGE EDUCATION FAILS.

Soph—Biggy, the big center, doesn't play with the varsity team this season.
Junior—Hurt?
Soph—No. He's got a weak memory and can't learn the rules.

STRANGE.

Roggy—I with thinking of joining the football squad at one time.
Centerrush—Well, why didn't you?
Roggy—Why, I wote the director of athletics to ratterme me the plaths of left half-back thith fall and he didn't even reply.

HELPING WILLIE.

Mother—Mercy, Bobby, what are you doing to Willie?
Bobby—We're just bobbin' for apples an' I'm helpin' him to git one.

STABBED IN BACK

Man Spoke to Girl and Was Assaulted

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—John Margie of 2 North square, was stabbed in the back three times, slashed across the cheek and had the middle finger of his right hand badly cut during an altercation last evening on Purchase street.

The cause of the trouble was Margie's effort, it is said, to speak to a young woman walking through Purchase street with Giovanni Barresse of 2 Frankfort street, East Boston. Margie knew both well.

The moment he spoke a fight started, however. He alleges that Barresse drew a knife, which Margie finally succeeded in knocking out of his hand. Then Barresse ran down Purchase street in the direction of Atlantic ave. with Margie and a crowd of about 25 at his heels.

Near the City Hall station, Patrolman Tate of the 10th Avenue station arrested Barresse. Margie was sent to the Relief hospital and then went home against the advice of the surgeons. Barresse was charged with assault and battery with a knife with intent to kill.

HELD IN $5000

SOMERVILLE MAN IS CHARGED WITH ARSON

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—George Gutro, aged 24, of 8 Myrtle place, Somerville, appeared before Judge Michael J. Murphy in the municipal criminal court yesterday to answer to the charge of attempting to set fire to buildings at 25 and 41 Endicott street, North End, both occupied in part as dwellings.

Notified that his case was beyond the jurisdiction of the lower court, he waived a hearing and was held for the grand jury. In default of $5000 bail he was remanded to Charles street jail.

One of the witnesses against Gutro is James Hillard of East Springfield street, who says that he saw Gutro coming out of an Endicott street cellar last Saturday afternoon and was bitten by Gutro when he tried to stop him. There are other witnesses. Gutro was arrested by Patrolman John D. Kellier of Division 1.

EXETER GIRLS' CLUB

The Exeter Girls' club of upper Gorham street, composed of popular young ladies, held a successful bazaar last Saturday evening to the home of Mrs. Delany of West End street. Dinner was served and dancing enjoyed, and a musical program was carried out. James Wood and John Foley entered. Those responsible for the affair were: Lillian Moore, Stella Howard, Mae Lavery, Mary Corbison, Ella Moore, Ruth Campbell, Alice Flaxworth, Mae McCarty, Winnie Lavery, Lillian Howard, Lizzie Davidson, Jennie Nelson. Miss Annie Moore was the pianist of the evening.

should be a source of pride to you. Sallow skin, pimples, blotches and eruptions call for immediate attention. It should be your aim to get rid of these disfiguring signs of impure blood—quickly, certainly, inexpensively. No outward application will purify your blood.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

help naturally from within. They cleanse the system and enable your stomach, liver and bowels to work as Nature intended.

Try a few doses and see how quickly you will be rid of impurities, and how your blood and your looks will be benefited. Thoroughly tried and proved good this family remedy is

The Best of Beauty's Aids

For females, Beecham's Pills are specially suitable. See instructions with each box. Sold Everywhere. In boxes 10c. and 25c.

Practical Home Helps

FOR INSOMNIA

Heat 1 glass of milk to boiling point, add enough sugar to suit the taste, and 2 tablespoonsful of Duffy's pure malt whiskey; stir well and drink slowly. If taken before retiring this will quiet the nerves and produce peaceful sleep. It is a simple remedy that can be prepared by any one very quickly.

Dr. A. S. Townsend of Detroit, Mich., who is an authority, says: "This recipe will cure insomnia and build up the weak, nervous and debilitated."

A BIG MASSACRE

Continued

The revolutionists point out that such edicts as these wherein the thugs' own appointees and relatives are called thieves and scoundrels do not tend to elevate and condone.

But while the edicts have apparently failed of their hoped for effect in conciliating the rebels, they have stirred up a most formidable opposition from a new source. The announcement that most of the Manchian police holders must go and that all the Manchian pensions will be cut off immediately produced a pronounced disaffection in the ranks of the Manchians and many members of this race at once began talking in favor of a massacre of revenge. There were indications already today that these proposals would find support, particularly among the younger Manchian princes, who will now be stripped of their high office and unable longer to exploit their positions.

May Lead Massacre Party. Officials prominent among the native Chinese profess to have information that Prince Tsai Tao, uncle of the baby emperor, is willing to lead the massacre party. Prince Tsai Tao is well known in Europe and America.

Throughout the day the foreign legations, the missions and even private houses occupied by foreigners were besieged by both Manchians and Chinese who sought protection from each other. Certain legations are advising both Chinese and Manchians to take refuge in case of trouble behind the Methodist mission, which is situated in that corner of the main city lying between the legation quarter and the east wall. This is the most easily defended section of the city and the legation guards may be able to protect those who gather there. Long lines of carts piled high with the household belongings of fleeing ones continue to pass out the city gates before the early closing hours. Soldiers now guard all the city gates. Many carts emerge from the forbidden city, some guarded by soldiers. Carriages of silver, sometimes without a guard, pass day and night in and out the legation quarter.

The money of both Manchians and Chinese is being hoarded in the legation from the defenseless Chinese banks for a temporary safe deposit and then removed to replace the paper circulation or to be forwarded to the minister of war, Gen. Yin Tehang, for the loyal troops, who are receiving their pay with unprecedented regularity. Wealthy citizens also are entrusting their fortunes to foreigners.

The government has asked the mission doctors to establish a Red Cross hospital outside the city for the reception of the wounded who are expected to return in a few days from the encounter with General Li Yuan Hong's rebels.

Foreigners are anxious over the situation in Peking but not alarmed. Outsiders have not yet entered the legation quarter. Nevertheless, the latest precautions are being taken. Unarmed pickets form a line about the legation walls and extending into the Chinese quarter. Fears are entertained for the foreigners in the province of Shangai, many of whom are Americans. The rebels in that province are said to be in possession of the capital, where there are several missions and which also is the seat of Shanghai university.

DRAGON FLAG

WAS AGAIN HOISTED IN CANTON, CHINA, TODAY

CANTON, China, Oct. 31.—The dragon flag was again hoisted here today. Business is being resumed.

CHINESE REBELS

ARE FURIOUSLY OPPOSING THE IMPERIALIST ADVANCE

HANKOW, Oct. 29, via Wu Han, Oct. 31.—The revolutionists have rallied, are reorganizing their forces and are furiously contesting the Imperialist advance on Han Yang. The insurgents still hold a section of the city which separates the foreign quarters from the native city. The Red Cross doctors estimate that 1000 revolutionists have been killed and between 2000 and 3000 wounded during the fighting of the past three days.

Of a rebel battalion which faced the Imperialist machine guns with intrepid bravery only two or three escaped. The others were mowed down. The loyalists lost from 200 to 300 killed.

A LITTLE NONSENSE

PUTTING HIM RIGHT.

"Say, weary, ain't you one of dem fellows who don't believe in doin' two things at once?"

"Two things? Why, I'm one of dem chaps who don't believe in doin' one thing at a time."

AWFUL.

"Madam, pardon me, but are you really fond of your dog?"

"Yes, why?"

"Well, I was going to say if you weren't I'd feed him that sandwich you just gave me."

SAD CASE.

"Don't weep, Willie, you couldn't help it."

"I know, but I hadn't touched water for ten years, and then I was kicked off a train into a creek! Boo-hoo! Dis is too much, too much!"

WHEN WOMEN VOTE.

"Did you shake down de gent in de house back dere?"

"Naw. He's got a ferocious nose that he'd back porch, and I couldn't get near de dog."

A BIRD-LIKE FEELING.

"I feel like a bird."

"How's that?"

"De lady's bulldog made me quail."

MEAN.

"Can you assist me, sir, I belong to the vast army of the unemployed?"

"Then you'd better beat it back to headquarters quick."

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

SAVE YOUR OWN MONEY BY BUYING one of the many bargains in two tenements and cottages on my large lot covering all sections city and suburbs. Some very easy payments. All kinds of insurance, lowest rates. St. J. Sharkey, 22 Central st., room 25. Open Saturdays and Monday evenings.

NEAR ST. PETER'S—VERY PLEASANT 1-ROOM cottage with bath, fireplace, neighborhood, good yard, very small amount down. St. J. Sharkey, 22 Central st., room 25.

A BARGAIN—TWO TENEMENTS house with all modern improvements, located in West Centralville, near the mills, French and public schools; in all repairs; French always rented; can be bought with $100 or more down and the remainder as rent. For further particulars address A. B. C. Sun Office.

LOST AND FOUND

LADY'S PURSE FOUND IN ST. PATRICK'S church, Oct. 15, containing sum of money. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for this ad. at 32 Willis st.

FOX HOUND LOST, WHITE WITH tan ears and one black spot on side. A little lame in hind leg. Notify Mr. Adams, Care of H. Hanson & Co.

SPRING OF GOLD BEADS LOST ON Friday evening. The finder will please notify or return them to W. D. Harrington, 28 South Walker st. and receive reward.

60.00 AND CHANGE, IN AN envelope, lost at 6 p. m., Friday, opposite the Edison cemetery gate and Saratoga st. Reward at 25 Saratoga st.

GOLD RING WITH CHIEF DIAMOND and 12 smaller stones, or in McCauley's bakery, in Gorham st. Reward if returned to 35 Shaw st.

GENTS' GOLD SCARF PIN WITH amethyst stone lost Tuesday. The finder will kindly return to The Sun office and receive reward.

FREE TO THE SICK

It matters not the name of the disease you are suffering with, how many Physicians you have taken treatment with, do not be discouraged. DR. TEMPLE'S TREATMENT WILL CURE YOU.

All Blood, Nerve and Racial Diseases, Acute and Chronic Blood Diseases of Men and Women. Hydrocele, Varicocele, Stricture, Prostatitis, Piles, Fistulas, Fluoritis, Gleet and all Racial Diseases Without the Use of the Knife. Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bladder, Bowels, Rectum, Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat.

Terms are always made to suit the convenience of anyone applying for treatment, and very reasonable charges. Do not treat elsewhere until you have investigated methods and terms. Office, 97 Central street, Mansur Block, Wednesdays, 2 to 4; 7 to 8.

Sundays, 10 to 12. Other days by appointment only.

Consultation, Examination, Advice FREE.

STORAGE FOR FURNITURE Separate rooms $1 per month for regular $2 two-horse load. The dryest and cleanest place for storage in Lowell. Telephone connection. O. F. Prindle, 305 Bridge st.

WHO FILLS YOUR PRESCRIPTIONS?

When your physician prescribes a remedy, he expects certain results. Every drug is used in compounding is absolutely pure and of standard strength, and certain to afford the desired results.

LEGAL NOTICES

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP The partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned under the firm name of C. O. Leavitt & Co., carrying on the business of the manufacture of Custom Shirts at 38 and 40 Middlesex street, Lowell, Mass., is hereby dissolved by mutual consent. C. O. Leavitt will continue the business at the same place, is authorized to collect all bills due the firm and will pay the firm's liabilities.

CHARLES O. LEAVITT, FREDERICK E. LEAVITT, Lowell, Mass., October 30th, 1911.

Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned have been duly appointed administrators of the estate of Wallace P. Bennett, late of Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, and have taken upon himself that trust. All persons indebted to said estate are required to exhibit, the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to the undersigned, Aero 11, Schoolcraft Bldg., 29 Webster st., Oct. 16, 1911.

HELP WANTED

TABLE GIRL WANTED AT ONCE. Inquire 39 Chestnut st.

SECTION HAND WANTED FOR cap planning. One used to filling spinning. Address B. B. Sun Office.

PAINTERS WANTED. APPLY AT once. Dwyer & Co., 47 Andover st.

MEAT SPICHER WANTED. Apply Robinson & Farrell Shoe Co., Rockingham st.

GIRL PARTNER WANTED TO work in a musical act. Must be good looking and about 18 or 20 years of age. Hours, between 7 and 8 o'clock evenings. Address L. Elliott, 241 Lakeview ave., Centralville.

WIDOWER WISHES TO HAVE A French Catholic housekeeper, about 40, single or widow, without children. Call 12 m. or 3 p. m. E. Belanger, 600 Lawrence st.

RAILWAY MAIL CLERKS WANTED. Customs employees. Average $20 monthly. Lowell examinations announced Jan. 15th. Sample questions free. Write immediately. Franklin Institute, Dept. 135 K, Rochester, N. Y.

GIRLS WANTED. INQUIRE AT addressess Co., Warren st.

CLEANING WANTED BY THE day or hour. Address X. Y. Z., Sun Office.

HOUSE GIRL WANTED. INQUIRE AT 43 Central street.

55 TO 57 DAILY SELLING NEW Floor Brooms. 100 per cent profit. every woman will buy. Broom canvass at once. Sample by express, 30 cents. Wynn Broom Co., Elmira, N. Y.

MEN WANTED TO LEARN THE automobile business, road driving and repairing. Send stamp for particulars. New England Auto School, 509 Tremont st., Boston.

WANTED FOR U. S. ARMY—ABLE-bodied men, either married or single, of 18 and 35; citizens of United States of good character and temperate habits, who can speak, read and write the English language. For information apply to Recruiting Office, 159 Middlesex st., Lowell, Mass.

STOVE REPAIRS

STOVE REPAIRS—WE CARRY IN stock and furnish stoves, grates, covers, centers, water fronts, etc., for all kinds of stoves and ranges. Work done at lowest prices. Bring size and name of stove or telephone 1977-1. Quinn Furniture Co., 160 Middlesex st.

F. W. Cragin & Co. MANUFACTURERS OF Cabinet Work of All Kinds to Order. Stores and offices fitted up, Wood turning, Jobbing and repairing. Old furniture repaired and finished, new furniture made to order. 36 Fletcher street, Lowell, Mass. Telephone

SPECIAL NOTICES

CLEAN BRICK BY THE THOUSAND wanted. Apply J. A. Simpson, 35 Market st.

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES. Sharpened out better than new. 25c each, at Carter & Sherburne's Drug Store.

NEURALGIA CURED FREE WITH a sample of Chlorine, Clark's Nourishing Remedy. Send a 2c stamp to the John W. Clark Co., Athol, Mass.

BENT'S NO. 1 KILLS Lice on children. Excellent for brownish moth hatching, lice, poison, bites, mange, salt rheum, falling hair. 25 cents at Patis & Burlingame's.

THE SUN IN BOSTON—THE SUN is on sale every day at both news stands of the Union Station in Boston. Don't forget this when taking your train for Lowell.

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES OF ALL kinds sharpened; Gillette's a specialty; 25c each. Harry Gonzales, The Cutler, 128 Gorham st. Tel. 952-2.

TO LET

TENEMENT OF FOUR ROOMS, with gas connections (not range) to let at 164 Crosby st. Apply 164 Crosby st. or to Undertaker John A. Finnegan, 179 East Merrimack st.

NEARBY FURNISHED ROOMS 40 light steam heat and gas $1 per week and up. Mrs. McMillan, Gallagher House, Williams st.

HALF A HOUSE TO LET, WITH 7 rooms, front and back yard. Terms very reasonable. Inquire at 605 E. Merrimack st.

OFFICES

FOR RENT

Splendid modern offices in the NEW HARRINGTON BUILDING, 63 Central street. Hardwood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at THE SUN OFFICE.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGIES MADE TO ORDER. Razors honed and sharpened; clipper sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 128 Gorham st. Tel. 952-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

WANTED

HORSE WANTED—A GOOD SOUND horse for city delivery. Must be broken to electric and automobiles. Warranted to stand without hitching. Address A. C. Sun Office.

ROOMERS AND BOARDERS WANTED—Mrs. McGregor pays all attention to her guests; sets a first class table; clean, steam heat, electric light; nothing to equal it can be found in Lowell for the price charged. Gents, $2.50; ladies, $2.00. Baths with hot and cold water. All very welcome. Transients accommodated. If you feel hungry go to the Quincy House, 52 Leo st.

SITUATIONS WANTED

POSITION WANTED TO CARE for an invalid through the day. Address J. L. G., 312 Walker st.

Frank B. Murphy INSURANCE and REAL ESTATE 59 CENTRAL STREET, ROOM 24

Rummage Sale By ladies of St. John's parish, Nov. 2nd and 3rd, THURSDAY and FRIDAY, 321 Central St.

TO LET

NICE SUNNY TENEMENT OF 4 rooms, to let, big yard, $8 month. 10 Cedar st.

SUNNY 3-ROOM TENEMENT to let, bath, hot and cold water, separate door. Beautiful view of the city. Inquire 225 Avon st.

FURNISHED ROOMS, ALSO ROOMS for light housekeeping, to let, steam heat and bath, board if desired, at 6 Stackpole st.

NICE NEW 3-ROOM TWO-ROOM tenement, with all modern improvements, to let at 31 Gersham ave., Pawtucketville. Well situated, pleasant surroundings. Inquire 115 East Merrimack st., Boston.

NICE DOWN STAIRS TENEMENT on Birch st. to let, half of double cottage with 7 rooms on Alder st. Inquire of John McMenamin, 212 Merrimack st.

ONE 3-ROOM AND ONE 4-ROOM tenement, to let on North st. Apply at 32 North st.

3-ROOM TENEMENTS TO LET in Stackpole st., having separate front and rear doors, newly painted and papered and in the best of repair. Apply 115 East Merrimack st., Boston.

6-ROOM TENEMENT AT 8 CLARK court, to let, located at 252 Concord st.

MODERN 4-ROOM FLAT AT 16 ACADAM st., $1.75. Modern 5-room flat at 309 Lawrence st. Modern 3-room, $2.10. Key at 309.

FOUR-ROOM TENEMENTS TO LET, 16 to 18 Seventh st. Inquire on premises, or telephone 132-1.

EIGHT ROOM TENEMENT TO LET at 129 Church st. Good location for roomers. Apply Henry Miller & Son, room 309 Wynn's Exchange.

3-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET in Highlands. All modern improvements. Inquire 12, Baker st., or phone 87 per month. J. H. Elliott, 61 Central st.

7-ROOM HOUSE AT 118TH ST. to let, modern improvements. Inquire 161 Bridge st.

7-ROOM COTTAGE TO LET, BATH, own plumbing, gas, city water, stable and large lot of land. Apply to Mr. Corbett, 35 Highland st.

3-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, CENTRAL, convenient location; warm and sunny, $1.75 a week. T. H. Elliott, 61 Central st.

4-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, BELVIDERE, five minutes walk to post office, sunny, new, convenient; convenient location. $1.75 a week. Apply E. G. Russell, 407 Middlesex st., near depot.

5-ROOM FLATSTAIRS FLAT TO LET in Highlands. All modern improvements. Inquire 12, Baker st., or phone 87 per month. J. H. Elliott, 61 Central st.

5-ROOM HOUSE AT 118TH ST. to let, modern improvements. Inquire 161 Bridge st.

7-ROOM COTTAGE TO LET, BATH, own plumbing, gas, city water, stable and large lot of land. Apply to Mr. Corbett, 35 Highland st.

3-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, CENTRAL, convenient location; warm and sunny, $1.75 a week. T. H. Elliott, 61 Central st.

4-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, BELVIDERE, five minutes walk to post office, sunny, new, convenient; convenient location. $1.75 a week. Apply E. G. Russell, 407 Middlesex st., near depot.

5-ROOM FLATSTAIRS FLAT TO LET in Highlands. All modern improvements. Inquire 12, Baker st., or phone 87 per month. J. H. Elliott, 61 Central st.

5-ROOM HOUSE AT 118TH ST. to let, modern improvements. Inquire 161 Bridge st.

7-ROOM COTTAGE TO LET, BATH, own plumbing, gas, city water, stable and large lot of land. Apply to Mr. Corbett, 35 Highland st.

3-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, CENTRAL, convenient location; warm and sunny, $1.75 a week. T. H. Elliott, 61 Central st.

4-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, BELVIDERE, five minutes walk to post office, sunny, new, convenient; convenient location. $1.75 a week. Apply E. G. Russell, 407 Middlesex st., near depot.

5-ROOM FLATSTAIRS FLAT TO LET in Highlands. All modern improvements. Inquire 12, Baker st., or phone 87 per month. J. H. Elliott, 61 Central st.

5-ROOM HOUSE AT 118TH ST. to let, modern improvements. Inquire 161 Bridge st.

7-ROOM COTTAGE TO LET, BATH, own plumbing, gas, city water, stable and large lot of land. Apply to Mr. Corbett, 35 Highland st.

3-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, CENTRAL, convenient location; warm and sunny, $1.75 a week. T. H. Elliott, 61 Central st.

4-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, BELVIDERE, five minutes walk to post office, sunny, new, convenient; convenient location. $1.75 a week. Apply E. G. Russell, 407 Middlesex st., near depot.

5-ROOM FLATSTAIRS FLAT TO LET in Highlands. All modern improvements. Inquire 12, Baker st., or phone 87 per month. J. H. Elliott, 61 Central st.

5-ROOM HOUSE AT 118TH ST. to let, modern improvements. Inquire 161 Bridge st.

FOR SALE

3020 HOP HOUSE NO. 3 HEATER, phone, etc., for sale. Call evening or Saturday afternoon, at residence of C. R. Dodge, Gorham st., East Chelsea, Mass.

THREAD MILL IN GOOD CONDITION for sale, if taken at once. A. J. Kelly, West Chelsea, Mass.

TUNES OF THE WELL KNOWN Jolly-Continental make for sale; old music of this and other makes; repaired. Address A. J. Kelly, West Chelsea, Mass.

TRUCKERY AND PROVISION STORE for sale, centrally located, doing a good cash business; good set of fixtures, with soil at a sacrifice as owner is leaving the city; must sell at once. Write A. B. Jones, General Delivery, Lowell.

BOARDING HOUSE FOR SALE; 20 boarders now in house, steam heat, at 26 Dodge st. Inquire on premises.

ONE RUTHERFORD CAR AND ONE BUTLER SLIGHTLY USED, ready for cash. Inquire at 435 Broadway.

HORSES FOR SALE, FROM $50 TO 1400 pounds. A. B. Humphrey, 857 Gorham st. Tel. 513-1.

FOR SALE

Boarding and lodging house, near business center, 100 boarders. A bargain for any hustler, with easy terms to right party. Delay and you lose it.

W. E. DODGE 22 Central Street

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY FOR SATIATED PEOPLE—When keeping home and others, advanced them without security, easy payments, cheapest rates, don't worry or annoy friends about money. Keep your credit good by paying as you agree. Will furnish you money to do it. D. H. Tolman, Room 403,

ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY

Governor Foss Says That Council Must Confirm Nominations

FALL RIVER, Oct. 31.—At the end of a long speech to the largest audience to which he has talked during the present campaign, Gov. Foss declared war upon his council in the Academy of Music last night, saying: "I have been having trouble with the council. You probably have noticed stories about it in the newspapers. But I want to say right here, and I want it known, that I am responsible to the people for the council, and I propose to name the men who are going to occupy these offices, and this council has got to confirm them."

Tremendous applause greeted the governor's remarks. It had not been thought he would speak in such drastic terms. Men who sat upon the platform whispered to one another as the governor spoke.

His words with regard to the council concluded the two rallies of the night, one at New Bedford, the other here. Three thousand people filled every seat and every bit of standing room at the Academy of Music, and their enthusiasm at times knew no bounds. Hand clapping interrupted the speakers every few minutes, and occasionally cheers resounded through the hall.

Suffragists Appear

The day was an especially eventful one in Plymouth and Bristol counties. There occurred the appearance of the militant suffragists at democratic meetings. An unannounced visit was made by Gov. Foss to the state farm at Bridgewater, where, accompanied by Capt. H. M. Blackstone, superintendent of the institution, he made a hasty inspection. As he was leaving he turned to the captain, saying: "After the election I shall come down here and make a more thorough inspection."

The governor met the suffragists at North Abington. No sooner had he gone than David I. Walsh appeared and made himself acquainted. The suffragists had announced that they intended to query the candidate for lieutenant-governor with regard to remarks made by him at Northampton and at the democratic ratification meeting in Boston, but not once during the day did they make efforts to ask questions. At each place they contented themselves with distributing literature and making speeches on the cause. Miss Foley spoke for 20 minutes in a straight suffrage speech at the corner of Union and Fifth streets, New Bedford, last night. Afterward she departed for Boston.

During the day talks were made by the governor and other members of the state ticket at North Abington, East Bridgewater, Bridgewater, Middleboro and Wareham. At all of these places good crowds greeted the speakers, and they were enthusiastic in their applause. For the first time, the governor "warmed up" to the campaign yesterday and discarded his old gray coat and hat at each place he talked. Those are the garments which he declares were for him the last election, for their appearance, he says, makes him look like "one of the people." Yesterday he was clad in a natty blue suit.

The speakers alternated at last night's meetings, the governor starting at New Bedford and Mr. Walsh beginning at the rally here. The opening speeches were made by Mr. Strecker at New Bedford and Mr. Donahue at the Academy of Music. Neither Mr. Anderson nor Mr. Thorndike appeared. Mayor Thomas F. Higgins presided at Fall River.

Donahue Tells of G. O. P. Offer

Mr. Donahue diverted from his regular talk for a moment, saying: "Everything is being done to save the head of the republican ticket. Daily offers of support have been made to candidates on the democratic state ticket if they will agree not to attack the republican candidate for governor. We are attacking the system which he represents, not the man."

Mr. Walsh referred to Fall River as the city of spookies which had the greatest interest in this campaign.

"Can there be any question how every thinking man, every laboring man, will vote on the 7th of November?" he asked. "On that day the people of Massachusetts are going to register their gratitude to Eugene N. Foss. What have we to be grateful for? Never before in the history of Massachusetts has there been a man occupying high office in the commonwealth who has been down among the people, thinking of the people, working for the people, fighting for the people, making laws for the people, such as this governor has."

There was an outburst of applause as Mr. Walsh made these remarks. He continued: "Do you men in Fall River approve of Gov. Foss signing the bill providing a 54-hour week for women and children? Do you laboring men approve of his recommendation of the workmen's compensation act, and his signing of the bill which made it for all time a benefit to the workmen of Massachusetts?"

Audience in Tears

As Mr. Walsh portrayed passionately the sufferings of women and children during long hours in factories, lumber-chests were seen to go to the eyes of nearly all of the women and a great many of the men in the audience.

Mr. Strecker received a great reception and in a 10-minute speech compared the records of Gov. Foss and his republican opponent.

Then came Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston, and the applause was deafening. He told some stories, referred to the need of a state finance commission, which he said Gov. Foss advocated; read from a book the dividends paid by New Bedford and Fall River mills, and finally urged the election of democratic senators and representatives to assist in passing progressive measures at the next session.

Enter the "People's Champion"

Gov. Foss walked upon the stage as the mayor was finishing his speech. Everybody applauded. A moment or two later, when he was introduced, many stood and yelled, and there was a thundering applause for the call for "Three cheers for Gov. Foss." The governor was presented as "the champion of the common people." He spoke principally of the labor legislation enacted during the last year, saying with regard to the workmen's compensation act:

"That is the most constructive piece of legislation in the interest of our toilers that has been enacted in a generation. It puts into force a principle that industry owes to labor something more than its pay envelope."

Referring to the tariff board and the plans of President Taft for a scientific revision of the tariff, the governor said: "The people of this country are tired of waiting. They did not hear anything about the scientific revision of the tariff when the Payne-Aldrich bill was under consideration, so why should they now?"

Halloween Sweet Cider—Boyle Bros.

NEW GOLF CHAMPION

By defeating Henry H. Wilder two up in a 36-hole match Saturday R. W. Brown became the new golf champion of the Vesper Country club. The annual match for the championship brought out a big entry list and Wilder was picked as the winner but Brown's was so clever, accurate and consistent that after he had finished the first round Wilder's friends began to lose hope. In the consolation E. Stuart defeated O. Haskmeyer five up in an 18-hole match.

Halloween Sweet Cider—Boyle Bros.

AUTOMOBILE NEWS

A WOMAN DRIVER

Miss Roberta Marks Had Perfect Score

Keeping pace of drivers with years of endurance run experience, traversing the worst roads in the country under the most trying conditions, Miss Roberta Marks, of Athens, Ga., in her silver-plated Columbia car—the only woman contestant in the Glidden tour—finished the terrific 1464 mile run without a scratch.

From the day the tour started in New York until the cars were checked at the finish in Jacksonville, Fla., Miss Marks never once faltered.

Stories of her pluck in this run preceded Miss Marks and she was cheered by thousands who lined the course.

That a woman should triumph where 88 out of 72 men failed was a much talked of event on the tour. It was a tribute to a good car well handled.

Day after day, encouraged by the thousands of enthusiasts, she dashed through swollen streams, flying mud and dangerous quicksands, and climbed steep hills. Miss Marks today is a heroine for her display of courage.

This young society leader was abroad when advice that her friends had entered her car in the long run. She hurried home, arriving tired from the trip, a day in advance of the national touring championship event. She went over the car, found it mechanically perfect, and with three of her feminine friends aboard, started for the south.

THE VANDERBILT CUP

Grant Anxious to Win Race Again

Harry Grant is ambitious to win the Vanderbilt Cup race this year and if he is successful, he will have performed a feat unique in the history of automobile racing for it will be the third consecutive time which he has won this great classic. Grant has been a regular member of the Vanderbilt racing team. At Fairmount park, he drove a car owned by Dr. Chambers of Pittsburgh, but in the Vanderbilt race, he will drive a 1912 Lozier model, a duplicate of the same car with which he won the 600-inch class race at Fairmount park.

Grant is a popular favorite in Savannah and when the news was received that he would be one of the starters in the Vanderbilt this year, there was much rejoicing among the officials and members of the club, for it was appreciated that the Vanderbilt race would be added to the race list by a car holder in on hand to defend his title.

Ralph Mulford will also be one of the contenders in the Vanderbilt Cup race. This will be his second attempt in the Vanderbilt contest. Last year, it was remembered that for eight laps, Mulford's big 1910 Lozier was the first car over the tape; he made every lap in eleven minutes giving a remarkable exhibition of consistency.

Mulford and Grant will both drive in the Grand Prize event, using 48 in. V. cars of the same type which they used in the Vanderbilt race. Mulford will be outclassed by the big foreign racing cars, it is very probable that the two will push the leaders for places. In last year's Grand Prize, Mulford and Moran, defeated all but four of the big cars, finishing in fourth and fifth places.

Mulford's work at Indianapolis, Elgin and Fairmount park this year, indicates that the cars are showing greater speed than last year, and under these circumstances, they promise to give the big specials a harder fight than ever before.

Some of the specials entering cars in the Vanderbilt and Grand Prize races, which events are only three days apart, are entering separate cars and separate drivers for both events, but the Lozier team plus his faith to the same two cars for both of the big races and there is no doubt that Mulford and Grant, veterans in the game, are fully capable of going through both the races without difficulty.

Are Waiting for Next Year's Models

The local automobile dealers are now making preparations for receiving the 1912 models of the cars which they are to handle during the ensuing year. Catalogues of the different models have arrived at the different local salesrooms, but the cars are a little late in arriving. By glancing over the different booklets it is seen that in some cases there has been a big improvement in the engine, the tendency being towards the silent motor, but in the case of several manufacturers there is practically no change in the engine, they believing that they cannot improve over the engine used last year.

There are radical changes in the bodies of several cars, there being a big increase in the semi-enclosed car such as torpedo bodies with bucket dash, foredoor and semi-foredoor.

With a few exceptions the local dealers will handle the same cars in 1912 that they did in 1911.

Arthur G. Belarrell of the City Hall garage has received a number of very pleasant week spent at Motino, Ill., where he was one of the guests of the officials of the Velle Motor Vehicle company. Representatives of the Velle car throughout the country were called to the home plant to inspect 1912 models and have improvements and new conditions pointed out. The visiting agents were addressed by several of the experts of the Velle factory.

Samuel Rostler has purchased a used model 3 Buick and W. H. Brown a used model 43 Buick through the agency of the Lowell Automobile corporation.

Storage for Autos

STEAM HEATED

$3.00 a Month

MOODY BRIDGE GARAGE

TELEPHONE 2058

KILLED BY A CAR

Worcester Boy's Skull Was Fractured

WORCESTER, Oct. 31.—Because Mrs. Ernest J. Perry feared that her six-year-old son Leon Raymond Perry might be injured by the trolley cars which run through Grafton street in great numbers, she induced her husband to move the family a few months ago to a section of the city where fewer cars ran. The family then scouted a tenement in Trainor's court, Cherry Valley, by which only the trolley cars on the Spencer line run every half hour.

Little Leon ran into one of these shortly before noon yesterday and was instantly killed, suffering a double fracture of the skull.

It had been the custom of the little lad since the family moved to Cherry Valley to meet his mother at the Valley mills, where she is employed and go home to dinner with her from school. Yesterday he and a schoolmate were playing near the mill gate when Leon, in running away from his playmate, dashed into an outgoing Spencer car in such a way that his head came in contact with the front stop on the left side.

The blow caused instant death, and the mother collapsed when she followed the throng of mill employees to the scene of the accident to learn that the victim was her son.

COMMUNICATION

Editor of The Sun,

Dear Sir:—The impression seems to have gone abroad, that in my endeavor to improve conditions and to raise the standard of the hospital maintained by the city, I have grievances against certain other members of the board of charities. Harmony in the board and the most friendly relations exist.

I am making an effort to bring about certain changes in the policy of management in the charity department, that the efficiency may be raised and that the people of Lowell become the recipients of a greater service from the department of charities.

The present board has done and is doing all that is within its power to conserve the interests of the people of Lowell coping under its care, and much credit is due the superintendent, for his painstaking efforts, and the efficiency of his administration of the department.

The facts are, that the charity board has too little power under the present charter, and there exists today, as there has always existed, conditions

MY DAUGHTER WAS CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Baltimore, Md.—"I send you here with the picture of my fifteen year old daughter Allen, who was restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was pale, with dark circles under her eyes, weak and irritable. Two different doctors treated her and called it Green Sickness, but she grew worse all the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking three bottles she has regained her health, thanks to your medicine. I can recommend it for all female troubles."—Mrs. L. A. CORRIAN, 1103 Rutland Street, Baltimore, Md.

Thousands of such letters as the above ought to give women confidence in the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It certainly has done a world of good among the women of America.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should take immediate action and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by its use.

Surely this is an honest, tried and true remedy.

HOW GERMS SPREAD SKIN DISEASE

Eczema, Psoriasis and other skin troubles are caused by myriads of germs at work in the skin. Unless these germs are promptly destroyed they rapidly multiply, gnawing their way deep into the sensitive tissue. This is what causes that awful itch, and what seemed a mere rash may grow worse and develop into a loathsome and lasting skin disease with its years of misery.

Don't take any chances! Destroy the germs at the beginning of the trouble with that soothing and cleansing wash, the D. D. Prescription for Eczema.

THE AUTO WAS ALL RIGHT

A small, quiet, but sorrowful, if not disgusted man sat by the side of a motor car drawing out of the road as a large touring car came along, driven by a man with an interrogatory aspect. The man in the touring car had seen that auto every time he passed that day, so he slowed up and leaned over. "How long have you been here?" "Several hours."

"Can't you find out what is the matter?" "Inlet valve all right?" "Yes."

"Trouble with the spark plug?" "Think not."

"How are your batteries?" "O. K."

"How's your commutator?" "Great."

"Perhaps your worm gear is clogged." "No, not at all."

"How any gasoline in your tank?" "Plenty."

"Tires seem all right?" "Never better."

"Well, maybe your vibrator isn't adjusting."

"That's all right."

"Have you looked at your carburetor?" "Yes."

"How about the cam shaft?" "Grand."

"Have you tightened your connecting rod, examined your clutches and gone over the differentials?" "Yes, yes."

The man in the touring car paused a moment and then looking at the stranger by the roadside, said at last: "What's the matter with that machine, of yours?"

"There isn't anything the matter with the machine, but since none of my wife has been in the house over there, kissing her sister's first baby good-bye. When she gets through if you are not more than 1,000 miles away and will leave your address, I will telegraph or cable you the glad news."

WISHART'S APPEAL

Not Sustained by Quaker City Club

The appeal of Spencer Wishart from the decision of the referee in the Fairmount Park race in the 600-inch class was based upon the assumption that the Mercedes car was disqualified on technical grounds. Referee Dunlop, however, in disqualifying the car made the statement that Wishart's action in leaving his mechanic by the roadside and proceeding on his way alone was a plain violation of the rules, for which there was no excuse and he was unanimously upheld in his decision by all the officials of the Quaker City Motor Club.

Every driver and every mechanic, who has had experience in racing under the rules of the A. A. A., has attended the Drivers' and Mechanics' meeting, which, according to the rules, is held the day prior to every race. It is well remembered that on these occasions, the referee and other officials invariably and in the strongest terms, warn drivers and mechanics that it is necessary for the mechanician to constantly keep a lookout to the rear for over-taking cars. Failure to do so renders car and driver subject to disqualification. When Wishart stopped on the Fairmount Park course to change a tire, he was but a few seconds ahead of Mulford; in his anxiety to maintain the lead, he jumped into his seat, threw in his gear and raced on his way before his mechanic could pick up his tools and jump into the car. He proceeded on the course with the rear of his car entirely unprotected as it is in another strict rule of the A. A. A. that a driver under no circumstances shall look to the rear.

The rules are very plain on this subject; they state that "each car must carry two persons seated side by side." It was a peculiar coincidence of the race that on the 15th lap and prior to the Wishart happening, that Mulford, in running a turn on Sweet Briar Hill, threw his mechanic from the car. The man was badly bruised and suffered great pain throughout the remainder of the race from a sprained wrist. Mulford did not proceed without his man, but came to a full stop, picked him up and proceeded on his way. The time which Mulford lost by his action—which he deemed proper not only to the interests of the race, but in order to comply with the rules—added to the time which Wishart gained through his violation of the rules, was sufficient to have placed him a winner ahead of the Mercedes.

The only provision by which a mechanic or driver may be changed during a race is provided for in rule 110, which reads as follows: "The driver and mechanic of a car may be changed, if need be, during the race, but only at the end of a lap and upon applying to the referee." After driving a part of the race with no mechanic whatever, which was a flagrant violation of the rules, Wishart picked up a man at the pit, and he committed a second violation by taking this man without the consent of the referee, which consent, however, would not have been given as it was not claimed that the Mercedes mechanic was injured or disabled—he was simply left by the roadside in Wishart's hurry to get away.

The Mercedes car should have been disqualified immediately and should not have been allowed to finish the race, but the pits at Fairmount Park were located over one hundred yards from the track when the referee was stationed, the fact that Wishart had been driving without a mechanic was not noted by them until he was on his last lap and it was then too late to take action in the matter.

THE GLIDDEN TOUR

After one of the most thrilling contests of motor cars ever held in this country, the Maxwell team of three, having awarded the Glidden trophy emblematic of the national touring championship at the finish of a 1454 mile journey at Jacksonville, Fla.

The first competition for the trophy was in 1905, and was won by a Pierce-Arrow; in 1906 Le Prieux-Arrow won again, with the Maxwell capturing the Denon trophy; the year 1907 saw a victory for the Buffalo Automobile club with two Thomas cars, two Pierce cars and a Packard.

The Buffalo team won again in 1908, while in 1909, the victory went to the Pierce-Arrow car. Last year the Maxwell team, the winner while the Maxwell team made the best time record.

FRECKLED GIRLS

I have just received a stock of WILSON'S FRECKLE CREAM, product of Wilson Freckle Cream Co., Charleston, S. C. It is FINE, is fragrant and harmless and positively removes freckles, tan and brown spots, bleaches dark faces light. Will not make hair grow. I can give you a guarantee that it will take off your freckles and tan. I will give you back your money. Come in, see and try it. THE JARS ARE LARGEST and two at most are sufficient. I send them by mail, if desired, price 40c. Wilson's Fair Skin Soap, 25c. Size 50c and $1.00. The Riker-Jaynes Drug Co.

Full Protection

There's a Great Difference Between Some Protection and Full Protection

NO BIG LABOR BILLS TO PAY

The bare fact that you put a roof on a building means that you want the contents of that building protected. But if you put on a poor roofing, you get only half protection. C. B. Coburn, a company of 63 Market street, say it costs very little more to put on the best roofing and get full protection.

The clean, quiet, easy way of laying Rex Roofing is in strong contrast to the smoke and snarl and muss of putting on a tar and gravel roof, or to the clutter and bang of laying tin and the contrast in labor, when the cost of one ordinary workman's time is compared with that of the crew of skilled mechanics necessary to lay other kinds.

Rex contains no paper and no tar; will not leak or crack or soften or shrink or stretch; is made of tough fibrous wool-felt, treated by a special process; keeps out the cold in winter, the heat in summer and the wet all ways. C. B. Coburn Co., of 63 Market street, will gladly quote you prices on Rex Flintkote Roofing. Write, or call on them, for descriptive circulars.

Automobile Directory

Buick Lowell Auto Corp. 81-91 Appleton St. Phone 3137.	Mercier's FAMOUS LIVERY, AUTO CITY Garage, 1911-12. Phone—Office and Garage, 1911-12. Residence, 1911-12.
Oakland Moody Bridge Garage Corner Pawtucket and Moody Sts.	Oldsmobile Lowell Automobile Corp. 81-91 Appleton St. Phone 3137.
Inter-State Frank D. Donovan, 388 Market St. Tel. 1249-2, or 268-2.	Overland M. S. Flondel, Davis Square.
International Auto Wagon, E. E. Smith Co. Agents for Lowell and vicinity, 43-45-47 Market St. Tel. connection.	Pitts Auto Supplies 7 HURD STREET Telephones 2952-1 and 2952-2.
Knox Moody Bridge Garage, Agents. Phone 2068.	Pratt-Elkhart "40" New Model F. Agent for Lowell and adjacent towns, P. E. Adams, 1296 Middlesex St., Lowell, Tel.
Maxwell MACKENZIE & BRYANT, Agents. 3024, 11 Howard St.	Reo OEO. F. WHITE, Agent for Lowell and vicinity. Supplies. North Chalmers, Mass. Tel. Cars at City Hall Garage.
Matheson-Six Merrimack Valley Garage, 648 Moody St., near Pawtucket St., Lawrence, Mass. Prop. Tel. 1276.	Schacht Car, Upton & Gilman, Agents for Lowell and vicinity. 587 Middlesex St. Tel. 972.

Not Sustained by Quaker City Club

The appeal of Spencer Wishart from the decision of the referee in the Fairmount Park race in the 600-inch class was based upon the assumption that the Mercedes car was disqualified on technical grounds. Referee Dunlop, however, in disqualifying the car made the statement that Wishart's action in leaving his mechanic by the roadside and proceeding on his way alone was a plain violation of the rules, for which there was no excuse and he was unanimously upheld in his decision by all the officials of the Quaker City Motor Club.

Every driver and every mechanic, who has had experience in racing under the rules of the A. A. A., has attended the Drivers' and Mechanics' meeting, which, according to the rules, is held the day prior to every race. It is well remembered that on these occasions, the referee and other officials invariably and in the strongest terms, warn drivers and mechanics that it is necessary for the mechanician to constantly keep a lookout to the rear for over-taking cars. Failure to do so renders car and driver subject to disqualification. When Wishart stopped on the Fairmount Park course to change a tire, he was but a few seconds ahead of Mulford; in his anxiety to maintain the lead, he jumped into his seat, threw in his gear and raced on his way before his mechanic could pick up his tools and jump into the car. He proceeded on the course with the rear of his car entirely unprotected as it is in another strict rule of the A. A. A. that a driver under no circumstances shall look to the rear.

The rules are very plain on this subject; they state that "each car must carry two persons seated side by side." It was a peculiar coincidence of the race that on the 15th lap and prior to the Wishart happening, that Mulford, in running a turn on Sweet Briar Hill, threw his mechanic from the car. The man was badly bruised and suffered great pain throughout the remainder of the race from a sprained wrist. Mulford did not proceed without his man, but came to a full stop, picked him up and proceeded on his way. The time which Mulford lost by his action—which he deemed proper not only to the interests of the race, but in order to comply with the rules—added to the time which Wishart gained through his violation of the rules, was sufficient to have placed him a winner ahead of the Mercedes.

The only provision by which a mechanic or driver may be changed during a race is provided for in rule 110, which reads as follows: "The driver and mechanic of a car may be changed, if need be, during the race, but only at the end of a lap and upon applying to the referee." After driving a part of the race with no mechanic whatever, which was a flagrant violation of the rules, Wishart picked up a man at the pit, and he committed a second violation by taking this man without the consent of the referee, which consent, however, would not have been given as it was not claimed that the Mercedes mechanic was injured or disabled—he was simply left by the roadside in Wishart's hurry to get away.

WISHART'S APPEAL

Not Sustained by Quaker City Club

The appeal of Spencer Wishart from the decision of the referee in the Fairmount Park race in the 600-inch class was based upon the assumption that the Mercedes car was disqualified on technical grounds. Referee Dunlop, however, in disqualifying the car made the statement that Wishart's action in leaving his mechanic by the roadside and proceeding on his way alone was a plain violation of the rules, for which there was no excuse and he was unanimously upheld in his decision by all the officials of the Quaker City Motor Club.

Every driver and every mechanic, who has had experience in racing under the rules of the A. A. A., has attended the Drivers' and Mechanics' meeting, which, according to the rules, is held the day prior to every race. It is well remembered that on these occasions, the referee and other officials invariably and in the strongest terms, warn drivers and mechanics that it is necessary for the mechanician to constantly keep a lookout to the rear for over-taking cars. Failure to do so renders car and driver subject to disqualification. When Wishart stopped on the Fairmount Park course to change a tire, he was but a few seconds ahead of Mulford; in his anxiety to maintain the lead, he jumped into his seat, threw in his gear and raced on his way before his mechanic could pick up his tools and jump into the car. He proceeded on the course with the rear of his car entirely unprotected as it is in another strict rule of the A. A. A. that a driver under no circumstances shall look to the rear.

The rules are very plain on this subject; they state that "each car must carry two persons seated side by side." It was a peculiar coincidence of the race that on the 15th lap and prior to the Wishart happening, that Mulford, in running a turn on Sweet Briar Hill, threw his mechanic from the car. The man was badly bruised and suffered great pain throughout the remainder of the race from a sprained wrist. Mulford did not proceed without his man, but came to a full stop, picked him up and proceeded on his way. The time which Mulford lost by his action—which he deemed proper not only to the interests of the race, but in order to comply with the rules—added to the time which Wishart gained through his violation of the rules, was sufficient to have placed him a winner ahead of the Mercedes.

The only provision by which a mechanic or driver may be changed during a race is provided for in rule 110, which reads as follows: "The driver and mechanic of a car may be changed, if need be, during the race, but only at the end of a lap and upon applying to the referee." After driving a part of the race with no mechanic whatever, which was a flagrant violation of the rules, Wishart picked up a man at the pit, and he committed a second violation by taking this man without the consent of the referee, which consent, however, would not have been given as it was not claimed that the Mercedes mechanic was injured or disabled—he was simply left by the roadside in Wishart's hurry to get away.

THE GLIDDEN TOUR

After one of the most thrilling contests of motor cars ever held in this country, the Maxwell team of three, having awarded the Glidden trophy emblematic of the national touring championship at the finish of a 1454 mile journey at Jacksonville, Fla.

The first competition for the trophy was in 1905, and was won by a Pierce-Arrow; in 1906 Le Prieux-Arrow won again, with the Maxwell capturing the Denon trophy; the year 1907 saw a victory for the Buffalo Automobile club with two Thomas cars, two Pierce cars and a Packard.

The Buffalo team won again in 1908, while in 1909, the victory went to the Pierce-Arrow car. Last year the Maxwell team, the winner while the Maxwell team made the best time record.

FRECKLED GIRLS

I have just received a stock of WILSON'S FRECKLE CREAM, product of Wilson Freckle Cream Co., Charleston, S. C. It is FINE, is fragrant and harmless and positively removes freckles, tan and brown spots, bleaches dark faces light. Will not make hair grow. I can give you a guarantee that it will take off your freckles and tan. I will give you back your money. Come in, see and try it. THE JARS ARE LARGEST and two at most are sufficient. I send them by mail, if desired, price 40c. Wilson's Fair Skin Soap, 25c. Size 50c and $1.00. The Riker-Jaynes Drug Co.

Full Protection

There's a Great Difference Between Some Protection and Full Protection

NO BIG LABOR BILLS TO PAY

The bare fact that you put a roof on a building means that you want the contents of that building protected. But if you put on a poor roofing, you get only half protection. C. B. Coburn, a company of 63 Market street, say it costs very little more to put on the best roofing and get full protection.

The clean, quiet, easy way of laying Rex Roofing is in strong contrast to the smoke and snarl and muss of putting on a tar and gravel roof, or to the clutter and bang of laying tin and the contrast in labor, when the cost of one ordinary workman's time is compared with that of the crew of skilled mechanics necessary to lay other kinds.

Rex contains no paper and no tar; will not leak or crack or soften or shrink or stretch; is made of tough fibrous wool-felt, treated by a special process; keeps out the cold in winter, the heat in summer and the wet all ways. C. B. Coburn Co., of 63 Market street, will gladly quote you prices on Rex Flintkote Roofing. Write, or call on them, for descriptive circulars.

Automobile Directory

Buick Lowell Auto Corp. 81-91 Appleton St. Phone 3137.	Mercier's FAMOUS LIVERY, AUTO CITY Garage, 1911-12. Phone—Office and Garage, 1911-12. Residence, 1911-12.
Oakland Moody Bridge Garage Corner Pawtucket and Moody Sts.	Oldsmobile Lowell Automobile Corp. 81-91 Appleton St. Phone 3137.
Inter-State Frank D. Donovan, 388 Market St. Tel. 1249-2, or 268-2.	Overland M. S. Flondel, Davis Square.
International Auto Wagon, E. E. Smith Co. Agents for Lowell and vicinity, 43-45-47 Market St. Tel. connection.	Pitts Auto Supplies 7 HURD STREET Telephones 2952-1 and 2952-2.
Knox Moody Bridge Garage, Agents. Phone 2068.	Pratt-Elkhart "40" New Model F. Agent for Lowell and adjacent towns, P. E. Adams, 1296 Middlesex St., Lowell, Tel.
Maxwell MACKENZIE & BRYANT, Agents. 3024, 11 Howard St.	Reo OEO. F. WHITE, Agent for Lowell and vicinity. Supplies. North Chalmers, Mass. Tel. Cars at City Hall Garage.
Matheson-Six Merrimack Valley Garage, 648 Moody St., near Pawtucket St., Lawrence, Mass. Prop. Tel. 1276.	Schacht Car, Upton & Gilman, Agents for Lowell and vicinity. 587 Middlesex St. Tel. 972.

WISHART'S APPEAL

Not Sustained by Quaker City Club

The appeal of Spencer Wishart from the decision of the referee in the Fairmount Park race in the 600-inch class was based upon the assumption that the Mercedes car was disqualified on technical grounds. Referee Dunlop, however, in disqualifying the car made the statement that Wishart's action in leaving his mechanic by the roadside and proceeding on his way alone was a plain violation of the rules, for which there was no excuse and he was unanimously upheld in his decision by all the officials of the Quaker City Motor Club.

Every driver and every mechanic, who has had experience in racing under the rules of the A. A. A., has attended the Drivers' and Mechanics' meeting, which, according to the rules, is held the day prior to every race. It is well remembered that on these occasions, the referee and other officials invariably and in the strongest terms, warn drivers and mechanics that it is necessary for the mechanician to constantly keep a lookout to the rear for over-taking cars. Failure to do so renders car and driver subject to disqualification. When Wishart stopped on the Fairmount Park course to change a tire, he was but a few seconds ahead of Mulford; in his anxiety to maintain the lead, he jumped into his seat, threw in his gear and raced on his way before his mechanic could pick up his tools and jump into the car. He proceeded on the course with the rear of his car entirely unprotected as it is in another strict rule of the A. A. A. that a driver under no circumstances shall look to the rear.

The rules are very plain on this subject; they state that "each car must carry two persons seated side by side." It was a peculiar coincidence of the race that on the 15th lap and prior to the Wishart happening, that Mulford, in running a turn on Sweet Briar Hill, threw his mechanic from the car. The man was badly bruised and suffered great pain throughout the remainder of the race from a sprained wrist. Mulford did not proceed without his man, but came to a full stop, picked him up and proceeded on his way. The time which Mulford lost by his action—which he deemed proper not only to the interests of the race, but in order to comply with the rules—added to the time which Wishart gained through his violation of the rules, was sufficient to have placed him a winner ahead of the Mercedes.

The only provision by which a mechanic or driver may be changed during a race is provided for in rule 110, which reads as follows: "The driver and mechanic of a car may be changed, if need be, during the race, but only at the end of a lap and upon applying to the referee." After driving a part of the race with no mechanic whatever, which was a flagrant violation of the rules, Wishart picked up a man at the pit, and he committed a second violation by taking this man without the consent of the referee, which consent, however, would not have been given as it was not claimed that the Mercedes mechanic was injured or disabled—he was simply left by the roadside in Wishart's hurry to get away.

THE GLIDDEN TOUR

After one of the most thrilling contests of motor cars ever held in this country, the Maxwell team of three, having awarded the Glidden trophy emblematic of the national touring championship at the finish of a 1454 mile journey at Jacksonville, Fla.

The first competition for the trophy was in 1905, and was won by a Pierce-Arrow; in 1906 Le Prieux-Arrow won again, with the Maxwell capturing the Denon trophy; the year 1907 saw a victory for the Buffalo Automobile club with two Thomas cars, two Pierce cars and a Packard.

The Buffalo team won again in 1908, while in 1909, the victory went to the Pierce-Arrow car. Last year the Maxwell team, the winner while the Maxwell team made the best time record.

FRECKLED GIRLS

I have just received a stock of WILSON'S FRECKLE CREAM, product of Wilson Freckle Cream Co., Charleston, S. C. It is FINE, is fragrant and harmless and positively removes freckles, tan and brown spots, bleaches dark faces light. Will not make hair grow. I can give you a guarantee that it will take off your freckles and tan. I will give you back your money. Come in, see and try it. THE JARS ARE LARGEST and two at most are sufficient. I send them by mail, if desired, price 40c. Wilson's Fair Skin Soap, 25c. Size 50c and $1.00. The Riker-Jaynes Drug Co.

Full Protection

There's a Great Difference Between Some Protection and Full Protection

NO BIG LABOR BILLS TO PAY

The bare fact that you put a roof on a building means that you want the contents of that building protected. But if you put on a poor roofing, you get only half protection. C. B. Coburn, a company of 63 Market street, say it costs very little more to put on the best roofing and get full protection.

The clean, quiet, easy way of laying Rex Roofing is in strong contrast to the smoke and snarl and muss of putting on a tar and gravel roof, or to the clutter and bang of laying tin and the contrast in labor, when the cost of one ordinary workman's time is compared with that of the crew of skilled mechanics necessary to lay other kinds.

Rex contains no paper and no tar; will not leak or crack or soften or shrink or stretch; is made of tough fibrous wool-felt, treated by a special process; keeps out the cold in winter, the heat in summer and the wet all ways. C. B. Coburn Co., of 63 Market street, will gladly quote you prices on Rex Flintkote Roofing. Write, or call on them, for descriptive circulars.

Full Protection

There's a Great Difference Between Some Protection and Full Protection

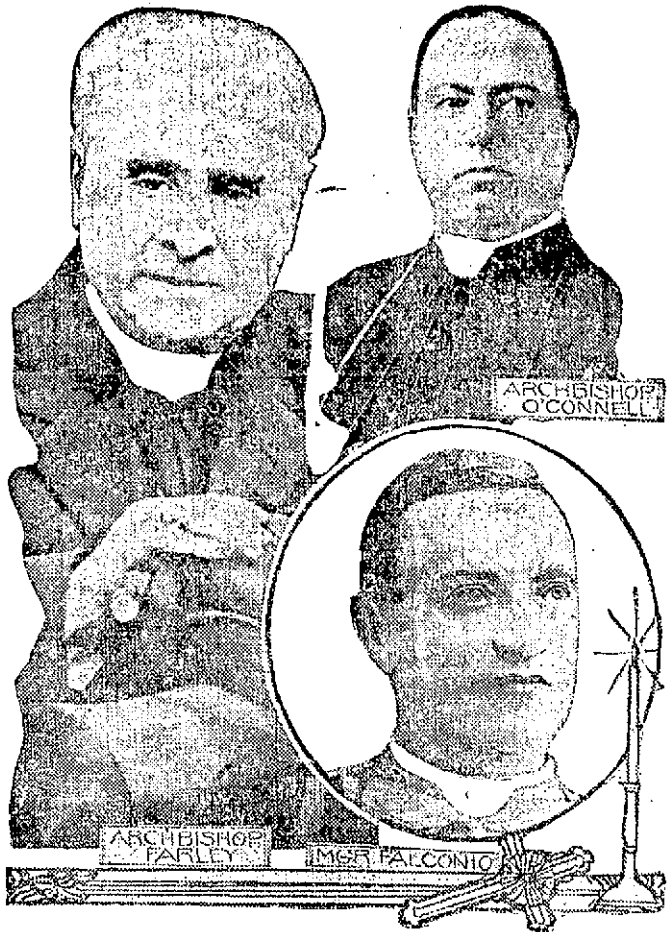

NO BIG LABOR BILLS TO PAY

The bare fact that you put a roof on a building means that you want the contents of that building protected. But if you put on a poor roofing, you get only half protection. C. B. Coburn, a company of 63 Market street, say it costs very little more to put on the best roofing and get full protection.

The clean, quiet, easy way of laying Rex Roofing is in strong contrast to the smoke and snarl and muss of putting on a tar and gravel roof, or to the clutter and bang of laying tin and the contrast in labor, when the cost of one ordinary workman's time is compared with that of the crew of skilled mechanics necessary to lay other kinds.

Rex contains no paper and no tar; will not leak or crack or soften or shrink or stretch; is made of tough fibrous wool-felt, treated by a special process; keeps out the cold in winter, the heat in summer and the wet all ways. C. B. Coburn Co., of 63 Market street, will gladly quote you prices on Rex Flintkote Roofing. Write, or call on them, for descriptive circulars.

ARCHBISHOP O'CONNELL

Says His Elevation Honors Every New England Catholic

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Archbishop O'Connell last evening issued the following statement:

"Today I have received official communication from the cardinal secretary of state, stating that our Holy Father, Pius X, will raise me to the dignity of the cardinalate, at the coming consistory, Nov. 27.

"Profoundly sensible of this great testimonial of paternal affection on the part of His Holiness towards me, my first thought is one of immeasurable gratitude toward the Vicar of Christ, who from the very beginning of his pontificate has, notwithstanding my own unworthiness, given me renewed and constant tokens of his esteem and affection.

"Until now I have been forced on account of the delicacy of the situation to keep silence. But while my lips were sealed my ears and eyes were wide open and the beautiful and touching words that have been written and said of me and my poor efforts to do something for God and my own dear country and city, have touched me most profoundly.

"If I have done aught by word and work in the past to merit even a tenth of such touching devotion and affection, I am heartily grateful to God.

"With this greater honor comes greater responsibilities and larger duties to the church, to the Holy See, and to all America. With a heart encouraged by the love and trust of my countrymen, I shall, with God's grace, endeavor in my own poor measure to rise to the new duties which confront me.

"In this moment of joy for the whole diocese and New England I feel that every Catholic appreciates that in my humble person the Holy Father has honored every single one of them, and that they in turn are correspondingly grateful to Pius X.

"I wish here to express my deep gratitude to the press for the dignified and delicate manner in which this matter has been conducted, and to all I return my most fervent and sincere thanks and a hearty benediction."

Remarkable Statement

MADE BY W. ROMILLARD ABOUT NEW TONIC

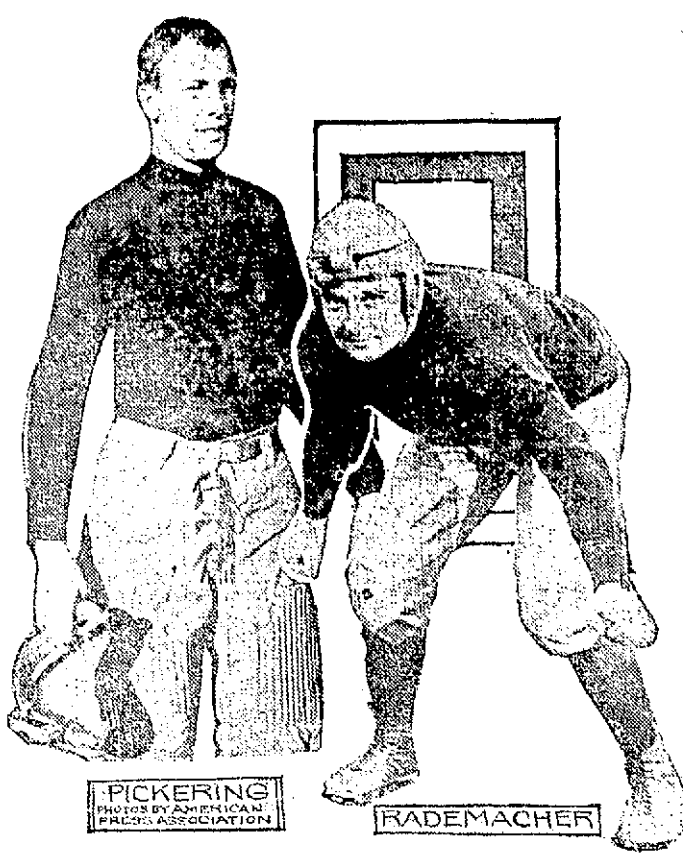

"Yes, I'm the man that new tonic helped so much," said W. D. Romillard, No. 93 Worthen street, city, recently. "I have not been well for a long time. I continued Mr. Romillard, 'and that medicine was the only thing that would really benefit me. I was all run down, very nervous and weak, and often the slightest exertion or excitement would cause a dizziness that would last for a considerable time.

"One bottle of the tonic, 'Tona Vita' has made a big change in me. I now eat almost anything, sleep soundly, and I get up mornings feeling like I've gotten the right kind of rest. I have gained rapidly in weight and feel strong and vigorous again. I can truthfully say 'Tona Vita' is the best medicine I have ever taken and I recommend it to those who need such a remedy."

Hundreds of Lowell people are now taking 'Tona Vita' and scores of testimonials of the same kind are being received by the specialists who are here explaining the nature of the preparation and demonstrating its remarkable value as a vegetable tonic.

"Any man or woman in Lowell who is a victim of nervous debility is making a grave mistake if they do not try this medicine," said one of these specialists Saturday afternoon. "In the first place if it does not restore them to health, continued this specialist, 'it is certainly worth the trouble to come and get the tonic when it means constant poor health if they don't. The symptoms of nervous debility are often mistaken for something else by those who do not know the nature of this sadly prevalent condition, but there is no mistake in debility for anything else by those who understand it. The following symptoms are characteristic of this trouble: Lassitude, nervousness, timidity, depression of spirits, little vitality, poor circulation, red feet, headaches, weak back, poor digestion and bowel trouble. These are unmistakable symptoms of nervous debility and are the result of a lack of people, especially in the larger cities, who are afflicted. 'Tona Vita' acts like a true specific and from the very first moment the medicine is taken, improvement is rapid.

The specialists may be found each day between the hours of 9 a. m. and 8 p. m. at the Hall & Lyon drug store, where they will meet all callers and explain the nature of the new preparation.

CAPTAINS OF THE MINNESOTA AND THE CHICAGO ELEVENS

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Nothing but a victory over Minnesota will satisfy Chicago football players and rooters this year, for they feel they have one of the strongest elevens in years. The two teams are to clash in Minneapolis Nov. 4. The surprising reversal of form shown by the Maroons against Illinois recently gave Chicago men hopes for a victory over Minnesota. From a team that on Sept. 29 looked like the poorest squad that ever had

Wednesday, Nov. 1, 1911

Double 2x Stamps
All Day
Special Cut Prices For the Occasion

BEST FANCY SUGAR-CURED SMOKED SHOULDER, Lb. 93/4c
These are as fancy a lot as you could desire.
BEST FANCY SALT SPARE RIBS, Lb. 71/2c
These are single sheets and are the best cured.

CALNAN & GUTHRIE Cut-Price Grocers

113-115 Gorham St., Cor. Winter St. Tel. 2936
513 Merrimack St., Near Tremont St. Tel. 2170

200 "S. & H." Stamps FREE with every Barrel of Flour, any brand.
25 "S. & H." Stamps FREE with every Bag of Flour, any brand.
100 "S. & H." Stamps FREE with 1 lb. Best Tea or 1 lb. Best Baking Powder.

60 "S. & H." STAMPS WITH THE FOLLOWING ORDER FOR 35c—

1 Can Pure Potash or Lye.....	10c	Out out this Coupon and bring it in.
1 Bottle Best Bluing.....	10c
1 Can Big "10" Cleaner.....	5c
15c Bot. Best Worcestershire Sauce	10c
	35c

60 "S. & H." Stamps FREE With the Above Useful Order.

BEST NATIVE (HARD-SHELL) SQUASH, Lb. 1c
BEST NATIVE CABBAGE (solid heads), Lb. 1c
3 LBS. BEST "SUNSHINE" BISCUITS 25c

ALL GOODS GUARANTEED. PROMPT DELIVERY

THE TURKISH TROOPS Have Retaken Two Forts at Tripoli After Hard Battle

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 31.—The Turkish troops with their Arab allies have retaken two forts at Tripoli and forced the Italians to entrench themselves within the city after abandoning large quantities of guns, rifles, ammunition and provisions, according to a telegram from Bahadur Bey, the deputy for Saloniki, who is now at Tripoli.

The message, which was received by the Tamin at last midnight, adds: "The Italians were unable to resist the fierce assaults of the Arabs and were compelled to retreat.

"The Italians still hold three forts. The Arabs are displaying remarkable heroism and hope to recapture the city."

The message is undated.

THE ITALIANS

EXPECT TO HAVE ARMY OF 100,000 MEN IN TRIPOLI

NAPLES, Oct. 31.—Further reinforcements for the Italian troops in Tripoli are being assembled here. The movement is conducted with such secrecy that the officers do not know the strength of their commands or the date of their departure.

From an authoritative source it was learned that the present reinforcements will form another army division totaling about 15,000 men. Judging from the arrangements made in this city, which is the headquarters of the commissariat for the colonies a further expedition of troops will follow in the near future as steamers chartered as transports are still retained.

It is expected that before the first of the year Italy will have an army of occupation in Tripoli numbering 100,000 men.

IT'S HALLOWEEN

The Fairies Will be Abroad Tonight

This is Halloween, the eve of the feast of All-Hallows or All Saints' and will be duly and weirdly observed by the younger generation tonight.

From almost beyond the memory of mortal men the fairies have been honored on Halloween, and even in this practical matter-of-fact age there is none so matter of fact that will not agree that they are still in the air on Halloween night. Tonight by many a fireside there will be all kinds of revelry in honor of the night, the ducking for apples and numerous other pranks. In Scotland in days gone by and perhaps today the night was the night on which the youth and maiden recourse to the fairies for a straight tip as to who would be the partner of their joys and sorrows in years to come. In Ireland "collops" may be a word of obligation in a big dish of mashed potatoes in which was hidden a wedding ring. The member of the family finding the ring in his or her portion was set down to be the next one to marry, and marry each one did without fail for the fairies were always right on Halloween night. Could it get into the game tonight with a vengeance and many a gallant swain will aid the fairies in foretelling the future for some gentle maid backing down the cellar stairs while gazing into a mirror over her left shoulder, or divining with chestnuts, or rolling a skein of yarn through a dark window, at a jolly, mysterious, shivery Halloween party.

The practice began with the Druids, hundreds of years ago, and All Saints' Day, Nov. 1, became a holy day under Pope Gregory in the fifth century. All Saints' day is a holy day of obligation in the Catholic church and is followed by All Souls' Day, a day of devotion in memory of the departed.

There will be many Halloween parties throughout Lowell this evening at which the time-honored games will be played and good cheer prevail.

FIREMAN BERNIER RECOVERING

The many friends of Fireman Joseph Bernier of Hose Company 12, West Sixth street, will be pleased to learn that he is gradually recovering from the injuries received a few days ago while answering an alarm from box 52.

At the first stroke of the bell, the firemen were upstairs and they made a rush for the pole to reach the wagon in the quickest time possible. Bernier happened to be the second man in line and he made a swing for the pole, reaching it about the same time as

Spent a Quiet Day

Despite the great honor bestowed upon Archbishop O'Connell yesterday in the official announcement of his elevation, the usual daily routine of the archiepiscopal residence to be carried out, his grace attending to his usual duties, at the same time finding time to receive many who called to extend their congratulations. Late in the day, however, the stress of work and his preparations for his departure for Rome, the cardinal-designate was forced to deny himself to practically all who called at his residence.

His grace was the same courteous, gracious gentleman he has always been, but outside the official statement, Archbishop O'Connell would not publicly discuss his notification. To a strong personal friend, who called at the archiepiscopal residence to congratulate him, Archbishop O'Connell said:

"The signal honor was wholly, wholly unexpected. That it is extremely gratifying must be evident. I did not care to discuss the matter until it was officially confirmed, I am indeed pleased."

As the representative of his grace, Fr. James P. E. O'Connell, the archbishop's secretary, said that the Archbishop O'Connell has received congratulatory messages from all over the world, including one from his eminence, Cardinal Logue of Ireland, Bishop Kennedy, rector of the American college at Rome, prominent ecclesiastics and heads of ecclesiastical institutions and colleges and students in Rome. He is highly pleased and gratified with the beautiful sentiments expressed in the Boston papers and the attitude they have taken toward his elevation according to the news from Rome.

Will Live in Boston

What makes Archbishop O'Connell's elevation doubly pleasing not only to his own people but the general public is the fact Boston will be his residence after he has been invested.

According to advices from Rome, Archbishop O'Connell will continue as spiritual head of the archdiocese of Boston and direct the church's affairs as he has in the past.

On Nov. 27 Archbishop O'Connell will be elevated. The ceremony will take place in the Hall of Consistory, near the eternally famed Sistine Chapel.

The ceremony is described as one of the most solemn and gorgeous in the church. After the cardinals-designate have assembled, the pope and his suite of prelates arrive. The proclamation announcing the elevation of the designated will be made by the pope. Thereafter the elevated prelates will rank as princes of the church.

A brilliant ceremony will take place in the Boston cathedral when Cardinal O'Connell returns after the investiture. On that day the cardinal's biretta will be bestowed on him. He will return to Boston with the papal legate and one of the Noble Guard of the Vatican, in whose care the biretta will be entrusted.

The ceremonial of guarding the cardinal's biretta will most likely be entrusted to Major General Tamworth. Major Tamworth accompanied Cardinal Vanutelli to America, to the Eucharistic congress at Montreal. He is private chamberlain to the pope. He is also an intimate friend of Archbishop O'Connell.

The red hat conferred is seldom worn. It is of wide dimensions and the crown is slightly raised. A series of tassels, increasing in number as they ascend, falls from the ends.

The cord on which the tassels hang

Friendship begins with acquaintance.

All Fels-Naptha wants is an introduction and it will become your boon companion in laundry and kitchen.

We are advertising to get Fels-Naptha that introduction into new homes.

Then we depend on the soap itself to keep it there.

If Fels-Naptha wouldn't do what we claim; if it wouldn't wash clothes quicker and better in cool or lukewarm water without hard labor or boiling; if it wouldn't save time, work, fuel and health—would over a million women use it every washday?

Not much.

But Fels-Naptha will do these things and more; has done them and is doing them for more and more progressive women every year.

Follow the easy directions on the back of the red and green wrapper.

The cord on which the tassels hang

GOOD JUDGMENT SUGGESTS— GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

Lowell, Tuesday, Oct. 31, 1911

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

LAST OF OCTOBER BARGAINS

FINE QUALITY MANNISH SUITINGS—
$1.50 and $1.75 grades. Only, a yard..... $1.25

BLACK SERGES, CHEVIOTS, WORSTEDS, SUITINGS AND PANAMAS—

Lengths, 2 to 6 yards. Regular prices $1.25 and $2.00. Only, a yard..... 79c

PALMER STREET RIGHT AISLE

In Cotton Flannel

DOMET FLANNEL REMNANTS AT LOW PRICES—

Unbleached Domet Flannel, nice soft fleeced, only, yard.... 4c

BLEACHED DOMETS—

Bleached Domet Flannel, nice soft fleeced, good quality. 8c value, at, yard..... 6 1/2c

BLEACHED DOMET—

Two cases of good Domet Flannel in long remnants, nice and warm quality for under-garments, 10c value, at, yard.... 8c

TWILL DOMET—

Remnants of heavy twill domet, thickly fleeced and warm, 12 1-2c value, at, yard..... 10c

YARD WIDE DOMET—

Full yard wide domet flannel, bleached, good fine quality and nice woolly fleece, 12 1-2c value, at, yard..... 10c

TWILL OUTING FLANNEL—

Heavy twill outing flannel in large remnants of 10 to 20 yards, light and dark, in stripes and checks, 12 1-2c value, at, yard..... 8c

FULL LINE OF WOOL FLANNEL—

Our stock of wool flannel is complete, white, gray and red, in all widths, prices from, yard..... 20c to 50c

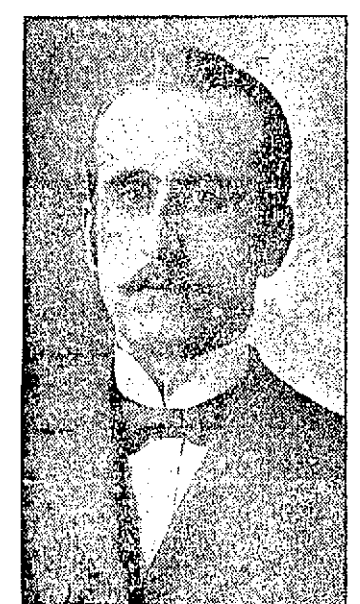

PALMER STREET BASEMENT

A ROUSING MEETING

Continued

Then they were bottled up and preserved and turned loose again when the Lynn charter was under discussion while now you are getting them in Lowell. Down in Lynn, the men who were out shouting that under the new charter you could not get good men to run for office, were the first to announce their candidacies when the new charter went through, and so it will be in Lowell. Let me outline the methods of campaign adopted by the opposition in Lynn and see if you recognize them: The opponents would go to the business men and tell him that under the new charter, only labor leaders would get in office. Now while I believe in organized labor and its representation in the government, I would not like to see a commission composed entirely of labor men. Then the same men would appear before a labor organization and in all seriousness declare that under the new charter the commission would be made up of five business men while the laboring interests would be without representation. They'd go to the license men and tell him that under the new charter the city would be a scheme of the no-license party to keep the city in the "dry" column while they would argue to the temperance advocates that the new charter was only a bid on the part of the license people to restore the city to the "wet" column.

Let's see what we did get in Lynn: Our commission consists of a mayor who is in the coal business, while the members of the commission consist of a printer, an expert paver, a railroad builder and a former inspector of buildings. Down in Cambridge the objection to the charter was that it was the work of "high brow" men.

DR. JOSEPH B. LAMOREUX, Who Presided at the Charter Meeting

just what is meant by "high brow" is a matter of conjecture, I suppose the term has found its way to Lowell. This sort of charter should be thought out along one line. Are you going to be able to administer the business affairs of your city in a successful manner yourself? The politician, and it is the politicians in all the cities who have led the opposition to the new charter, idea carefully as certain wherein you favor the charter and then argues to you that the new charter is going to operate directly against that feature. The politician is opposed to the charter because its adoption means that you are going to conduct the business affairs of the city yourself rather than allow them to be conducted as formerly by the politician and the easy job man. Now here is the point with the new charter. The official upon taking the oath of office knows at the start that he must make good or else be recalled. That recall is there to protect the city. Without it the commission form of government would not be at all as desirable. The recall, however, does not mean, as may be claimed by the opponents of the charter that an office holder is to be subject to the whims of a handful of voters. It is human to err and to pull a man out of office for every slight mistake made by him would be an injustice. Such is not the purpose of the recall. But when you see an official misconducting himself in a manner that leaves no doubt in your mind that you have recourse to your recall and he is removed. You don't have to wait until he has become criminally corrupt. But when his mismanagement, whether through inability or a more serious cause, becomes apparent you have the power in your hands to check him before he can do further harm. In Lynn we took up the charter along with a whole lot of old debts. It is the experience of all cities changing their form of government and I suppose Lowell is no better off. In Lynn we used to issue bonds to pay the running expenses of the city but this is now done away with. This year we have kept all of our street department employees at work all year something we never did before under the old form, and with what result? Our department still has a surplus of $15,000. Our park department was burdened with a large debt but not only has that debt been paid off but there is a surplus in the treasury. Our street department has done more work on streets and sidewalks than ever before and the city did all its own work. We also built a new stable, a tuberculosis hospital and a new school, besides making other needed improvements and with all of this we reduced the tax rate 60 cents per thousand this year. We have finally solved our water problem which has given us great concern for years and I might add that one corporation this year paid taxes on a basis of $300,000 so as to make the tax levy lighter on the small property owner. That has been our experience under our new charter and I don't think it is necessary to state that Lynn's charter is a success. The fact is undeniable.

Dr. Frank McAvinue

Dr. Frank McAvinue, a member of the charter committee of sixty, was the next speaker and he spoke in part as follows: You have heard from the preceding speakers what government by way of mission means. The word mission, to my mind, is unfortunately used. There are different kinds of commissions and some commissions are not what they should be. To the minds of some people commissions and trusts are synonymous, which of course is not so at least in the matter of municipalities. Commissions elected by the people, it takes hundreds of thousands of dollars to run the city of Lowell and the question before us now is, Can we run the city to better advantage under the new charter than under the old? If the public would only so by the charter of justice to read it through, I feel confident that many converts to it would be made. Of all the men who have argued against it with me I have not met one who has read it through. Many have asked me my opinion of the charter and I haven't been slow in giving it. If they have disagreed with me I have asked them if they read it and invariably they have replied negatively. Now how can a man go to the polls and vote intelligently on a matter that he has never even read over? In justice to the committee at least the public should read the draft through. On the other hand few men who are clamoring for the retention of the old charter have ever read it through. But you have seen the results of the old charter on every hand. You have seen one dreadful result in the way in which the taxpayers' money has been spent. Under the new charter the heads of departments cannot waste the city's money. The municipal council as a whole will say what is to be done. The official who will spend beyond his appropriation will find himself liable to be fined $1000 or imprisoned. Thus the city will not be run into debt and there will be no annual request for more money to place out appropriations. I am informed that the city's appropriation under the present system are honeycombed with politics.

In the new charter you will find that the school board will be reduced from nine to five members. The benefits from that alone would be sufficient for you to vote for it. The advantage of a school board elected at large is great. We cannot look too closely to our school affairs for the boys of today will be the citizens of tomorrow. The members of the school board should have qualifications, educational and otherwise, that none of them under the present system have. By the election at large of the members of the school board men possessed of those qualifications may be elected.

One of the ridiculous arguments of the opponents of the charter is that it will "disfranchise" the people. Nothing was ever further from the truth for it will bring the power directly to the people. I am living in one section of the city for 16 years and in all that time I have never voted for a member of the school board. I have voted every year, but never for a successful candidate for the school board. I have voted every year for three candidates for the common council, but not over once or twice have I voted for a member of the common council. Under the old system, under ward lines and party designation, I have been unable to vote for a winner and I consider that disfranchisement. Under the new charter I will have an even chance with every other voter. The new charter will bring the power down so that all will have an opportunity. The recall feature of the charter should appeal favorably to every man for it means that the head of the department must be in office or the humblest citizen can call him to account. Criticism has been made of the recall to the effect that the percentage of voters required to make it effective is not what it should be. Five per cent. of the voters would be too small for under such a condition an office holder not necessarily unworthy might be kept fighting to hold his position all the time. Twenty per cent. is about the right proportion. The recall is the people's safeguard.

William N. Osgood

The concluding speaker was William N. Osgood, who has made a deep study of the subject of charters. Mr. Osgood spoke briefly on account of the lateness of the hour, saying in part: It would appear that in the present campaign modern David has come forth in the person of His Honor Mayor Meehan loaded down with arguments to hurl at all comers. I don't know the source from which he gets his facts, but I know that some of them are not in accordance with the real facts of the case and I know that all who have tried the new form of government are in favor of it. Better results have been obtained and better wages paid into the bargain. The new charter is not an experiment but has been tried successfully in 162 cities. Mayor Meehan has no right to attack the charter in his official capacity as mayor of the city. He says that the charter means a government of the minority, a government by the few. This is not so, for even if the minority officials should attempt to entrench themselves in power they have the power to recall them. Why is it that the mayor makes no reference to the recall or the referendum? His Honor is silent on these two features of the new charter and yet they are the great safeguards that will protect the people. If you only suspect the commission of doing wrong you can circulate a petition and remove them. It is a government of the many and not of the few. The present government is the government by the few. Direct legislation and the recall are government by the many and nothing else and your new charter provides for both. For 20 years I have been advocating direct legislation and I think much of good government as I may say. He says that all work will be let out by contract for labor. The municipal council can never let out a contract for labor to come from elsewhere because the recall will stop them. How long would the businessmen of Lowell and organized labor stand for the importing of foreign labor to this city to take the place of citizens. The standard of wages of the city of Lowell should be kept up at all times. The city is a public and not a private corporation and it should pay higher wages than the private corporation. No man who would advocate the policy of contract labor could remain in office under the new charter. We are also told by the mayor that the public service corporations are behind this new charter, and he attempts to have you believe that the new charter may mean the Taylor system of what is known as scientific management. The private corporation is organized and conducted for the making of money paid in dividends to the men who supply the money to run the corporation. The municipal corporation is a public business corporation. The moment that the purposes and objects of the public corporation become different from those of the private corporation it must adopt different methods. The private corporations return the money to their stockholders. In the case of the city the dividends paid to the taxpayer, who is the stockholder, is in parks, streets, sewers, lights and schools, and other public utilities. Scientific management is not intended for any public corporation. It cannot be applied to a city. It is scientific in its unfeeling, unfeeling, unfeeling and values them only for their capacity for work. It is needless for me to ask you if scientific management could be applied to our city under any form of charter.

The new charter is the part of a great movement throughout the country. It is being advocated by great men of all parties. It has the endorsement of progressive thinkers. Bryan, Wilson, Garfield, Pinchot, Cummins, La Follette, yes and Theodore Roosevelt have sanctioned this form of government for municipalities for it means a government by the many and not by the few.

Relative to the mayor's claim that the public service corporations are behind the new charter let us take the case of Des Moines. For years John MacVicker of that city opposed the public service corporations and could not be elected to office. Once the new charter was adopted he was elected high and dry and since has made an eminently useful official. The new charter means government by the many, by the people, and the public is safeguarded by the direct legislation and the recall by strict responsibility by publicity and by the use of the weapons of the people against abuses. We have seen the results of government by the few under the present system; give us government by the many, the real form of government.

At the conclusion of Mr. Osgood's remarks Chairman Lamoureux stated that the speakers would answer any questions, but none were asked and the meeting adjourned.

Hon. John M. Head

Hon. John M. Head, ex-mayor of Nashville, Tenn., and a student of the commission form of government, made the following remarks:

It affords me very great pleasure to be permitted to say a word in favor of a movement which has for its object the reorganization of our city government into the hands of the people themselves. The delusion under which we have been laboring for so long that we were living under a really representative form of government, is at last being dispelled, and we are beginning to realize that we have been living purely under a government of "political bosses," in which the people themselves had little or nothing to say. This widespread movement for better and more efficient municipal government, is but the beginning of a new movement which means that the power of the political boss is broken, that the domination of the party machine is ended, and that the people themselves have determined to take their government into their own hands. It is not to be expected that any form of government can be perfect, but if we have success unless the people themselves are first capable of self government and will then take sufficient interest in their own affairs to make that government responsive to their wishes.

Neither is it to be supposed that the people are to be placed in a position to make and unmake their own laws, select and recall their own public servants that no mistakes will be made. Of course mistakes will be made, but there is no other tribunal known to the forms of government where the people can redress wrongs or persist in their mistakes than that of the people themselves, and there is no other tribunal which will so readily correct its own mistakes if it is given an opportunity to do so.

And that is exactly what I understand is the object sought, a government in which the people are to be placed which you are seeking to have adopted. When we begin to realize that city government is largely a business enterprise instituted for the purpose of providing those local conveniences which the county, state and nation will begin to have that business transacted in an orderly, sensible manner as any other big business enterprise is undertaken and carried out—that is, by the concentration of power in the hands of a few well selected individuals, with the right to select and recall them as agents or representatives whenever they prove incompetent or dishonest, just as you would in any other business venture.

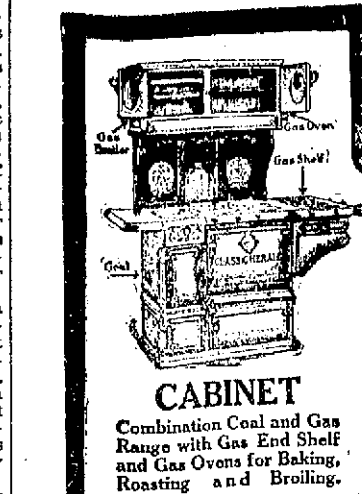

That is all that is meant by the initiative, the referendum and the recall, about the proportion of voters who do not wish to have their actions passed upon by the people.

In a word, what are some of the more important features of your proposed charter?

In the first place, your governing body, including both legislative and executive and judicial powers, is reduced to a board of four aldermen and a mayor, and a school committee, all elected from the city at large. You have selected a board of directors to transact the business of the city, you have concentrated power in the hands of a few men, you have made them responsible for the conduct of your business, and you know where to go and who to blame if things do go right. I grant you that this is all wrong unless it is coupled with that other power which is reserved in the charter, to approve or reject what they do, to retire them from office if you find them corrupt, inefficient, incompetent, and also force them to enact such legislation as you do want and which they fail or refuse to enact. But when coupled with these provisions, you have the nearest perfect form of municipal government which has yet been devised.

In the next place, you have done away with the caucus or convention and substituted a preliminary election freed from the control of the political boss and have allowed any citizen who desires to do so, to become a candidate for any office with an equal chance to receive the support of his fellowmen without having to be labeled as party candidate or elected by a party boss who will control his political action while in office. It is true a party organization may still select its candidate in the preliminary election, but the people still have another opportunity at the regular election of combining against that candidate and electing a man of their own choice. The trouble has been that we are not in fact governed by the men actually in office but by some party boss who holds no legal office but who pulls the wires and makes his puppets dance. The preliminary election provided for by your charter will go a long way towards breaking up the party governing the power and influence of this constitutional official—the boss behind the scenes.

There are several other features of your proposed charter which are especially to be commended—one of which is the publicity it requires of all the proceedings of the council, and Combination Coal and Gas Range with Gas End Shelf and Gas Ovens for Baking, Roasting and Broiling.

Herald Ranges

The Best Bakers

Sold by Leading Furniture and Stove Dealers.

SCHUTZFURNITURE CO.

328-334 Middlesex Street

monthly publications of the financial condition of the city; the prohibition under severe penalties for officials to be directly or indirectly interested in any public contract or improvement, the requirement of advertisements for bids on all contracts or supplies in excess of $500, and the absence of any requirement to award contracts to the lowest bidder; and finally, the appointment of heads of departments during good behavior, but with power in the council to remove any one of them at any time under the laws regulating the civil service "for such cause as it shall deem sufficient." These provisions concentrate power, fix responsibility, and enable officials to be removed at all times to the satisfaction of the people themselves. Under this system the people have in their power to correct abuses at any time, and they will have just as good government as they are capable of maintaining, and no better.

Under the present system, they will have just as good government, and no better, than the political boss is willing to give them, and they have no practical means of ridding themselves of a dishonest or incompetent stool figure who has been put in office by the boss, until the expiration of the term of office for which he has been chosen.

This change in the plan of government must necessarily have many very great advantages over the present system. In the first place, it will make the officials more careful as to what they do while in office, it will cause the people to watch more closely what their officials do, it will educate the people as to their political rights and duties, and it will practically eliminate the power of the political boss as the go-between to deliver valuable franchises for a consideration without bond, and it will have lost its terror when once the power is restored to the people to remove public officials at any time, to vote unfavorable legislation and enact such other legislation as a majority of the people desire.

I may be wrong, but I am one of those individuals who believe so strongly in the right of the city, and the ability of the people to govern themselves that I believe the people have the right to do wrong, that they have the right to make mistakes, provided they are given an opportunity to correct them, and that right or wrong, good or bad, they should be permitted and even forced to govern themselves.

Local self-government in all matters of a purely local nature is the foundation stone upon which our whole theories of government is founded, and it is in an honest effort to put this principle in practical operation that your new charter is proposed.

WILKINSON—Died in this city, Oct. 31, at his home, 95 Fourth street, William Wilkinson, aged 72 years, one month. He leaves a wife and six sons, Mrs. Nellie Fox, Mrs. Amelia Maddox, Miss Hannah M. Wilkinson, Miss Alice Wilkinson of England, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Auburn, Me., Mrs. Annie Eaton of Lisbon, Me., and his brothers, John and Thomas Wilkinson of England, and Henry Wilkinson of Auburn, Me. He was a member of Wamost lodge, Manchester unity, I. O. O. F. of Lowell, and Royal Oak lodge, Sons of St. George, of Lewiston, Me. Funeral Thursday at 2 o'clock from his home, 95 Fourth street. Friends invited. C. M. Young in charge.

DONOVAN—Timothy Donovan, a well known old resident, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Daniel J. Donovan, No. 167 Fairmount street, aged 74 years. Deceased was a veteran of the Civil war and had been a resident of Lowell the past 35 years, and was for over 50 years a valued employee of the Lowell Machine shop. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Daniel J. Donovan and Mrs. Thomas B. DeLany; two sons, John and Joseph Donovan; a brother, John, of Westford, Mass., one sister, Mrs. Mary Halton of Nebraska, and five grandchildren.

MILLER—Mrs. Mary J. Miller, a highly respected resident of this city for a number of years, died this morning at her home, 155 Lawrence street. The deceased leaves to mourn her loss four daughters, Mrs. James Regan, Mrs. Jacob Wallace, Mrs. William Harmon and Miss Jessie Miller; four sons, James, Thomas, George and Joseph Miller. She was a prominent member of Garfield Colony, No. 34, United Order of Pilgrim Fathers. She was deeply loved in her home circle and by those who were fortunate enough to come in contact with her. Funeral notice later.

THORNTON—Joseph B. Thornton, aged 39 years, a well known and popular resident of this city, died yesterday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Martin Courtney, 236 Branch street. He leaves to mourn his loss four brothers, John, Peter, William F. and Charles C. Thornton and one sister, Mrs. Martin J. Courtney. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock from the home, 236 Branch street, and requiem high mass will be sung at St. Patrick's church on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock.

FUNERAL NOTICES

DONOVAN—The funeral of the late Timothy Donovan will take place Thursday morning at 8 o'clock from his late home, 157 Fairmount street. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem will be sung at the Immaculate Conception church. J. F. O'Donnell & Sons in charge.

PEARSON—Entered into rest, in this city, Oct. 28, 1911, at her late home, 181 Moor street, Mrs. Deata C. Pearson, beloved wife of Mr. John Pearson, aged 54 years, 10 months and 5 days. Funeral will take place from her late home, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and from the Swedish Lutheran church in Meadowcroft street at 2:30 o'clock, to which friends are respectfully invited. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

LOVEJOY—Died October 30th, Daniel Lovejoy, aged 87 years, 11 months and 24 days, at his late home, 813 Broadway. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late home, 813 Broadway. Friends invited. C. M. Young in charge.

THORNTON—The funeral of the late Joseph B. Thornton will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Martin J. Courtney, 236 Branch street. Requiem mass at St. Patrick's church on Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Friends invited. Funeral in charge of Undertaker Peter H. Savage. Friends are requested not to send flowers.

FUNERALS

HARRIMAN—The funeral of Miss Hannah Harriman took place from the Old Ladies' home, 620 Fletcher street, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and was well attended. The services were conducted by Rev. B. R. Harris, pastor of the Paige Street Baptist church and there was singing by Blanche J. Libby and Greta Cady. The body was forwarded to Boston on the 2:57 train. Burial will be in the family lot in Cedar Grove cemetery, Dorchester. The arrangements were in charge of Undertaker J. R. Currier Co.

GRALTON—The funeral of Elizabeth Mary Gralton took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her parents, John D. and Mary Elizabeth Gralton, 169 High street and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Among the many beautiful floral tributes were: Spray, inscribed "Our Darling," from the parents; spray inscribed "Elizabeth," Mrs. Gralton; spray inscribed "Little Cousin," Cousin Harold; spray, Mrs. Dacey of Boston. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

MARTIN—The funeral of the late Mrs. Dora Martin took place this morning at 9:30 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Morrison, 20 Marsh street and proceeded to the Immaculate Conception church where at 10 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Owen McQuaid, O. M. I. The choir rendered the Gregorian mass. At the offertory "O Meritum Passionis" was sung by Mrs. Hugh Walker and as the body was being borne from the church "De Profundis" was rendered by the choir. Mrs. Hugh Walker presided at the organ and the choir was under the direction of Mr. Charles P. Smith.

There were several beautiful floral tributes laid upon the grave and among them were the most prominent: Large wreath of roses, pinks and ferns tied with purple ribbon inscribed "Altogether from the daughter, Mrs. Thomas Morrison; pillow of assters, pinks and roses with the inscription "Grandma" from the grand-children; wreath of roses, pinks and ferns, Mr. John Loomis; basket of roses, pinks and lilies with purple ribbon from Miss Margaret Nesson, Miss Alice Shanahan and Mr. Harry Pratt. There were several sprays from friends.

The casket was borne by Messrs. Thomas Morrison, James Morrison, John Morrison, Richard Morrison, John Zippis and Alvah Ayer.

The funeral cortege proceeded to St. Patrick's cemetery, burial being in the family lot where the last sad rites of the Catholic church were read at the grave by the Rev. Owen McQuaid, O. M. I. The funeral was largely attended and under the direction of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

WILLIAM GOLAS

THOUGHT TO BE MAN WANTED BY HAVERHILL POLICE

William Golas of this city, who was scolded in a railroad accident near Cheyenne, Wyo., Saturday, is thought to be the man who is wanted by the police of Haverhill, Mass., on the charge of larceny. Golas has several names to travel under. The charge is that he stole some clothing from a Massachusetts man and brought it to Manchester, N. H.

When he became a fugitive from justice he could not stay around here, and he went west. Nothing was heard of him until Monday when The Sun printed a telegraph dispatch that he was in a hospital in Cheyenne. Two other Manchester men, Gus Cardoso, and Anthony Brinkos, were injured with him in the wreck.

Awful Backaching Kidney Trouble!

Dr. Derby's Famous Pills Will Quickly Restore Your Kidneys and Bladder—Banish Your Rheumatism—Try Them Free!

Oh, the torture of getting up in the morning—those terrible pains stabbing up through and through—twisting and wrenching every muscle, bone and nerve! You who suffer from kidney and bladder trouble know the experience only too well. You know what it means to drag through the day, bent forward, head to foot lame, sore, weak, miserable and despondent.

What's the use of going through all that day after day—suffering horrible, sleepless nights? There isn't any! Since Dr. Derby gave his wonderful discovery to the world, Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills (guaranteed) have from the very first—thousands of grateful and happy sufferers. You can't hurt. You soon and they are different! Truly, this little preparation which really removes the cause of kidney derangements.

If you have diabetes, dropsy, Bright's disease, inflamed bladder, any urinary difficulty, rheumatism, or any ailment for which Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills at once, 50c and 50c packages. Sample package free. At drug stores, or sent direct by Dr. Derby Medicine Co., Easton Rapids, Mich.

PROPOSALS FOR BUILDING DEPARTMENT

Each contractor who has been received from local contractors only, at the office of the Inspector of Buildings, in City Hall, until Saturday, November 4, 1911, at 12 o'clock noon, for the following, namely:

Changing system of sanitation at the Middlesex Village school.

Erection of barricades at the rifle range.

Water heater for city hall.

Each contractor must be prepared to give a bond to the amount of 25 per cent of the contract price which will be required of the successful bidder to ensure the completion of the work in the full satisfaction of the Inspector of Buildings.

His Honor the Mayor and the Inspector of Buildings reserve the right to reject any or all proposals.

Per order, JAMES DOW, Inspector of Buildings.

PROPOSALS FOR BUILDING DEPARTMENT

Each contractor who has been received from local contractors only, at the office of the Inspector of Buildings, in City Hall, until Saturday, November 4, 1911, at 12 o'clock noon, for the following, namely:

Changing system of sanitation at the Middlesex Village school.

Erection of barricades at the rifle range.

Water heater for city hall.

Each contractor must be prepared to give a bond to the amount of 25 per cent of the contract price which will be required of the successful bidder to ensure the completion of the work in the full satisfaction of the Inspector of Buildings.

His Honor the Mayor and the Inspector of Buildings reserve the right to reject any or all proposals.

Per order, JAMES DOW, Inspector of Buildings.

PROPOSALS FOR BUILDING DEPARTMENT

Each contractor who has been received from local contractors only, at the office of the Inspector of Buildings, in City Hall, until Saturday, November 4, 1911, at 12 o'clock noon, for the following, namely:

Changing system of sanitation at the Middlesex Village school.

Erection of barricades at the rifle range.

Water heater for city hall.

Each contractor must be prepared to give a bond to the amount of 25 per cent of the contract price which will be required of the successful bidder to ensure the completion of the work in the full satisfaction of the Inspector of Buildings.

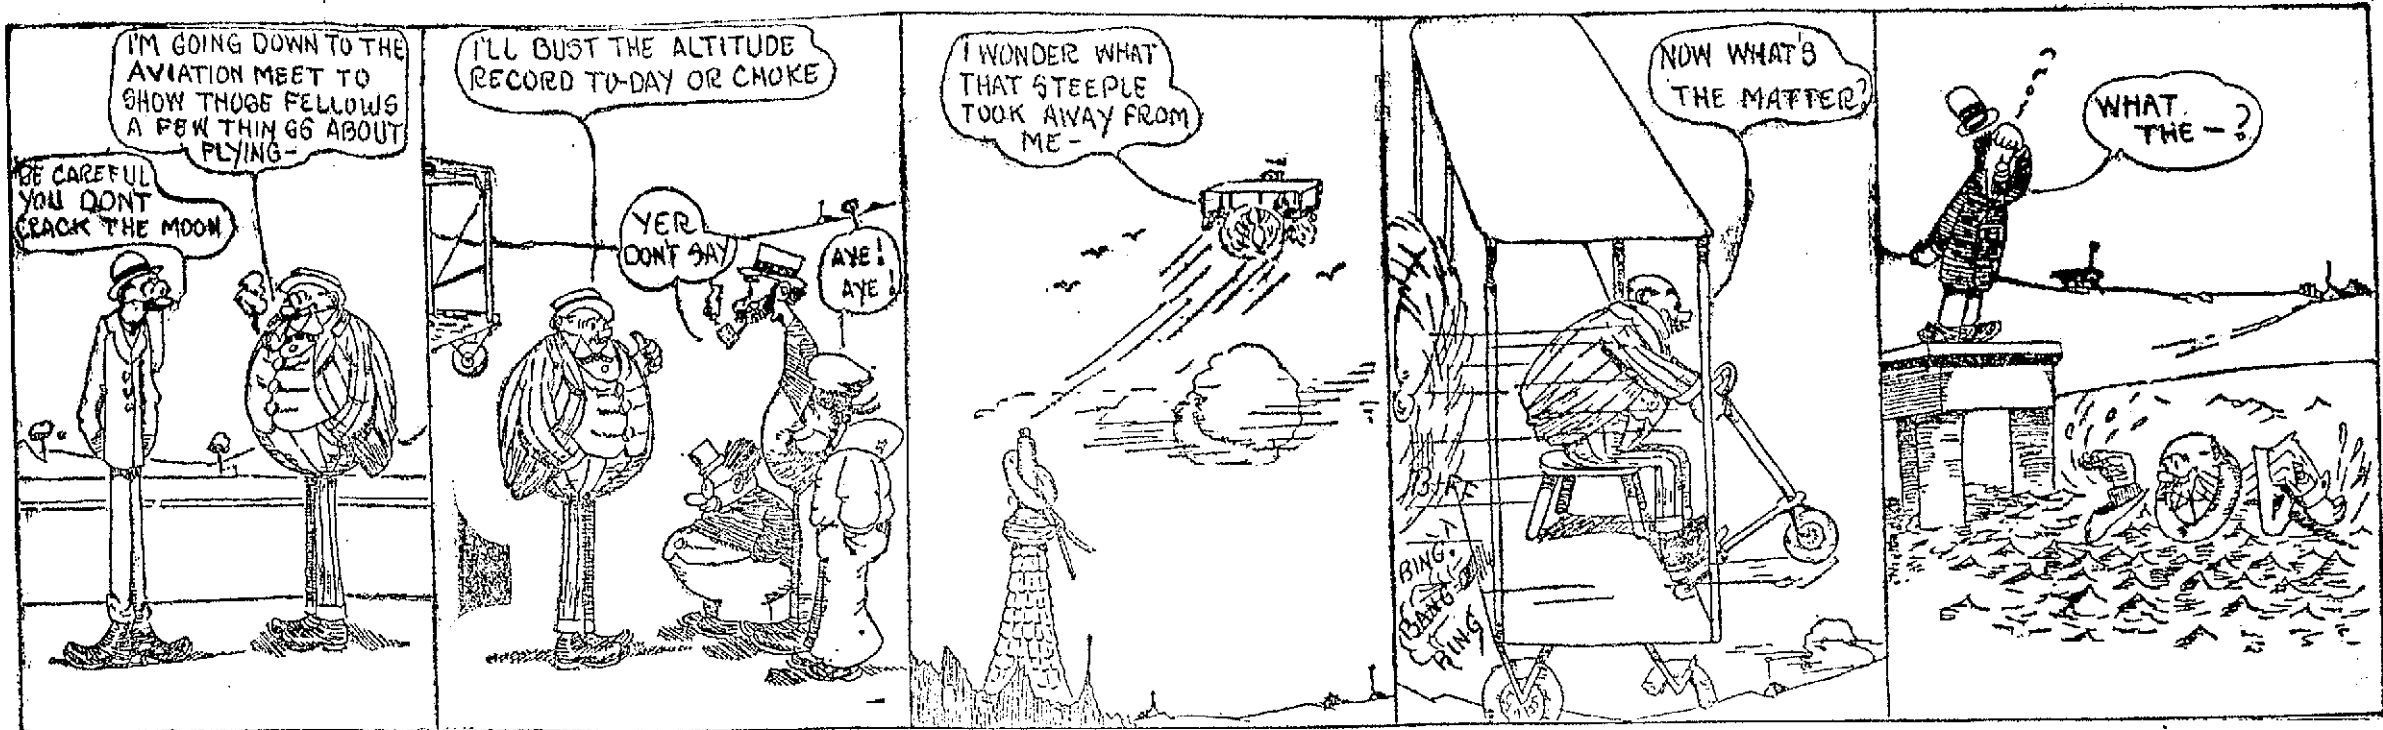

His Honor the Mayor and the Inspector of Buildings reserve the right to reject any or all proposals.

Per order, JAMES DOW, Inspector of Buildings.

PILLSBURY'S BEST

Pleases Particular People

YEP, BO, BEN'S UP IN THE AIR ABOUT SOMETHING!

INVINCIBLES LOST

Cubs Took Two Points From Champions

The bowling season is now in full swing and night after night the city is well patronized. The Concord league and the Minor league made their debut of the season last night.

The Invincibles and Cubs of the Concord league met on the Y. M. C. A. alleys and although the Cubs were defeated in the total pinfall by a margin of 11 pins the team managed to win the first two strings and therefore captured two of the points. The bowling of Rogers of the Invincibles was the feature of the game.

There were two games played in the Minor league series. The Giants found the Washingtons to be an easy proposition and won all four points with comparative ease. The game between the Arrows and Oregons of the same league resulted in a victory for the former team which won three of the four points. The scores:

CONCORD LEAGUE

Invincibles	1	2	3	Totals
Cooney	54	72	69	195
Cogan	51	85	101	237
Leonard	51	81	81	213
Hammerley	57	76	69	202
Rogers	58	86	103	247
Totals	371	394	426	1191

Cubs	1	2	3	Totals
King	53	77	71	201
Clark	53	86	89	228
Kelly	72	78	87	237
Hayes	56	78	69	203
Eastham	54	83	85	222
Totals	377	402	401	1180

MINOR LEAGUE	1	2	3	Totals
Armistead	101	81	102	284
Gordon	94	100	91	285
Herron	90	96	95	281
Panton	100	92	90	282
Sweeney	83	87	92	262
Totals	468	456	470	1394

Washingtons	1	2	3	Totals
Warren	86	93	92	271
Rourke	78	78	83	239
Whitelock	72	87	83	242
Tully	83	86	102	271
Chapman	78	93	87	258
Totals	395	435	447	1277

Arrows	1	2	3	Totals
Duchene	94	82	83	259
Blanchard	86	105	79	270
Cunliffe	73	87	95	255
Hosmer	89	79	83	251
Whipple	87	84	84	255
Totals	429	447	425	1301

Oregons	1	2	3	Totals
Fahey	83	94	76	253
Slattery	90	81	82	253
Flinders	85	87	82	254
Lane	80	78	83	241
Dow	77	92	108	277
Totals	420	432	428	1280

MANUFACTURERS' LEAGUE

The end of the second week of the Manufacturers' league finds the Lowell Machine shop team leading with a clean slate. The Bigdows and Hamiltons are tied for second place, each team having lost one point. The Blechnery team is on the bottom rung of the ladder, having lost all eight points. The Beott team has withdrawn from the league as a result of a protest entered by the Bigdows. Although the Beott team withdrew the protest and agreed to roll the forfeited game of October 24 over, the Beott management refused to remain in the league any longer.

Clark of the Machine shop team leads the individual average list with Grant of the same team in second place, both of these bowlers having averages of over 100.

The standing of the teams and players follow:

TEAM STANDING	Won	Lost	P.C.
L. M. S.	7	0	100.0
Bigelow	7	1	87.5
Hamilton	7	1	87.5
Grant	6	2	75.0
T. & S.	5	3	62.5
Lawrence	4	4	50.0
Blechnery	1	8	11.1

INDIVIDUAL AVERAGES	Strings	Ave.
Bowler and Team
Clark, L. M. S.	3	109
Grant, L. M. S.	6	102
C. Farrell, T. & S.	6	99
Green, Lawrence	6	98
McDermott, Bigelow	6	97
Halkenny, T. & S.	6	96
Hovey, Hamilton	6	95
Sharpe, L. M. S.	6	93
Sargent, Bigelow	6	92
Dodge, Hamilton	6	91
Thurston, Blechnery	6	90
McKinley, Bigelow	6	89
Tudson, Hamilton	6	88
Lank, Hamilton	6	87
Pittington, L. M. S.	6	86
J. Proulx, L. M. S.	6	85
Webb, Bigelow	6	84
Best, Hamilton	6	83

BRUNSWICK ALLEYS

The weekly roll-off on the Brunswick alleys was won by E. McCormick with a total of 507. Martin was a close second with 501 and Smith third with 295.

BRIDGE STREET ALLEYS	1	2	3	Totals
Earl Locke	101	99	101	301
George Lees	99	97	89	285
Totals	200	196	190	586

BRIDGE STREET ALLEYS	1	2	3	Totals
Earl Locke	101	99	101	301
George Lees	99	97	89	285
Totals	200	196	190	586

CHARTER RALLIES

Below appear the dates, meeting places and speakers at the charter rallies for the remainder of the week:

Tuesday, October 31st
South Lowell—Speakers: Joseph Plante, Thomas J. Goyette.

Wednesday, November 1st
Old Fellows Hall, Centralville—Speakers: Henry H. Harris, president; John E. Wilson, Esq.

Thursday, November 2nd
Chelmsford Street Church—Speakers: Harvey B. Greene, Capt. William P. White.

Friday, November 3rd
Mathew Hall—Speakers: Michael A. Lee, Dr. Frank McVinnue, Harvey B. Greene, John H. Murphy.

Saturday, November 4th
Lyon Street School—Speakers: Daniel Donohue, Major Charles S. Proctor, John E. Drury, Capt. William P. White, John Donnelly.

Sunday, November 5th
C. M. A. C.—Speakers: Dr. Joseph Lamoureux, Thomas J. Goyette, John H. Murphy.

Monday, November 6th
Middlesex Tavern—Speakers: Jos. McDonald, Esq., president; Irving D. Kimball.

Tuesday, November 7th
High Street Engine House—Speakers: Fred C. Wolf, president; Daniel Donohue, Michael A. Lee, Frederic A. Fisher, Esq.

Wednesday, November 8th
Mathew Hall—Speakers: Michael A. Lee, Dr. Frank McVinnue, Harvey B. Greene, John H. Murphy.

Thursday, November 9th
Lyon Street School—Speakers: Daniel Donohue, Major Charles S. Proctor, John E. Drury, Capt. William P. White, John Donnelly.

Friday, November 10th
C. M. A. C.—Speakers: Dr. Joseph Lamoureux, Thomas J. Goyette, John H. Murphy.

Saturday, November 11th
Middlesex Tavern—Speakers: Jos. McDonald, Esq., president; Irving D. Kimball.

Sunday, November 12th
High Street Engine House—Speakers: Fred C. Wolf, president; Daniel Donohue, Michael A. Lee, Frederic A. Fisher, Esq.

Monday, November 13th
Mathew Hall—Speakers: Michael A. Lee, Dr. Frank McVinnue, Harvey B. Greene, John H. Murphy.

Tuesday, November 14th
Lyon Street School—Speakers: Daniel Donohue, Major Charles S. Proctor, John E. Drury, Capt. William P. White, John Donnelly.

Wednesday, November 15th
C. M. A. C.—Speakers: Dr. Joseph Lamoureux, Thomas J. Goyette, John H. Murphy.

Thursday, November 16th
Middlesex Tavern—Speakers: Jos. McDonald, Esq., president; Irving D. Kimball.

Friday, November 17th
High Street Engine House—Speakers: Fred C. Wolf, president; Daniel Donohue, Michael A. Lee, Frederic A. Fisher, Esq.

Saturday, November 18th
Mathew Hall—Speakers: Michael A. Lee, Dr. Frank McVinnue, Harvey B. Greene, John H. Murphy.

Sunday, November 19th
Lyon Street School—Speakers: Daniel Donohue, Major Charles S. Proctor, John E. Drury, Capt. William P. White, John Donnelly.

Monday, November 20th
C. M. A. C.—Speakers: Dr. Joseph Lamoureux, Thomas J. Goyette, John H. Murphy.

Tuesday, November 21st
Middlesex Tavern—Speakers: Jos. McDonald, Esq., president; Irving D. Kimball.

Wednesday, November 22nd
High Street Engine House—Speakers: Fred C. Wolf, president; Daniel Donohue, Michael A. Lee, Frederic A. Fisher, Esq.

Thursday, November 23rd
Mathew Hall—Speakers: Michael A. Lee, Dr. Frank McVinnue, Harvey B. Greene, John H. Murphy.

Friday, November 24th
Lyon Street School—Speakers: Daniel Donohue, Major Charles S. Proctor, John E. Drury, Capt. William P. White, John Donnelly.

Saturday, November 25th
C. M. A. C.—Speakers: Dr. Joseph Lamoureux, Thomas J. Goyette, John H. Murphy.

OPPOSED TO CHARTER

Meeting at Mathew Hall Addressed by Mayor Meehan and Others

A large attendance gathered at Mathew hall last night, the occasion being speeches in opposition to the proposed charter by Mayor John P. Meehan, Lawrence Cummings and Michael J. Dowd, who presided.

The meeting was opened at 8:15 o'clock by Mr. Dowd, who gave a preliminary address reviewing the history of the city of Lowell.

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

OPPOSED TO CHARTER

Meeting at Mathew Hall Addressed by Mayor Meehan and Others

A large attendance gathered at Mathew hall last night, the occasion being speeches in opposition to the proposed charter by Mayor John P. Meehan, Lawrence Cummings and Michael J. Dowd, who presided.

The meeting was opened at 8:15 o'clock by Mr. Dowd, who gave a preliminary address reviewing the history of the city of Lowell.

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

OPPOSED TO CHARTER

Meeting at Mathew Hall Addressed by Mayor Meehan and Others

A large attendance gathered at Mathew hall last night, the occasion being speeches in opposition to the proposed charter by Mayor John P. Meehan, Lawrence Cummings and Michael J. Dowd, who presided.

The meeting was opened at 8:15 o'clock by Mr. Dowd, who gave a preliminary address reviewing the history of the city of Lowell.

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind of its going much higher."

"Have we had scandals in our police, our licensing, our street or our fire departments? Why even our friends of the newspapers are not able to detect actual happenings in that regard are not needed to loose the editorial pens. Ours you say but Lowell has a temporary loan of $700,000 which is carrying and in the past money has been borrowed for current expenses."

Mayor Meehan then introduced the mayor who read his speech from manuscript, his address being partly as follows:

"What have been the conditions under which this movement for a new charter has grown up? Is Lowell in the danger of bankruptcy? Are we borrowing our money cheaper than nearly all the surrounding cities? Have we been growing through a great period of extravagance? On the contrary our expenditures from year to year show but a moderate gain and I have long felt if anything we have been too parsimonious."

"Have our taxes been too high? Well the rate for this year is 79 cents lower than last year and there is no need to my mind

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1910 was 15,976

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 2, 1911. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

CHARTER ARGUMENTS

The citizens of Lowell can judge best of what the commission government means from what is accomplished in other cities where it is in force, and it seems that testimony of this kind from cities similarly situated to Lowell should be conclusive. We have abundant evidence of this kind to produce, but we cannot give it all in a single issue.

The opposition to the charter is unable to show a single argument worth considering to offset this evidence. The charge that there is danger in a commission so small would be true if the members went into office without any more restraint than the present members of the city council are under. It would be madness to commit our city affairs to such a commission unless we held in our hands the power of direct legislation and the power of the recall.

These are the weapons by which we can maintain absolute control over the members of the municipal board at all times. That is why the commission is not too small. To get the best service, men must be paid for their work, and having to pay them we do not care to have more than we need.

If the small commission should sell out it could not deliver the goods, and therefore the insinuations that such a body could be controlled by public service corporations is unfounded rot.

The assertion of one opponent of the charter that we have the initiative, the referendum and the recall in the sense or scope in which they are to be given under the new charter is sheer nonsense and nobody knows that any better than the man who made the statement.

Still another charge made against the new charter is that it deprives the people of ward representation. The democratic wards for many years past have had no representation beyond what the republican majority in the common council wished to give them. The new charter would overlook ward lines so far as city government is concerned and thus the democrats would be relieved of the subservience, but the office-holders and office-seekers are trying to delude them into the belief that in this change they are losing power. On the contrary they will be better provided for, and there will be more employment for the men who want work. The city will be started upon a new career of prosperity that will invite new industries and benefit every man, woman and child in the community. Too long have we been in a stationary condition. It is time to start a boom that will unroll the wheels of progress and bring our city up even to a higher rank among the textile cities of New England. We can never do anything of this kind under the old charter. We have had too many failures, and without a change in the charter we cannot accomplish the desired results.

The opponents of the charter try to persuade their hearers that this charter movement is a scramble for public office by the men who have led the agitation. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The movement is gradually spreading over the country, and the results are so gratifying that it is unwise to oppose it. It is the coming system of municipal government for large cities and small, and the time has come to adopt it in Lowell. No city that has chosen it has ever had to turn back or regret its course.

THE LIQUOR DEALERS AND THE CHARTER

Much is being said in regard to exempting the license commission from the general overturn that will remove most of the officials from office on January if the new charter be adopted. After that the present commissioners will be allowed to serve out their respective terms of office as license commissioners only, unless removed for cause in the usual way. The police and licensing powers now vested in the board will be separated, and that is right and proper. The union of both functions in the same board is wrong and should be changed.

But why should the license board be retained in office while others go out?

The purpose of this exemption was to have the charter question decided upon its merits without being mixed up with the liquor question. The liquor dealers will have more security under the new charter than under the old provided they obey the law, for the license board will not dare play politics in the license grant as there will be a commissioner at city hall responsible for their conduct, a man who can be easily removed if he allows things to go wrong. But if in spite of this effort to keep the license question from being mixed up with the charter fight, any large number of the liquor dealers persist in going out to beat the charter by soliciting votes, by betting and in the other ways often tried in the past, they will make the biggest mistake of their lives for the defeat of the charter would in all probability be laid at their door and in the city election if the friends of license who wanted the charter would turn out in December and vote "no" on the license question the men in the liquor business would then have retained the old charter, but they would have parted with their business for a year at least.

The liquor dealers must remember that the city election will be but a few weeks after the state election, and if there is then reason to believe that they caused the defeat of the charter the people who wanted the charter adopted will scarcely have time to forget their disappointment and as a result they would wreak vengeance on the liquor dealers by voting no license. We cannot imagine how business men of this class who have had many ups and downs would adopt such a fatuous policy as opposition to the new charter, yet we are informed that many of them are quietly out against the charter movement just as if it were a menace to their business.

We do not see why they should not be heartily sick of the present order of things as are most other business men. They have nothing to fear and much to gain from the new order of life and progress that would be brought about in our city under the commission form of government.

We hope it is not too late to utter this word of warning so that men in the liquor business may know what they are to expect if they set out to block a movement for good government in our city. Are they not patriotic citizens, are they not interested in public improvements, in better streets, better water supply, better schools, better parks and playgrounds, better results in government everywhere and with a lower tax rate? Do they not know that repeated trials to improve conditions under the old system have failed utterly and will continue to fail until we get a new charter, a government responsible to the people alone and not subservient to politicians or the political machines? Can they afford to jeopardize their business for the sake of a few self-seeking politicians? As intelligent men they must know these things, and if they adopt a course opposed to public policy on this important issue they will be assuming a heavy responsibility that may be followed by swift retribution.

SEEN AND HEARD

Those who remember the famous vaudeville team of Conroy and Dempsey years ago will be pleased to learn that the son of the latter, a Lowell boy is scoring a great success as a writer of popular songs. Mr. Dempsey who is only a young man left Lowell several years ago to enter the theatrical profession. Lately he has taken to writing songs and his latest production "The Hour That Gave Me You" is causing a great sensation in New York where Mr. Dempsey is now located. The music of the song was composed by E. Schmidt.

To make good a wager made on the recent baseball games, Thomas J. Gilhooly of Gardner, Mass., rolled a peanut for 400 yards along the main street in that town Saturday with a 27-pound crowbar. The crowd of onlookers made the feat extra hard for Gilhooly by throwing liberal quantities of peanuts in front of him, so that he had difficulty in keeping his eye on the one he started with.

The senior class of the Montclair, N. J. high school do not like red socks, so when a freshman appeared on the campus wearing hose of cardinal hue he was set upon and his stockings converted into banners. He was forced to walk into school barefooted, to the delight of hundreds of other pupils.

Charles A. Thompson of Woburn, who is 90 years old, is probably the oldest person to take out a hunter's license in Massachusetts this year. Mrs. Madeline Pitz of Brooklyn had Samuel Rosen before the court in New York city Friday. She said that Rosen, who was driving a team, while passing her at Delancey street, called out: "Stop lively there, old sweetheart." Rosen explained to the judge that his horses were named Darling and Sweetheart, and he was simply encouraging Sweetheart to stop a little faster and not addressing the woman at all. He was discharged.

THE KNIGHT'S TOAST
The feast is o'er! Now brimming wine
In jolly cup is seen to shine
Before each eager guest:
And as the toast is given, the call
Thrills in the loyal breast.

They up across the noble host,
And smiling cry: "To toast a toast!
To all our ladies fair!
Here, before all, I pledge the name
Of Staunton's proud and beautiful
The Lady Gundamere!"

Then to his feet each gallant sprang,
And loud he sang the words that rang:
As Stanley gave the word that rung,
And every cup was raised on high,
Nor ceased the loud and glad cry,
Till Stanley's voice was heard.

"Enough, enough," he smiling said,
And lowly bent his haughty head;
And as he bent his head, his hand
Now each, in turn, must play his part,
And pledge the lady of his heart,
Like gallant knight and true!"

Then, one by one, each guest sprang
up,
And drained in turn the brimming cup,
And named the loved one's name;
And each, as hand on his he laid,
His lady's grace or beauty praised,
Her constancy and fame.

"Tis now St. Leon's turn to rise;
On him are fixed those countless eyes:
A gallant knight is he;
Enviied by some, admired by all,
For famed in lady, lover and hall,
The flower of chivalry.

St. Leon raised his kindling eye,
And lifts the sparkling cup on high;
"I drink to one," he said,
Whose image never may depart,
Deep graven on this grateful heart,
Till memory be dead.

"To one whose love for me shall last,
When lighter passions long have past,
So holy 'tis and true,
To one whose love hath longer dwelt,
More deeply fixed, more keenly felt,
Than any pledged by you."

Each guest upstart at the word,
And laid a hand upon his sword,
With fury-flashing eye;
And Stanley said: "We crave the name,
From henceforth, of this most peerless dame,
Whose love you count so high."

St. Leon paused, as if he would
Not breathe her name in careless mood.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The Olivia Josselyn Hall, a gift of Mrs. Russell Sage, is being erected on the north campus atassar college. It will house 100 students, completing the accommodations for 1000 students on the campus, the stumber to which the trustees have limited Vassar. Josselyn Hall will be ready for occupancy in September, 1912.

Two new plays drawn from the novels of Thomas Hardy are to be staged next month in England, appropriately enough in Dorchester, which is in Hardy's country of Wessex. The novelist himself has prepared a dramatic version of "The Three Wayfarers." The other play will be "The Distracted Preacher."

A corner in the quill pen supply is said to exist in Washington owing to the use of that writing implement by the secretary of the navy, George D. Meyer. The secretary is a busy man in Washington and uses the pen so much that he establishes quite a market for it in Washington and to the degree that he has exhausted the supply, but by a rare good fortune, Mr. Taylor, his secretary, was made aware that the supply in Washington was low and bought all to be bought, so that the secretary will be able, for some time, to work in comfort. While Mr. Meyer was postmaster general, he used largely the fountain pen, but the ink in the navy department does not flow fluently, and he took to the quill where it runs like water and, moreover, exerts such a light touch that neither his fingers nor his arm becomes cramped.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thayer Adams of Hopkdale, Mass., who has just celebrated her one hundredth birthday, is said to have no sympathy with women who complain of family cares. Mrs. Adams reared eight children and yet found plenty of time to continue her social and educational life. Following the example of her own mother, she gave each of her children a certain household duty to perform regularly. Mrs. Adams believes that this division of household tasks is not only the salvation of the mother but of the children. She believes that the youngsters have just so much surplus energy to work out their system and if housework is presented to them in the spirit of play they can not only accomplish it successfully but gain useful experience.

Congressman Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts has accepted an invitation to deliver the chief address on Nov. 20, at the dedication of the New Hampshire Historical building, Edward Tuck, the donor, and many people of national prominence are expected as guests, including, possibly, J. Pierpont Morgan of New York.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Held at the High Street Church

The Sunday school room at the High Street Congregational church was the scene of a pretty Halloween party last night. The children had the time of their lives. They bobbed for apples and played all kinds of tricks. They had a "sheet and pillow-case" party during which a sextet sang "The Ghost of a Banjo Case." The children were treated to hot chocolate, cakes and other light refreshments.

First Universalist Church
At the First Universalist church last night the young women in Mrs. Tuttle's Sunday school class and the young men of the pastor's class held a Halloween party. The church was prettily decorated with jack-o'-lanterns, cornucopias and other decorations appropriate to the time, and the occasion. There was a short program consisting of readings for the children by Mrs.

Putnam & Son Co.

166 CENTRAL STREET

HERE, YOUNG MAN!

THAT ENGLISH MODEL IS IN OUR GUARANTEED LINE
OF SUITS FOR $15.00

Just as smart cut as our higher cost suits—short sack, natural shoulders, with long roll; waistcoat high cut; trousers straight leg.

Same guarantee that the suit will wear to your satisfaction or a

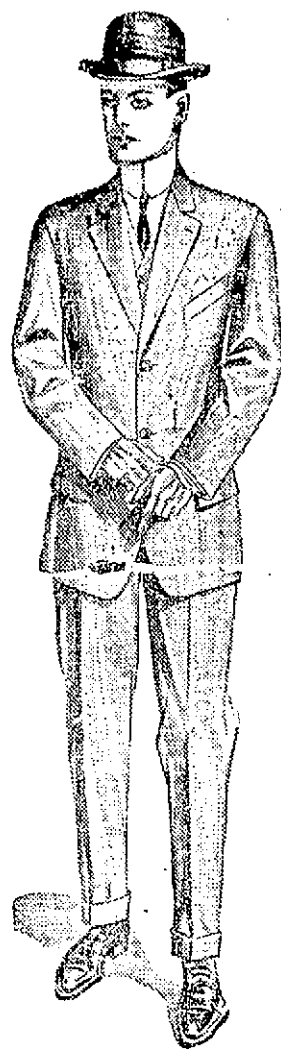

NEW SUIT FREE

NEW NUMBERS IN YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, to give a broader range of patterns, for $10 and $13.50

A LARGER VARIETY THAN EVER BEFORE in the finest suits, ROGERS-PEET'S young men's models up to $25

Genuine Cape Street
Gloves $1.00

Greatest glove ever shown for the price. Imported leather, new tan shades, outseam clasp fastener, regular and short fingers. As good as any $1.50 glove elsewhere. A leader here for $1.00

THE POLICE COURT

Short Session Before
Judge Hadley

Belle Harrington Hall, a song "The Secret," sung by Willard Henderson, and ended with two songs by Miss Grace Currier, "Merrimack" by Tosti, and "Still as the Night" by Bohm. After this program, the boys bobbed for apples, the young people engaged in a "peanut hunt" and everybody had a good time.

First Trinitarian Church

A Halloween party for the children's choir and Junior Endeavor society of the First Trinitarian Congregational church was given by Mrs. George F. Kenngott last night in the church vestries on Dutton street. Fifty children, appropriately dressed and masked formed at 7.30 in the chorus room for the grand march in the vestry, to the strains of the orchestra. Each child carried a lighted candle. After the march the candles were blown out and a game of blind man's buff was enjoyed by the silent company. The masks were then removed, and each gazed with delighted surprise at his neighbor. After spinning the platter, passing the ring on a rope, bobbing for apples, and dropping the handkerchief, the boys and girls marched to the tables stretching along one side of the vestry, for the refreshments, consisting of apples, pop-corn, candy, chestnuts, peanuts and orangeade.

After the supper the company marched to a long table on the opposite side of the vestry, where each child was furnished with a bowl and pipe for the soap bubble blowing, which created rivalry and amusement. There was then a good-natured contest among the older boys and girls to unravel the colored cob-web, while the younger children played hard and bounds.

During the evening, the ladies' orchestra, under the direction of Miss Brennan, furnished music.

Halloween Sweet Cider—Boyle Bros.

This morning's session of the police court was one of the shortest that has been held for several weeks. Judge Hadley occupied the bench and disposed of in seven minutes.

Matthew J. Conley, who was arrested last week for the alleged larceny of nine pounds of copper from the Massachusetts cotton mills and employed a plea of not guilty, changed his plea to that of guilty this morning. Major E. J. Noyes, who appeared for the government, explained the manner in which Conley took the copper from one of the mill buildings. Lawyer Joseph E. Laughran, who appeared for the defendant, pleaded for clemency for his client. The court after considering the matter found Conley guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $20. The case of drunkenness against Conley was placed on file.

John Moravski and Elmer H. Linstead, charged with being drunk, were fined $6 each. There was one first offender who was fined $2.

An inquest into the cause of the death of the infant child of Maria Lima was held in the court of second sessions this morning. Judge John J. Pickman presiding. Seven witnesses were called and examined.

It is alleged that Miss Lima, who is now under $1000 bonds on complaints charging her with manslaughter and concealing the death of her child, was delivered of a child several weeks ago in a house in Elm street and that subsequently the dead body of the infant was found between two mattresses in the bed on which the woman was lying.

An autopsy on the body of the infant as performed by Assistant Medical Examiner Robert E. Bell, assisted by Drs. Murphy and Clark, and the report was to the effect that the child had breathed.

THE A. G. CADETS

ORGANIZED TEAMS FOR A BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Tonight and tomorrow night the members of the A. G. Cadets Athletic association will meet in a basketball tournament in their quarters in the basement of St. Joseph's college, and it is expected that a good game will be put on each night, for the competing teams are in trim and as the boys say, they will there with the goods. A basketball league was recently

A Fierce Night Alarm

In the house, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, O., (R. R. No. 2) for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "So many times in severe attacks," he wrote "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, croup or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, Hay Fever, Grippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhage, etc. before the 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free. Sold by A. W. Dows & Co.

AMOS P. BEST

Democratic Progressive Candidate
FOR SENATOR

Is a friend of the laboring class and has always been charitable to the poor, before he ever thought of politics. He will know you for the election as he did before it elected. You can elect him if you wish. Your vote is what will do it.

EDWARD R. TRYON,
307 Mammoth Road.

Advertisement.

RARE FAILURE

The occasions when Howard's Pine-Balm fail are so very rare that we feel quite safe in guaranteeing this remedy to cure a cough or we will refund your money. Purely vegetable, pleasant to take and safe for all ages. Samples free to adults, large bottles 25c. Howard, the druggist, 107 Central street. (The Safety Razor Shop.)

organized among the members of the association and four teams were formed as follows:

Team A, H. Boulais, captain; A. Lamoureux, A. Giroux, C. Couillard, J. Lavigne and A. Descheneaux.

Team B, D. Brunelle, captain; P. Morin, R. Richard, N. Vigeant and A. Robitaille.

Team C, F. Descheneaux, captain; J. Mullon, F. Larose, L. Vigeant and D. Lamoureux.

Team D, A. Desloges, captain; A. Beron, E. Fontaine, R. Champagne, B. Pelletier and A. Archambault.

The officers of the league are Arthur Giroux, president; D. Brunelle, vice-president; Arthur Desloges, secretary. The boys are being trained under the supervision of their spiritual director, Rev. Fr. Duquette, M. I., who by the way is quite an athlete.

COMMITTEE OF SIXTY

MEETING OF PEOPLE INTERESTED IN NEW CHARTER TONIGHT

There will be a meeting of the Committee of Sixty, the ward workers and those interested in the proposed charter at the board of trade rooms tonight.

Arrangements for election day and the contribution of the features of the campaign will be discussed.

DR. TRUE'S ELIXIR

The Family Laxative and Worm Medicine
Makes growing children healthy, hearty, and happy—it should have a permanent place in every home. Mothers, when little folks seem peevish and irritable, give them Dr. True's Elixir. It cures worms, cures constiveness, indigestion, overfulness, biliousness, the little ailments which lead to serious sickness. Dr. True's Elixir is pleasant to take and good for old and young. In use 60 years. All dealers. 35c, 50c, and $1.00 a bottle.

DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Maine

E. G. SOPHOS

IMPORTER AND WHOLESALE DEALER IN

Oriental, Greek and Italian Produce

Specialties in Oil, Olives and Cheese

Goods of the better sort we are unable to visit our store, we will gladly send samples of materials and recipes for measurement upon request.

We guarantee our Olive Oil strictly pure. Give us a call.

New and Exclusive Things

FOR PARTICULAR MEN

OUR own importation of European Novelties in Furnishing Goods of the better sort we are unable to visit our store, we will gladly send samples of materials and recipes for measurement upon request.

English and Scotch Waistcoats, Shirts and Linnen Wool Jackets, Housecoats and Smoking Jackets, Crocheted Neckwear, Embroid Collars, Initial Handkerchiefs, Lisle and Silk Hosiery, Knitted Silk Shirt Protectors, etc.

Send for our illustrated booklet, "Of Interest to Men." It tells all about the convenience of our perfect system of Shopping by Post.

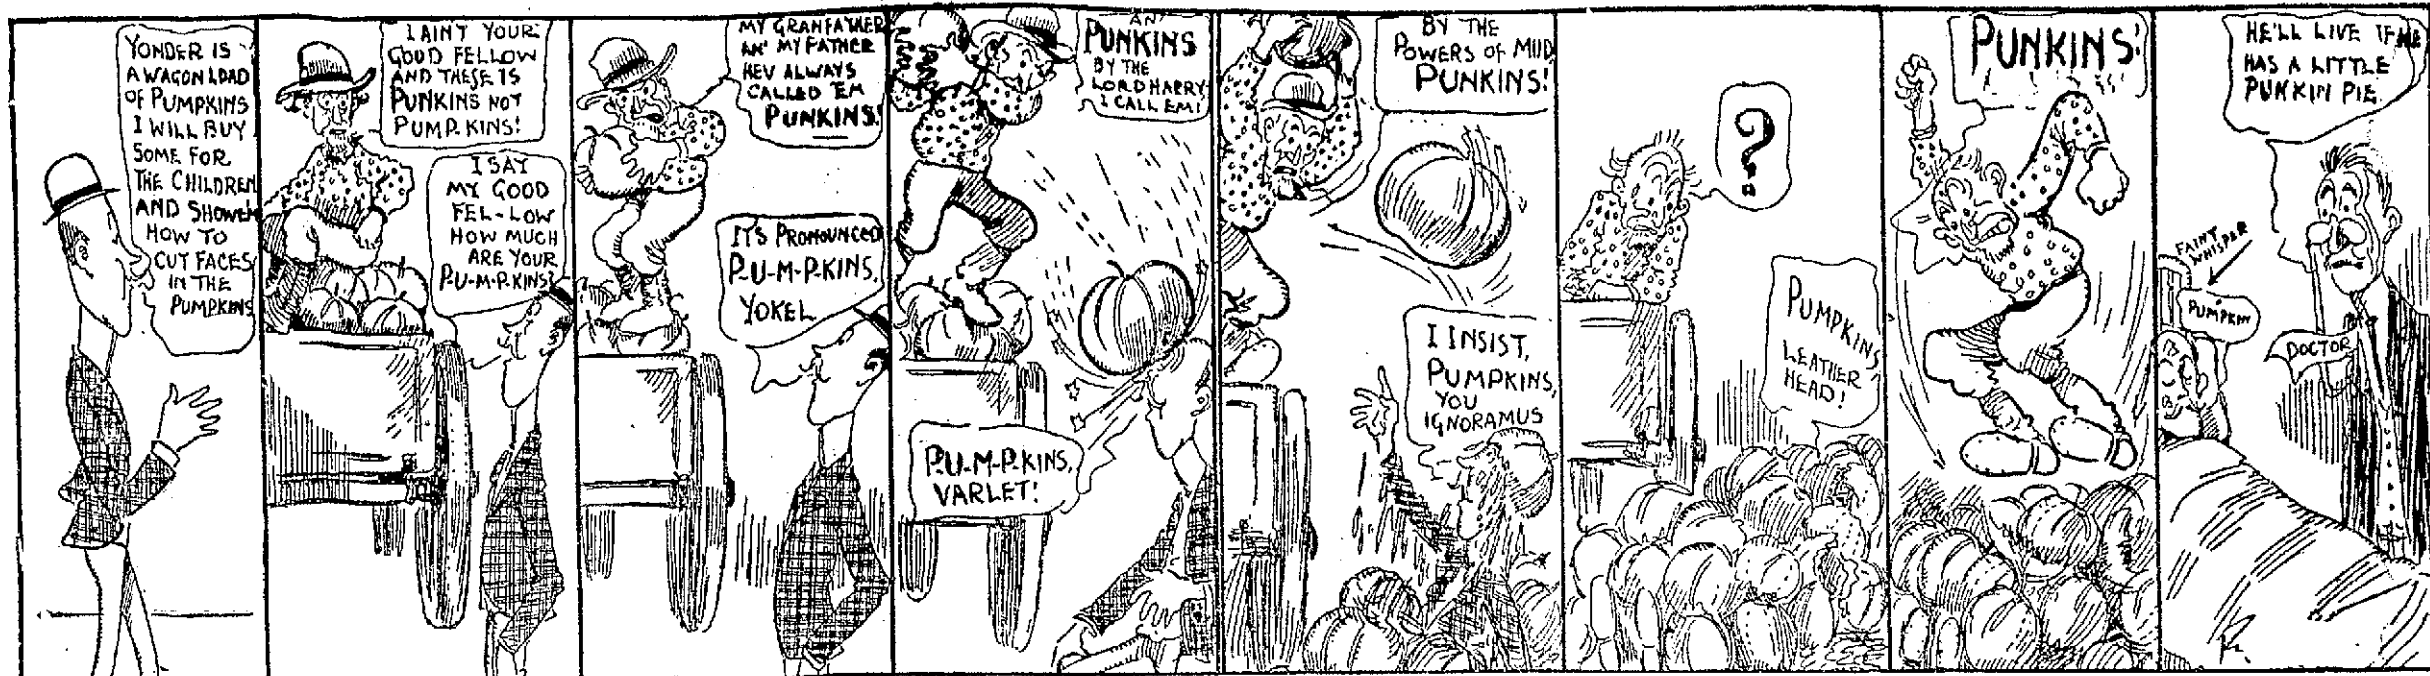

To those interested in our Clothing (made in our shops on the premises) and who are unable to visit our store, we will gladly send samples of materials and recipes for measurement upon request.

Macallan Parker Co.

400 Washington St. Boston, Mass.

MR. I. L. SHOWEM GETS SOME PUMPKINS FOR HALLOWE'EN

TAFT FEARS DEFEAT

Says There is Possibility That Republicans May Lose

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—President Taft surprised a large audience at the dinner of the Hamilton club yesterday by what most of his hearers construed as an admission of the possibility of republican defeat in the next national election. He was speaking to what had promised to be an unusually enthusiastic audience of republicans. Many in the audience hastened to attribute his utterance to weariness after his long tour of speechmaking, especially after the three days' hard "campaign" in Chicago. It was his last public utterance in Chicago before he departed for Pittsburgh.

"Now we are at some people think—the crisis in the republican party with reference to its continuance in the guidance of the nation," the president said. "I am hopeful that the good people of the country, who know a good thing when they see it, have only chastened us in an off year, in order that we may be better hereafter, but with an intention of shifting from shoulders that are fitted to bear the burdens of the present problems and carry them to a successful solution to those which are untried, and which have new theories of action that we do not believe in and that we don't believe the people believe in. However, if so be it that they desire to make a change, we shall loyally support the new government under any conditions, with the hope it will more to the benefit of the country, but with the consolation that, if after one trial the people think they ought to go back to the old party that has served them so well in the progressive days of the nation, they will do so. We can bear that, my friends; that is all."

After his speech the president retired to his hotel for rest. Though he professed no weariness, the three days' steady study told on him, and he was a tired man who led the presidential party out of Chicago at 5:30 p. m. over the Pennsylvania railroad for Pittsburgh.

HE TRIED SUICIDE

Evicted Lawyer Cut His Throat

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Edwin S. Lewis, a lawyer, of 22 Waverley avenue, Newton, who was disbarred from practicing in the Massachusetts courts by Judge Richardson in April, 1909, for gross misconduct toward his clients, attempted suicide yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor yesterday, as a result of being evicted from his house for non-payment of rent. He is in the Newton hospital in a dangerous condition.

A mortgage on the house, which belonged to Lewis' wife, was foreclosed a year ago last August on account of his failure to pay interest. About two months ago a writ of eviction was issued by Judge Kennedy in the Newton police court, but the writ was not served at once on account of Lewis' promise to adjust the matter if he were given a little more time. The owner of the house became tired of waiting and ordered Deputy Sheriff Walker to serve the writ. Lewis is said to have threatened some time ago when the writ was first issued to take his life if it was served on him. Lewis was out yesterday when Sheriff Walker and his deputies arrived at the house. The sheriff did not wait for him to return, but started to work putting his household goods on the sidewalk. Lewis returned, seeing that what was going on, picked up a razor and cut his throat. The sheriff and his men rushed in and hurried him to the hospital.

SUES FOR $10,000

ROXBURY WOMAN ALLEGES BREACH OF PROMISE

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Harvey D. Hadlock, of 106 Winthrop street, Roxbury, who is about 60 years old, has filed through her counsel, Daniel J. Gallagher of 18 Tremont street, an attachment for $10,000 on the real estate of Charles J. Gorman of 124 West Broadway street, widely known as an amusement manager, in an alleged breach of promise action.

The attachment was filed in the Middlesex probate court at East Cambridge yesterday afternoon. According to the allegations of the libellant, who is the widow of one of Boston's best known lawyers, the affection between Mrs. Hadlock and Mr. Gorman began about six years ago, when the defendant promised to marry Mrs. Hadlock's son for a stage career. Since that time, she alleges, scores of letters of a most loving character have passed between the two. She also claims to have advanced Mr. Gorman in the neighborhood of $10,000.

A pretty Roxbury telephone operator, to whom Mrs. Hadlock says, Mr. Gorman is attentive, is said to be the real cause of the filing of the suit. It is understood that Mr. Gorman will make a complete denial of all the allegations brought by Mrs. Hadlock.

THREE INJURED

IN A RUNAWAY ACCIDENT IN DORCHESTER

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Samuel Field, 55, of 575 Washington street, Dorchester; Ray Rice, 23, of 4 Broadway, Ashmont, and Peter Houghton, of 10 Stanfield street, Brighton, were injured as the result of a runaway at Brighton yesterday. The horse, attached to a light express wagon owned by Field Bros., of 575 Washington street, became frightened when the rain got tangled up in his tail and ran away on Lake street, near St. John's seminary. Field, who was driving, was thrown to the ground and probably received a concussion of the brain. Rice received a fracture of the right hip. Houghton, who tried to stop the horse, lost his hold and was knocked down and run over, receiving contusions of the right thigh.

STRUCK BY AN AUTO

Little Girl is Suffering From Shock

Mary Pifer, aged seven years and residing at 5 Spring street, was struck by an automobile in Middlesex street near the corner of Revere street, about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She was not badly hurt but was suffering from the shock. She was taken to St. John's hospital where she received treatment.

The little girl was crossing the street with her little brother and did not see the approaching automobile. She was struck a glancing blow and knocked to the ground. The driver of the auto, although he knew that he had struck the child, did not stop. The car is described as a five passenger touring car with red body. None who witnessed the accident was able to learn the license number of the machine.

GETS A DIVORCE

MRS. ARNOLD GOT A DECREE FROM HER HUSBAND

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Alice M. Arnold has secured a divorce from her husband, Sheffield A. Arnold of the Bank Day, a landscape artist, from Judge Hardy on a charge of infidelity. Though her husband took the trouble to go to Reno to get a divorce, Judge Hardy ignored the Reno decree as not good in this state and granted the wife a divorce and a substantial alimony.

The co-respondent, Miss Virginia Edwards, now known as Mrs. Virginia Arnold, was the girl who, Arnold's first wife claimed, sent her husband to Reno a year ago last summer, where he secured a divorce.

Judge Hardy ordered the artist husband to pay Mrs. Alice M. Arnold $15 a week alimony and $500 additional in a lump sum by Nov. 1. The case was uncontested.

Miss Edwards is a Nevada girl. Arnold lives at 1305 Beacon street and was formerly a newspaper man in this city. He is 34 years old and has an office at 6 Beacon street.

Mrs. Arnold, the libellant, is 32 years old and lives at 50 King street, Dorchester. She was formerly Miss Alice M. Frazier. When she married she was but 18 years old and her husband was but 18 years old.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful evening was spent.

Halloween Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Estabrook, 38 Cosgrove street, was last night the scene of a pretty gathering. The occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and there were guests from Maine, Lawrence, Manchester and Boston. Towards the latter part of the evening, the host and hostess were delightfully surprised when their numerous guests presented them a beautiful ten set of 50 pieces light luncheon was served and a delightful

STABBED IN BACK

Man Spoke to Girl and Was Assaulted

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—John Margie of 2 North square, was stabbed in the back three times, slashed across the cheek and had the middle finger of his right hand badly cut during an altercation last evening on Purchase street.

The cause of the trouble was Margie's effort, it is said, to speak to a young woman walking through Purchase street with Giovanni Barresse of 2 Frankfort street, East Boston. Margie knew both well.

The moment he spoke a fight started, however. He alleged that Barresse drew a knife, which Margie finally succeeded in knocking out of his hand. Then Barresse ran down Purchase street in the direction of Atlantic ave. with Margie and a crowd of about 25 at his heels.

Near the Hotel Rosemore, Patrolman Hale of the City Hall Avenue station arrested Barresse. Margie was sent to the Relief hospital and then went home against the advice of the surgeons. Barresse was charged with assault and battery with a knife with intent to kill.

In the police the girl vanished, and although the officer went her for a witness, she has not been located.

HELD IN $5000

SOMERVILLE MAN IS CHARGED WITH ARSON

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—George Gutro, aged 24, of 8 Myrtle place, Somerville, appeared before Judge Michael J. Murray in the municipal criminal court yesterday to answer to the charge of attempting to set fire to buildings at 25 and 41 Endicott street, North End, both occupied in part as dwellings.

Notified that his case was beyond the jurisdiction of the lower court, he waived a hearing and was held for the grand jury. In default of $5000 bail he was remanded to Charles Street jail.

One of the witnesses against Gutro is James Hillard of East Springfield street, who says that he saw Gutro coming out of an Endicott street cellar last Saturday afternoon and was bitten by Gutro when he tried to stop him. There are other witnesses. Gutro was arrested by Patrolman John D. Kellner of Division 1.

EXETER GIRLS' CLUB

The Exeter Girls' club of upper Gorham street, composed of popular young ladies, held a successful bazaar ride Saturday evening to the home of Mrs. Delory of West Gilewich. Supper was served and dancing enjoyed, and a musical program was carried out. James Wood and John Foley catered. Those responsible for the affair were: Lillian Mone, Sadie Gilewich, Mae Lavery, Mary Corigan, Ella Mone, Ruth Campbell, Alice Hawthorn, Mae McCarron, Winnie Lavery, Lillian Lawton, Lizzie Davidson, Jennie Nelson. Miss Annie Mone was the pianist of the evening.

Your Good Looks

should be a source of pride to you. Sallow skin, pimples, blotches and eruptions call for immediate attention. It should be your aim to get rid of these disfiguring signs of impure blood—quickly, certainly, inexpensively. No outward application will purify your blood.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

help naturally from within. They cleanse the system and enable your stomach, liver and bowels to work as Nature intended.

Try a few doses and see how quickly you will be rid of impurities, and how your blood and your looks will be benefited. Thoroughly tried and proved good this family remedy is

The Best of Beauty's Aids

For females, Beecham's Pills are specially suitable. See instructions with each box. Sold Everywhere. In boxes 10c. and 25c.

Practical Home Helps

FOR INSOMNIA

Heat 1 glass of milk to boiling point, add enough sugar to salt the taste, and 2 tablespoonfuls of pure malt whiskey, stir well and drink slowly. It taken before retiring this will quiet the nerves and produce restful sleep. It is simply proved that can be prepared by any one very quickly.

Dr. J. S. Townsend of Detroit, Mich., who is an authority says: "This recipe will cure insomnia and build up the weak, nervous and debilitated."

A BIG MASSACRE

Continued

The revolutionists point out that such edicts as these, wherein the theories and appointments and relatives are called thieves and scoundrels do not tend to create confidence.

But while the edicts have apparently failed of their hoped for effect in conciliating the rebels, they have stirred up a most formidable opposition from a new source. The announcement that most of the Manchurian soldiers must go and that all the Manchurian pensions will be cut off immediately produced a pronounced dissatisfaction in the ranks of the Manchus and many members of this race at once began talking in favor of a massacre of revenge. There were indications already today that these proposals would find support, particularly among the younger Manchurian princes, who will now be stripped of their high office and unable longer to exploit their positions.

May Lead Massacre Party

Officials prominent among the native Chinese profess to have information that Prince Tuan, uncle of the baby emperor, is willing to lead the massacre party. Prince Tuan is well known in Europe and America.

Throughout the day the foreign legations, the missions and even private houses occupied by foreigners were besieged by both Manchus and Chinese who sought protection from each other. Certain legends are circulating both Chinese and Manchus to take refuge in case of trouble behind the Methodist mission, which is situated in that corner of the main city lying between the legation quarter and the east wall.

This is the most easily defended section of the city and the legation guards may be able to protect those who gather there. Long lines of carts piled high with the household belongings of fleeing ones continue to pass out the city gates before the early closing hours. Soldiers now guard all the city gates. Many carts emerge from the forbidden city, some carrying soldiers. Carloads of silver, sometimes without a guard, pass day and night in and out the legation quarter. The money is brought to the legation from the defenseless Chinese banks for a temporary safe deposit and then removed to replace the money changed or to be forwarded to the minister of war, Gen. Yin Tehang, for the loyal troops, who are receiving their pay with unprecedented regularity. Wealthy citizens also are entrusting their fortunes to foreigners.

The government has asked the mission doctors to establish a Red Cross hospital outside the city for the reception of the wounded who are expected to return in a few days from the encounter with General Li Yuan Hong's rebels.

Foreigners are anxious over the situation. In Peking but not alarmed. Outsiders have not yet entered the legation quarter. Nevertheless, the fullest precautions are being taken. Unarmed pickets form a line about the legation walls and extending into the Chinese streets. Foreigners are looking for the foreigners in the province of Shiang Si, many of whom are Americans. The rebels in that province are said to be in possession of the capital, where there are several missions and which also is the seat of Shiang Si university.

DRAGON FLAG

WAS AGAIN HOISTED IN CANTON, CHINA, TODAY

CANTON, China, Oct. 31.—The dragon flag was again hoisted here today. Business is being resumed.

CHINESE REBELS

ARE FURIOUSLY OPPOSING THE IMPERIALIST ADVANCE

HANKOW, Oct. 29, via Wu Hu, Oct. 31.—The revolutionists have rallied, are reorganizing their forces and are furiously contesting the imperialist advance on Tih Yeh. The insurgents still hold a section of the city which separates the foreign concessions from the native city. The Red Cross doctors estimate that 1000 revolutionists have been killed and between 200 and 300 wounded during the fighting of the past three days.

Of a rebel battalion which faced the imperialist machine guns with intrepid tenacity only two or three escaped. The others were moved down. The loyalists lost from 200 to 300 killed.

A LITTLE NONSENSE

PUTTING HIM RIGHT.

"Say, werry, aldy youse one uv dem fellers wot don't believe in doin' two tings at wunst?"

"Two tings? Why, I'm one uv dem chaps wot don't believe in doin' one t'ing at wunst."

AWFUL

"Madam, pardon me, but are you really fond of your dog?"

"Yes, why?"

"Well, I was going to say if you weren't I'd feed him that sandwich you just gave me."

SAD CASE.

"Don't weep, Willie, youse couldn't help it."

"I know, but I hadn't touched water for ten years, an' den ter be kicked off a train later a creek! Bee-hoo! Dis is too much, too much!"

WHEN WOMEN VOTE.

"Did youse shake down de gent in de house back dere?"

"Naw. He's got a ferocious mouse chained to de back porch, an' I couldn't get near de door."

A BIRD-LIKE FEELING.

"I feel like a bird."

"How's that?"

"De lady's bulldog made me quill."

MEAN.

"Can't you assist me, sir, I belong to the vast army of the unemployed?"

"Then you'd better beat it back to headquarters quick."

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

SAVE YOUR OWN BEST BY BUYING one of the many bargains in two tenements and cottages on my large lot covering all sections city and suburbs. Come very easy payments. All kinds of insurance, lowest rates. M. J. Sharkey, 22 Central st., room 25. Open Saturday and Monday evenings.

NEAR ST. PETERS—VERY PLEASANT 7-room cottage with bath; very small corner lot. M. J. Sharkey, 22 Central st., room 25.

A BARGAIN—TWO TENEMENTS house with all modern improvements, located in West Centralville, near the mills, French and public schools. In Atty. home always rented; can be bought with $100 or more down and the remainder as rent. For further particulars address A. B. C. Sun Office.

LOST AND FOUND

LADY'S PURSE FOUND IN ST. PATRICK'S church, Oct. 15, containing sum of money. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for this ad. at 32 Willie st.

BOX HOUND LOST, WHITE WITH tan ears and one black spot on side. A little lame in hind leg. Notify Mr. Adams, Care C. H. Hanson & Co.

STRING OF GOLD BEADS LOST ON Friday evening. The finder will please notify or return them to W. H. Harpison, 48 South Walker st. and receive reward.

$600 AND CHANGE, IN AN ENVELOPE, lost at 5 p. m. Friday, opposite the Edison cemetery gate and Saratoga st. Reward at 25 Saratoga st.

GOLD RING WITH CHIP DIAMOND lost Oct. 25, either in Saunders' or Flynn's markets, or in McCann's bakery, in Gorham st. Reward if returned to 45 Shaw st.

GENT'S GOLD SCARF PIN with emerald stone lost Tuesday. The finder will kindly return to The Sun office and receive reward.

FREE TO THE SICK

It matters not the name of the disease you are suffering with, how many Physicians you have taken treatment with, do not be discouraged. DR. TEMPLE'S TREATMENT WILL CURE YOU.

All Blood, Nerve and Rectal Diseases, Acute and Chronic Blood Diseases of Men and Women, Hydronephrosis, Stricture, Prostatitis, Piles, Fistula, Fissures, Ulcers and all Rectal Diseases Without the Use of the Knife. Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidney, Bladder, Bowels, Rectum, Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat.

Terms are always made to suit the convenience of anyone applying for treatment, and very reasonable charges. Do not treat elsewhere until you have investigated methods and terms. Office, 42 Central street, Mansur Block, Wednesdays, 2 to 4; 7 to 8.

Sundays, 10 to 12. Other days by appointment only. Consultation, Examination, Advice FREE.

STORAGE FOR FURNITURE Separate rooms $1 per month for regular $2 two-horse load. The dryest and cleanest place for storage in Lowell. Telephone connection. O. P. Prentiss, 328 Bridge st.

WHO FILLS YOUR PRESCRIPTIONS?

When your physician prescribes a remedy, he expects certain results. Every drug we use in compounding is absolutely pure and of standard strength, and certain to afford the desired results.

Let us fill your prescriptions.

F. J. Campbell

REGISTERED PHARMACIST

TWO STORES—Tower's Corner Drug Store, 655 Dutton, Cor. Fletcher St.

LEGAL NOTICES

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP The partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned under the firm name of C. O. Leavitt & Co., carrying on the business of the manufacture of Custom Shirts at 25 and 10 Middlesex street, Lowell, Mass., is this day dissolved by mutual consent. C. O. Leavitt will continue the business at the same place, is authorized to collect all bills due the firm and will pay the firm's indebtedness.

FORREST B. LEAVITT, Lowell, Mass., October 26th, 1911.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of Wallace F. Bennett, late of Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, and appointing Elsie S. Bennett of Lowell, his agent, at the law direct. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to the subscriber, Azro H. Schoolcraft, Adm., 29 Webster st., Oct. 16, 1911.

HELP WANTED

TABLE GIRL WANTED AT ONCE. Inquire 39 Chelmsford st.

SECTION HAND WANTED FOR cap spinning. One used to filling spinning. Address E. Sun Office.

PAINTERS WANTED. APPLY AT once. Dwyer & Co., 47 Andover st.

MEKAY STITCHER WANTED. Apply Robinson & Farrell Shoe Co., Rockingham st.

GIRL PARTNER WANTED TO work in a musical act. Must be good looking and about 18 or 20 years of age. Hours between 7 and 8 o'clock evenings. Address E. Elliott, 341 Lakeview ave., Centralville.

WIDOWER WISHES TO HAVE A French Catholic housekeeper, about 40, single or widow, without children. Call 12 m. or 5 p. m. E. Belanger, 690 Lawrence st.

RAILWAY MAIL CLERKS WANTED—Customs employees. Average $90 monthly. Lowell examinations announced Jan. 15th. Sample questions free. Write immediately, Franklin Institute, Dept. 155 K, Rochester, N. Y.

GIRLS WANTED. INQUIRE AT Middlesex Co., Warren st.

CLEANING WANTED BY THE day or hour. Address X. Y. Z., Sun Office.

HOUSE GIRL WANTED. INQUIRE at 423 Central street.

ST. TO ST. DAILY SELLING NEW Fibre Brooms 100 per cent profit; every woman will buy. Begin canvass at once. Sample by express, 30 cents. Wynne Broom Co., Elmira, N. Y.

MEN WANTED TO LEARN THE automobile business, road driving and repairing. Send stamp for particulars. New England Auto School, 609 Tremont st., Boston.

WANTED FOR U. S. ARMY—ABLE-bodied unmarried men, between ages of 18 and 35; citizens of United States, of good character and temperate habits, who can speak, read and write the English language. For information apply to Recruiting Officer, 169 Middlesex st., Lowell, Mass.

STOVE REPAIRS

STOVE REPAIRS—WE CARRY IN stock and furnish all kinds of stoves, ranges, water heaters, etc., for all kinds of stoves and ranges. Work done at lowest prices. Bring size and name of stove. Telephone 1277. Quinn Furniture Co., 160 Middlesex st.

TO LET

All sufferers from piles, old sores and all skin diseases know that ST. THOMAS' SALVE has no equal. Try it. All leading druggists, 35c.

W. A. LEW

Steam drying and cleaning of ladies' and gent's wearing apparel. 30 years' experience at this work. 40 John st.

F. W. Cragin & Co.

MANUFACTURERS OF

Cabinet Work of All Kinds to Order

Stores and offices fitted up. Wood turning, jobbing and repairing. Old furniture repaired and finished, new furniture made to order.

40 Fletcher Street

LOWELL, MASS. Telephone

68 CENTRAL STREET, ROOM 34

Rummage Sale

By ladies of St. John's parish, Nov.

2nd and 3rd, THURSDAY and FRI-

DAY, 321 Central St.

SPECIAL NOTICES

CLEAN BRICK BY THE THOUSAND wanted. Apply J. A. Simpson, 68 Methuen st.

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES RE-sharpened cut better than new. 25c each at Carter & Sherburne's drug store.

NEURALGIA CURED FIVE WITH a sample of Painexin, Clark's Neuralgia Remedy. Send a 2c stamp to the John W. M. Clark Co., Athol, Mass.

CHILDREN NO. 1 KILLS TICKS OF children. Excellent for horsetail moth killing, fly poison, hives, mange, salt rheum, falling hair. 25 cents at Fells & Rivestinshaw's.

LEAVITT CO. CHIMNEY EXPERTS Chimneys swept and repaired. 117-120 Bridge st. Tel. 945.

THE SUN IN BOSTON—THE SUN is on sale every day at both news stands at the Union station in Boston. Don't forget this when taking your train for Lowell.

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES OF ALL kinds sharpened; Gillette's a specialty; 25c each. Harry Gonzales, The Cutler, 123 Gorham st. Tel. 552-2.

TO LET

TENEMENT OF FOUR ROOMS, with gas connections for range, to let at 164 Crosby st. Apply 164 Crosby st. or to Undertaker John A. Plunegash, 179 East Merrimack st.

NEATLY FURNISHED ROOMS TO let; steam heat and gas $1 per week and up. Mrs. McMillan, Gailagher House, Williams st.

HAIR A HOUSE TO LET, WITH 7 rooms, front and back yard. Terms very reasonable. Inquire at 606 E. Merrimack st.

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

TO LET

NICE SUNNY TENEMENT OF 4 rooms, to let big yard, $8 month. 19 Cedar st.

SUNNY 5-ROOM TENEMENT TO let, bath, hot and cold water, separate stove, beautiful view of the city. Inquire 225 Avon st.

FURNISHED ROOMS, ALSO ROOMS for light housekeeping, to let, steam heat and bath; board if desired, at 6 Statepole st.

NICE NEW 6-ROOM TWO-STORY modern cottage, with all modern improvements to let at 31 Garston ave., Pawtucketville. Well situated, pleasant surroundings.

NICE DOWN STAIRS TENEMENT on Beech st., to let. Half of double cottage with 7 rooms on Alder st. Inquire of John McNameama, 212 Merrimack st.

ONE 5-ROOM AND ONE 4-ROOM tenement to let on North st. Apply at 33 North st.

5-ROOM TENEMENTS TO LET IN Statepole st., having separate front and rear yards, newly painted and papered and in the best of repair. Apply 111 East Merrimack st. or 8 Dutton st.

6-ROOM TENEMENT AT 8 CLARK court, to let. Inquire at 233 Concord st.

MODERN 4-ROOM FLAT AT 16 Agarawan st., $17.50; modern improvements. Inquire at 309 Dutton st. Own doors, $2.10. Key at 309.

FOUR-ROOM TENEMENTS TO LET, 15 to 18 Seventh st. Inquire on premises, or telephone 1133-1.

EIGHT ROOM TENEMENT TO LET AT 135 Church st. Good location for business. Apply to H. H. H. and Son, room 309 Wyman's Exchange.

6-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET IN Highlands. All modern improvements. Inquire E. Brickett, 65 Dover st.

7-ROOM HOUSE AT 9 18TH ST. TO let; all modern improvements. Inquire 1014 Bridge st.

7-ROOM COTTAGE TO LET, BATH, open plumbing, gas city water, stable and large lot of land. Apply to M. Corbett, 32 Highland st.

5-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, CENTRAL, convenient location; warm and sunny. $17.50 week. T. H. Elliott, 65 Central st.

4-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET; DELICIOUS, five minutes walk to post office; sunny and convenient. $7 per month. T. H. Elliott, 65 Central st.

FURNISHED ROOMS WITH STEAM heat and bath, to let, at 155 Middlesex st. Apply at the Columbia, 179 Middlesex st.

SUNNY 5-ROOM TENEMENT TO let, newly papered and painted; convenient location, $10 a month. Apply E. C. Russell, 407 Middlesex st. Near depot.

5-ROOM UPSTAIRS FLAT TO LET at 177 Statepole st., near Alder st. Bath, pantry, set tubs, hot water, gas and electric fixtures. Rent $15 a month. Apply to George W. Fairburn, 284 High st. Telephone 2563.

A black and white portrait of a man in a suit and tie, looking slightly to the right. The image is framed by a thick black border. The man has dark hair and is wearing a dark suit jacket over a light-colored shirt and a dark tie. The background is a light, textured gray. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, faint logo that reads "THE GAYLORD STUDIO".

Of "Our Stock Company," Merrimack Square Theatre

let is very catchy and the way it is rendered by Kendal Weston and his associate players, Stanley Wood, Miss Constance Jackson and Miss Beatrice Saville, greatly pleased the spectators. The stage effect in this play is also beautiful.

Again the bill at the Merrimack Square theatre is up to the standard this week. The program throughout is excellent and the audiences at both performances yesterday afternoon and evening could not have been larger, and be it said right here that this program could not be duplicated for the money.

The head liner is "The Laughing Horse," a comedy affair that has many laughs attached to it. The scene represents a circus where a loud voiced barker introduces a few of the wonders that are shown on the inside of the big tent. Among the marvellous and harmless individual, the fat lady, the snake charmer and the strong man, and last but not the least, "The Laughing Horse." This intelligent beast performs all sorts of stunts and closes the act by leaning against the tent with its legs crossed, and laughing.

Our Stock company presents this week the delightful comedy entitled "A Woman's Example." This little play

AKERS:
Lieutenant Governor.
P. Lawrence, of North Adams
Congressman James W. Good, of Iowa.
Preside. All Are Cordially Invited.
For Ladies and Their Escorts.
Chairman of Republican City Committee.
President Frothingham Club.